

HOW TO VOTE CORRECTLY.

Full List of Candidates That Will Adorn the Democratic Tickets.

The device at the head of the Democratic ticket is a rooster.
The device at the head of the Republican ticket is an eagle.
Other tickets on the ballot have different devices.
The Democratic ticket is in the first column, the Republican ticket is in the second column, and so on.

Below is a sample of the Democratic and Republican tickets, with the respective party devices, in the order in which they will appear on the official ballot.

SAMPLE BALLOT

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
For Governor, JOHN W. KERN.
For Lieutenant-Governor, JOHN C. LAWLER.

REP.
For Governor, WINFIELD T. DURBIN.
For Lieutenant-Governor, NEWTON W. GILBERT.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS

FIRST. You must get your ballot and a blue pencil from the polling clerks in the election room. Remember that a blue pencil is now used instead of a stamp.

SECOND. If you want to vote a straight ticket make a cross, thus X, within the large circle at the head of the ticket containing the device of the party for whose candidates you wish to vote. If you do not wish to vote a straight ticket, you must not make a cross in the large circle containing the device of your party, but you must make a cross, thus X, on the small square to the left of the name of each candidate for whom you desire to vote, on whatever list of candidates it may be. If the large circle at the head of the ticket is marked, and the ballot is marked at any other place, it is void and cannot be counted, unless there be no candidate for some office in the list printed under such marked device, in which case you may indicate your choice for such office by making a cross, thus X, on the square to the left of the name of any candidate for such office on any other list. The cross must be placed within or on the circle or square or the ballot is void and cannot be counted.

THIRD. Do not mutilate your ballot, or mark it either by scratching a name off or writing one on, or in any other way, except by marking in the circle or on the squares as before mentioned. Otherwise the ballot will not be counted. You must not put any mark of any kind on your ballot except as before mentioned.

FOURTH. After marking your ballots, and before leaving the booths, fold them separately so that the face of each cannot be seen, and so the initial letters of the names of the polling clerks on the back thereof can be seen. Then hand your ballots to the inspector, the pencil to the polling clerk, and leave the room.

FIFTH. If you are physically unable to mark your ballot, or cannot read English, so inform the polling clerks, and make an affidavit to that effect, and tell them how you wish to vote, and they will mark your ballot for you. But neither you nor the clerks must permit any other person to hear or see how your ballot is marked. It is a penal offense to declare that you cannot read English or cannot mark your ballot, if, in fact, you can; and in no case shall the ballots be marked by the poll clerks if the voter can read the English language or is physically able to mark his ballot, and then not until the voter has made the affidavit.

SIXTH. If you should accidentally, or by mistake, deface, mutilate or spoil your ballot, return it to the poll clerks and get a new ballot.

SEVENTH. You must not accept a ballot from any person outside of the election room. Any ballot outside is fraudulent, and it is a penitentiary offense to have such a ballot in your possession whether you attempt to vote it or not.

EIGHTH. You must not attempt to hold any conversation in the election room except with members of the election board and poll clerks.

NINTH. Use only the blue pencil handed to you by the polling clerk in marking your ballot. If you mark with any other pencil your ballot is void and will not be counted.

TENTH. You must not put any mark of any kind on your ballot except as before mentioned.

ELEVENTH. Constitutional amendments to be voted on at the November, 1900, election are printed on a white ticket and the voter must indicate his preference upon these questions by marking the small square to the left of the words "For the amendment," or "Against the amendment." If the voter is in favor of the amendment he should mark in the small square to the left of the words "For the amendment." If opposed, he should mark in the small square to the left of the words "Against the amendment."

To the Honest Money League.
To Headquarters Democratic Honest Money League of America, 160 Broadway, New York—Gentlemen: I hereby acknowledge receipt of your campaign literature you sent me a few days since. I have carefully read the same, and as carefully filed it away for future use and reference, believing it might be useful in future campaigns.

I am very glad you sent me this literature, for since I have read it I feel greatly encouraged over the prospect of electing William J. Bryan, and I will assure you that I will put forth a renewed effort to gain that end.

I am utterly surprised that you or any set of men claiming to possess ordinary intelligence would send out literature in support of the idea that the money question is the paramount issue in this campaign; and, while claiming to be democrats, urge democrats to vote for William McKinley and thus perpetuate the present administration.

Now, you are aware that the gold standard and republican press of the country in nearly every issue have declared the issue of free silver dead; and when the gold standard law was passed under the present administration, they declared it dead and buried beyond all hope of resurrection for at least six years. And now you go down into the grave and exhumate that old decayed corpse that has been dead and buried for over three years and tell us it is the paramount issue. How can we tell when you are telling us the truth? You have misrepresented the facts at one time or the other. Now which is it? You speak often of government of the people, for the people, and by the people. You seem to feel great solicitude for the people. Now it seems to me that one question in this campaign of much more importance to the people than the money question is, whether we shall have government of the people, for the people and by the people, or government of the trusts, for the trusts and by the trusts.

But the dead money question is all that you can see any danger in. Yet how did the money question get to be the paramount issue in this campaign? The democratic platform does not make it such; it expressly declares "Imperialism" to be the paramount issue. The facts are that the money question is not the paramount issue in this campaign and cannot be, because there are other questions of far more importance to be settled in this campaign.

But now you predict a political upheaval which will wrest the government from McKinley and his gang and put Bryan in the White House, with a strong probability of a democratic majority in both branches of congress not later than 1903. I am very thankful to you for this open confession. I felt satisfied that you were very uneasy about the result of the election, but really I did not expect you to be so frank about telling it. After reading your literature I have come to these conclusions:

First—That if you ever was a democrat, you have turned your back to democracy.

Second—That what you want to do is to keep as far as possible the real issues of this campaign and especially the paramount issue from the minds of the people, by giving them a lot of rot about the money question that no one believes.

You call mere bogies the questions that are at issue in this campaign, namely, militarism, imperialism, Porto Rican tariff law, and trusts. You shout dishonest money and send out literature for the republican party while the principles our revolutionary fathers fought for and upon which this government is bottomed are in dire peril. Your literature is first class, up-to-date, 1900 republican literature for the sole purpose of diverting the minds of the voters from real issues and lead them to vote to perpetuate McKinley's administration.

You are now Mark Hanna's right-hand man. You boast about Thomas Jefferson being the founder of the great democratic party, but you have turned your back to his wholesome doctrines. You have apparently forgotten that Thomas Jefferson was the author of the "Declaration of Independence," and accordingly believed that all men are created equal; that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. We are now violating the spirit and letter of that immortal state paper, as well as the constitution of the United States. We believe that these United States of right ought to be free. Our liberties are too sacred to be trifled away. Our safety lies within the pale of the declaration and the constitution of the United States. But if everything you say in your address to the people is true, as you pretend to believe it to be, yet is that sufficient reason why any democrat or any citizen without regard to past political affiliations who has the interest of his country at heart should not vote for W. J. Bryan?

Has patriotism no higher aim than sordid gold? You pretend to be greatly interested about the honor of our country, yet you say not a word about the dishonorable act of pulling down the flag in Alaska, where it has floated over our territory—ours by right of purchase—since 1867, and of which we had peaceable possession until McKinley hauled down our flag. You say not a word about taxation and our plain duty in Porto Rico. You say nothing about our criminal annexation of the Philippines. You pretend to be very much frightened about the silver trust, but as we are not buying silver we are not concerned about that, and in fact no farmer nor laboring man outside of the silver mining district is; but you seem to forget that there are over one hundred other trusts in this country that we cannot escape, not even by death, for when we die we will be buried in a coffin furnished by the coffin trust.

One other stock-in-trade argument you use dates back as far as I can remember, that is: You will have hard times if the administration is changed. The republicans use this argument through panics and what they call good times. They said in 1872 if Greeley was elected this country would see very hard times. Greeley was not elected, but we received the hard times just the same. Again in 1876 they said that if Tilden was elected we would have hard times, when the times were as hard right then as they could get. It is the same howl put up in 1880, in 1884, 1888, 1892, and is now being used again. But the money question is not the issue that is uppermost in the minds of the people at this time, neither are they going to be frightened from what they see and know to be their duty by the cry of hard times. Respectfully,
JOHN T. KELLY.

The state board of health has completed an address to the people, warning them against the expected appearance of small-pox in the state this winter. The address will be issued as soon as it can be printed. It will be the largest circular the board has yet issued on the subject of small-pox and will contain numerous illustrations of small-pox patients, instructions as to vaccination, disinfection and diagnosis of the disease. The rules of the state board of health relating to small-pox will appear in the circular.

Participants in the late unpleasantness are receiving a neatly bound volume entitled "Record of the Indiana Volunteers in the Spanish-American War, 1898-99." The book gives the president's proclamation, names of every officer and private, date of enlistment, length of service, when discharged, etc. The volume is complete in every respect and furnishes a record that is invaluable to every Indiana soldier. The boys no doubt will give the little book a prominent place in their libraries, where it will be treasured highly and will serve in future generations as a ready reference for matters pertaining to Indiana's part in the Spanish-American war.
