THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

IS A SAILOR

Dewey Not Fitted by Education or Training For the Presidency.

New York, April 10.—Admiral Dewey has given to the Manila correspondent of Leslie's Weekly an interview regarding the suggestion that the admiral be made a candidate for the presidency next year. The admiral said, as to his politics:

"I am a sailor; a sailor has no politics. The administration is his party and, Republican or Democrat, it makes no difference. Then again, I come from Vermont, and you know what that means. To be anything but a Republican in Vermont is to be a man without a party. My flag lieutenant comes from Georgia. He tells me that to be anything but a Democrat in the south is to be a nobody. I lived south I would probably be a Democrat."

"Have you ever voted?"
"Yes, years ago; but my vote was usually influenced by personal preference of local conditions. I am not a politician, have never held political office and am totally ignorant of party intricacies and affiliations."

Admiral Dewey said that neither by vocation, disposition, education or training was he capacitated to fill the presidency. He said that he was too well along in life to consider such a possibility, his health would not admit it. All his life's work was in different lines of effort, and that while the kindness of his friends was grateful to him, and the generous tributes of the American people were dear to him, he could not and would not be a candidate for the presidency of the United States under any conditions.

SPAIN AND UNCLE SAM

EXCHANGE/RATIFICATIONS OF PEACE TREATY.

Cambon and McKinley Meet at the White House and Make the Transfer Which Re-Establishes Peaceful Relations Between Late Belligerents.

Washington, April 11.—The final ceremony in the re-establishment of peaceful relations between the United States and Spain occurred at the white house this afternoon, when the president and Ambassador Cambon, the latter acting for Spain, exchanged ratifications of the treaty of peace. The Spanish copy of the treaty signed by the queen regent and Premier Silvela, arrived at the French embassy yesterday. The officials of the embassy later called on Secretary Hay and made arrangements for today's ceremony. The treaty forwarded by Spain is handsomely engrossed on parchment, in old English script, with wide double columns, one in Spanish and the other in English. Its binding is of red Morocco, heavily embossed in gold, which gives the effect of the yellow and red colors of Spain.

The United States copy was finished yesterday and placed in the possession of the president at the white house. Like other treaties to which the United States is a party, this document is a model of simplicity and neatness. The text is reproduced in parallel columns, the left in English and the right in Spanish, surrounded with a narrow border of the national colors. The document is enclosed in a cover of dark blue morocco with the great seal of the United States upon the face and a decorative design in gilt.

After the usual speeches on such occasions the exchange of ratifications occurred by Ambassador Cambon presenting the Spanish copy to President McKinley, to become the property of the United States and preserved in the state department. At the same time President McKinley handed to Ambassador Cambon, for Spain, the American copy of the treaty, which becomes the permanent property of Spain. With this exchange of treaty the Spanish-American war is ended.

LAWTON VICTORIOUS.

Filipinos Given a Taste of the Indian Fighter's Tactics at Santa Cruz.

Manila, April 11.—Santa Cruz, against which city General Lawton's forces were pitched yesterday, is now in the hands of the Americans. Santa Cruz was the Filipino's stronghold on lake Laguna de Bay, and it fell into the hands of General Lawton after some sharp, quick fighting, forming one of the most interesting and important battles of the war. Plans of the American commanders worked perfectly, with the exception that the progress of the expedition was delayed by the difficult navigation of the river. About 1,500 picked men composed the expedition, which was under the personal command of General Lawton, on account of the illness of General King. These troops partly surrounded the city while the gunboats Laguna de Bay, Napidan and Oeste, under the command of Captain Grant of the Utah battery, shelled the city and outlying trenches.

Almost all the inhabitants had fled during the two preceding nights, and only a few Chinese shopkeepers have emerged from hiding and resumed business. On the marshes north of the town were found 40 dead Filipinos, some terribly torn by shells, and many others wounded, to whom the Americans offered their canteens as though they were comrades. A surgeon who traversed the field counted 80 killed and General Lawton will report at least 68. The insurgents captured two men of the Fourteenth infantry while unarmed, but the Americans stole the guns of their captors and clubbed them, hid in the trees over night and returned in the morning. The gunboats yesterday afternoon searched the Santa Cruz river for shipping. Today the expedition pushed forward, the Americans having destroyed miles of telegraph lines, cutting off insurgent communication east and west.

Canteen Law.

Washington, April 11.—The war department yesterday issued the order to the commanders of all United States military posts to carry out the law of the last congress relative to the sale of intoxicants in canteens. The order is very long, as it recites the full text of the opinion of Attorney General Griggs, which opinion is said at the department to involve only a few changes in present regulations governing the canteens. The only one of substance is that hereafter no officer or enlisted man, but only civilian employes may dispense beer in the canteens.

Report From W. H. Elliot.

Washington, April 11.—W. H. Elliot, director of posts of Porto Rico, in a report to the postoffice department dated March 27, says he made a tour through the district from which rumors of disorder and suspected insurrectionary movements have emanated, but discovered no signs of discontent. The United States postal service established was found to be giving satisfaction.

Troops Leave For Manila.

Plattsburg, N. Y., April 11.—The Twenty-first infantry (Colonel J. Cline), 1,400 men, left here yesterday for Manila on three trains, composed of 14 sleepers and two baggage cars each. About 5,000 people witnessed the departure and great enthusiasm was manifested. The regimental colors were carried, also a handsome silk flag presented to the regiment by Mrs. McKinley.

Death at British Embassy.

FAMED JURIST DEAD

JUSTICE STEPHEN J. FIELD EXPIRES IN WASHINGTON.

His Long Service on the United States Supreme Bench—Was Appointed by President Lincoln—Sat in Tilden-Hayes Electoral Commission.

Washington, April 10.—Justice Stephen J. Field of the United States supreme court, retired, died at his home on Capitol Hill in this city, last evening of kidney complications. About his bedside were his wife and her sister, Mrs. J. Condit Smith, Mr. Justice David J. Brewer, his nephew, Mrs. Elgerton of California; Mr. Linton, his private secretary; the Rev. Edward M. Mott, rector of the Church of the Advent, and the family servants. He had been unconscious since Saturday morning and death came painlessly.

Brief History of His Life.

S. J. Field was born at Haddam, Conn., Nov. 4, 1816. He was the son of David Dudley Field, one of four brothers, who became so famous, David Dudley, Cyrus W. and Henry M. Field being the other members of the great quartet that made their names known throughout the world. His early boyhood was spent at Stockbridge, Mass.

He graduated from Williams college in 1837 at the head of his class. He entered the law office of his brother, David Dudley, in New York and, after being admitted to the bar, became a member of the firm, remaining with it seven years. In 1846 he traveled in Europe and in 1849 went to California. He was one of the founders of the town of Marysville in the Golden state and was elected alcade of the place. He was elected a member of the first legislature of the state after its admission to the Union. He was elected to the supreme bench of California in 1857 and in 1859 became chief justice, succeeding David S. Terry.

In 1863 President Lincoln appointed him associate justice of the supreme court of the United States and he held that position until his retirement on Dec. 1, 1897.

During the latter years of his service on the bench he was in very feeble health. His term was the longest in the history of that tribunal. The great chief justice, John M. Marshall, wore the ermine for a period extending over 34 years. It was the ambition of the late Justice Field to surpass this record, and he succeeded in doing so by a few months.

During that term of more than a third of a century he was concerned in some of the most important cases ever passed upon by the supreme court. Among the prominent decisions was the famous test-oath case, in which he gave the casting vote and wrote the opinion of the court annulling the validity of the ironclad oath. His dissenting opinions in the confiscation cases, the legal tender case, and in the New Orleans slaughterhouse case, attracted the widest attention.

During this long service on the bench he also was before the public eye in other ways than as a judge of the United States supreme court. He was a member of the Hayes-Tilden electoral commission in 1877 and voted with the Democratic minority. In 1880 he received 65 votes for the presidential nomination at the Cincinnati convention on the first ballot. In 1896 Williams college conferred upon him the degree of LL.D., and in 1899 the regents of the University of California made him a professor of law in that institution.
