

Woman's Ills

as often caused by kidney disease affections of the womb. among the most certain symptoms of this disease are Backache, Bad Common, A Tired Feeling, Depressed Mood, Headache, Nervousness, Side-Pains, Neuralgia, Too Frequent Urination, Dragging Pains, etc.

CURED

can heartily recommend your friends Kidney Pills to any woman afflicted with those distressing pains in back and sides, and kidney weakness, for they have cured me. For several years I have been troubled with backache, bearing down pains and urinary trouble. Nothing succeeded in curing me, until I got a box of your pills. I began to feel better the first days, and never felt better in my life than I do now. Miss Melissa L.
 Andersonville, Indiana

HOBBS

Paragus Kidney Pills.

THIS REMEDY CO., PROPRIETORS, CHICAGO.
 Paragus Pills For Sale in DECATUR, IND., by J. H. CALLOW, Druggists, The Old Dorrin Store.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

TIKI cures corns and warts. 11f Attend the concert at the M. E. church tonight.
 Dr. W. J. Vizard, of Pleasant Hills, was in the city Tuesday.
 Mrs. Wilson, of Fort Wayne, visited Mrs. A. L. DeVilbiss last week.
 Mrs. Maro Harner, of Logan, Mo., is visiting her brother, Jas.
 Stone.
 $3.00—Two days' tickets to Chicago and return Sunday, Oct. 10, via C. & E.
 Arthur Fisher shipped another load of horses to Germany Tuesday morning.
 Peoples & Rice have taken possession of their new livery stable north Main street.
 Elijah Cox, of Marion, an old resident of this city, was shaking hands with friends Tuesday.
 After a long rest, the city band gave an open air concert Saturday evening and discoursed some of their excellent music.

Hear the Keuchman Sisters at the M. E. church tonight.
 Oysters in any quantities at Cofee & Baker's Union bakery.
 Simon Good of Monroe township, is very low with typhoid fever.
 Mrs. Albert Brittson returned from a short visit at Lancaster, Ohio.
 Mrs. J. W. Craig, of Chicago, visited her sister, Mrs. J. D. Hale, last week.
 $5.00 to Lancaster, Ohio, Tuesday, Oct. 12, via C. & E., Marion and Columbus.
 Mrs. N. A. Vail, of Ossian, visited her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Sprang, last week.
 Special train leaves Erie depot at 5 a. m. Sunday, Oct. 10, for Chicago; $1.25 for round trip.
 Campbell, Ervin & Co. have a few new bargains for the DEMO-CRAT readers in and near Berne.
 Mrs. Nicholas Young, of Tiffin, Ohio, was the guest of her brother Joseph Gase and family, last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Meyers returned to their home at Gaston, Ind., after a short visit with relatives.
 Dr. H. S. Tanner, who became famous several years ago by fasting forty days, was in the city last Friday.
 Mrs. Ella Spencer of the U. S. pension office at Indianapolis, visited her brother in this city a few days this week.
 Mrs. Dr. Lower and Mrs. Samuel Mills, of North Manchester, were attending the W. R. C. convention in this city Tuesday.
 Rev. Wm. S. Lower, of Whiting, Kansas, has returned to his home after a month's visit with relatives in this vicinity.
 Mrs. Young, who has been visiting at Gas City for some time, was the guest of George Gase and sisters in this city Sunday.
 Mrs. John Houck returned to Fort Wayne this afternoon accompanied by Mrs. Durbin, who has been seriously ill for a few days.
 A number of books which were taken from the city school library some time last year have not been returned. Any person having any of the library books should return them at once.
 FLOYD BRITTON, Supt.

$1.25 to Chicago and return, Sunday, Oct. 10, via C. & E.
 Crackers—any kind and all you want at the Union Bakery.
 County Recorder Harruff visited his brother at Marion, Ohio, last week.
 Mrs. Anna Eagan of Grand Rapids, Mich., is visiting relatives in the city.
 Sprang & True have a new advertisement for your inspection this week.
 J. H. Blackburn, of Ft. Wayne, visited his brother, Norval, in this city last week.
 Rev. Gregg attended a meeting of the ministerial association at Auburn this week.
 Surveyor Fulk was at Portland yesterday looking after business in connection with his office.
 FOR SALE—A surrey, cheap.
 Will trade for a horse.
 R. K. ERWIN.
 Miss Francis Kuebler, of Tiffin, Ohio, is visiting her brother, W.
 A. Kuebler, of the Boston store.
 Calvin Miller & Company began Tuesday to macadamize the Decatur and Bluffton road at Honduras.
 We have a good second hand Birdsall clover huller for sale cheap. F. SCHAFFER & LOCH.
 W. H. Worden, of Marion, a former resident of this city, is thinking of returning to this city with his family.
 Mrs. Michael Diel, a resident of near Honduras, was suffering from an attack of dropsy, from which she died yesterday.
 Miss Blanche Reynolds left Wednesday morning for Terre Haute, intending to spend a year at the Indiana State Normal.
 Mrs. Will Thomas who was deserted by her husband some time ago, gave birth to a girl baby at the county farm last week.
 The schools throughout the county are all opening up, and in a few days the teachers' ferule will be in vogue in every school district.
 Frank Schumacker makes clothes to order. Goods furnished from samples, and all work warranted.
 Repairing and cleaning a specialty.
 Tuesday was pay day for the corps of teachers in the public schools, and as a consequence happiness prevails among the instructors.
 The contractors are stringing the electric light wires, and it will only be a short time until everything will be in readiness to turn on the lights.
 Co. B. was inspected Tuesday evening, for new uniforms, by Col.
 Kiger, of Bluffton. The boys will make a brand new appearance one of these days.
 The Park Hotel has changed hands. Dan Meyers has purchased the property and will succeed Dan Yager in the management of this popular hostelry.
 Uncollected letters remaining in the postoffice for John Goddard, Hop King, O. G. Craft, J. H. Nipstein, Manne Ealey, John Myers, Samuel Leidy, John Hyder.
 Miss Elizabeth Embich, who has been the guest of Mrs. Arthur Fisher and other friends for the past few weeks, left, Friday, for her home at Lancaster, Ohio.
 Joseph E. Mann has some eight or ten male Shropshire lambs for sale. Also some Duroc Jersey pigs. Here is a pointer for any one in the market for a bargain.
 George W. Archbold has purchased the Luckey grocery on south Main street and the invoice is being taken today. Mr. Archbold will continue the business at the same stand.
 Mrs. Walker, the wife of Bert Walker, the young man now confined in the Wells county jail for shooting his sister-in-law, Lue La Daugherty, was granted a divorce
 last Friday.
 Treasurer Neuenschwander is moving into the city, preparatory to taking charge of the treasurer's office January 1. He will acquaint himself with the duties of the office before taking charge.
 The diphtheria cases have all recovered and the quarantine has been lifted. Schools reopened last Monday after being closed for more than two weeks, caused by the prevalence of diphtheria.
 Rev. Wendell and family are visiting relatives and friends at LeMars, Iowa. During the absence of Rev. Wendell the pulpit at the Evangelical church will be filled by ministers from abroad.
 Prof. Russell, of the Ohio Medical College of Cincinnati, Ohio, was in the city last week to give expert testimony in the Stoneburner case. He returned to his home, however, without testifying.

George Oswald was badly injured while on his way to Huntington last Sunday on his wheel. The bicycle collapsed and George was thrown on his face, and that part of his anatomy badly damaged in consequence.
 Miss Amy Gillig returned Monday from Allegany, Penn., having been absent nine weeks. She went in search of better health and if her appearance is to judge she found it, much to the gratification of her many friends.
 Notice the new advertisement of Niblick & Company. They announce their annual cloak opening which will take place October 22 and 23. They will show all the latest styles, and this year the styles are many and new.
 The DEMOCRAT is printing a catalogue for the public schools of Adams county. Among the good things it will contain will be a list of teachers and school officers, together with instructions and an explanation of the new educational law.
 Fifty-one tickets were sold in this city on the Erie, to parties who attended the dedication of the new Catholic church at Huntington, Ind. The church cost near $100,- 000, and was paid for and donated to the congregation by Miss Elizabeth Roche.
 Parties desiring to take a good, healthy boy to raise, will find two of them at the county farm, one aged 16 years and the other aged 18 years. Superintendent Graber would like to find places for them and will gladly furnish any information desired.
 er Heideman, a prosperous farm living west of the city, came to town three times last week to tell the boys that he had twin girls at his house. Henry feels tickled because this is the first pair of twins that ever made their appearance in his neighborhood.
 The fourteen year old son of Henry Miller, of Union township, fell out of a tree Sunday afternoon and broke his right leg just above the knee. The fracture is a serious one and will keep the young man in the house for some time; if indeed it does not leave him a cripple.
 Conrad Brake left yesterday morning for Louisville, Ky., where he will visit his daughter for a week or two. It is also calmly stated within the circle of his friends that there is another attraction wherein a lady with silver locks is to play an important part.

Grand Cloak Opening.

Friday, October 22.
 Saturday, October 23.

We lead them all—Have always done so, and will always do so.

We will have a complete, new assortment from one of the largest manufacturers of Ladies', Misses and Children's Cloaks in the United States, and at prices that are lower than ever were known in the history of the Cloak trade.

There's something in our styles that makes the wearer look well dressed. Style is one thing, comfort and service another, but all are found in our Cloak department.

Style, quality, shape and prices are satisfactory. We will show you the best values for the least money.

We offer this week a Ladies' fine black Beaver Cape, double plait, braid trimmed, extra full sweep, long length, at $3.00. A great bargain.

In our Children's department you will find all the latest novelties in Jackets and Gretchens.

Many a child will be made happy by wearing one of our nobby garments.

Do not forget day and date, October 22 and 23.

Niblick & Co.

Look Here!

We can save you money if you will take time and come to see us when you are ready to buy a Buggy or Surrey, light or heavy Harness,
 Wagon, Bicycle,
 or anything in our line, as we positively will not be undersold.

F. Schafer ..&.. Loch.

The contractors are stringing the
 electric light wires, and it will only be a short time until everything will be in readiness to turn
 on the lights.
 Co. B. was inspected Tuesday
 evening, for new uniforms, by Col.
 Kiger, of Bluffton. The boys will make a brand new appearance one
 of these days.
 The Park Hotel has changed hands. Dan Meyers has purchased
 the property and will succeed Dan Yager in the management of this popular hostelry.
 Uncollected letters remaining in
 the postoffice for John Goddard,
 Hop King, O. G. Craft, J. H. Nip-
 stein, Manne Ealey, John Myers,
 Samuel Leidy, John Hyder.
 Miss Elizabeth Embich, who has been the guest of Mrs. Arthur Fisher and other friends for the
 past few weeks, left, Friday, for
 her home at Lancaster, Ohio.
 Joseph E. Mann has some eight or ten male Shropshire lambs for
 sale. Also some Duroc Jersey
 pigs. Here is a pointer for any one in the market for a bargain.
 George W. Archbold has purchased the Luckey grocery on south
 Main street and the invoice is being taken today. Mr. Archbold
 will continue the business at the
 same stand.
 Mrs. Walker, the wife of Bert
 Walker, the young man now confined in the Wells county jail for
 shooting his sister-in-law, Lue La Daugherty, was granted a divorce
 last Friday.
 Treasurer Neuenschwander is
 moving into the city, preparatory
 to taking charge of the treasurer's
 office January 1. He will acquaint
 himself with the duties of the office
 before taking charge.
 The diphtheria cases have all recovered and the quarantine has been lifted. Schools reopened last Monday after being closed for
 more than two weeks, caused by
 the prevalence of diphtheria.
 Rev. Wendell and family are visiting relatives and friends at LeMars, Iowa. During the absence of Rev. Wendell the pulpit
 at the Evangelical church will be filled by ministers from abroad.
 Prof. Russell, of the Ohio Medical College of Cincinnati, Ohio,
 was in the city last week to give
 expert testimony in the Stone-
 burner case. He returned to his home, however, without testifying.

WIDE A WAKE BUYERS

ARE LOOKING FOR MERIT AND PRICES IN GOODS.

Campbell, Erwin & Co.

Combine the two and are showing a complete line of Dry Goods, Clothing, Ladies' Wraps, and Groceries.

Come in and get prices.
 For prices and qualities make buyers.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT—

Best Crackers 6c, Gloss Starch 6c, 2 package Rolled Oats 6c, Ginger Snaps 7c, Soda 8c, Corn Starch 7c.

All our prices are surprising low.

CAMPBELL, ERVIN & CO.

BERNE, IND.