Down in Mississippi the other day a man called an editor a liar, whereupon the editor shot and killed him and also two bystanders. Sympathy is expressed for the unfortunate man's relatives, but the public must be taught that calling an editor a liar is something the noble profession of journalism cannot countenance for an instant.

A few months ago, Mr. Byron Every of Woodstock, Mich., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. His right leg was swollen the full length, causing him great suffering. He was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first bottle of it helped him considerably and the second bottle effected a cure. The 25 and 50 cent sizes are for sale by Smith & Yager. 24

There is a great deal of the Maine in the present political equation. There is the Maine that was and the Maine that is. The Maine that is consists of Tom Reed, speaker; Mr. Dingley, leader of the house; Mr. Hale, chairman of the Senate naval committee, and Mr. Boutelle, chairman of the house naval committee, all of whom have to be consulted.—Boston Herald.

Go to Mrs. Della Sheets' milliner store at Berne, Indiana, to buy your spring hats. Prices lowest. Largest stock to select from. The Holland submarine boat is modeled on the plan of the song which advises that when trouble arise, "just header—down you go; and, when the sky above is clearing, bob up serenely from below." The only difference is that the boat sometimes takes a header for business, not always for escape.—Columbus Dispatch.

Andrew Pollock, who lost an arm by the premature discharge of a cannon at Warsaw, last Fourth of July, has brought suit for $10,000 damages against W. J. Jackman and A. A. Charles, alleging that the carelessness of the defendants, who were helping to man the piece, was responsible for the accident.

The common fruit tree sprayer used by orchardists is much more convenient way to destroy lice on cattle than it is to apply it by hand. A hose with a fine nozzle which will throw a very fine spray is best, but its point should be held close to the skin. Two or three applications may be needed, as some lice may be in egg, and not destroyed by the first application.

DISCOVERED BY A WOMAN.—Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her. For seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N.C. Trial bottles free at Page Blackburn's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.
