Such a condition is commonly known as Nervous Debility. When you lose self-confidence and feel your strength, energy and nerve force are slipping away, it is high time you seek sensible aid.

You prefer health and success to misery and failure.

Census Enumerator Clawson, who is also editor of "The Herald" at Howe, Ind. Ty., writes: To Whom It May Concern:—I was a sufferer from stomach trouble until I was induced to try a bottle of Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and I want to say that in my opinion it has no equal as a stomach remedy. I had tried many different remedies, but none with the happy results of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. G. A. Clawson, Ind. Ter. Sold by Smith, Yager & Falk.

The curious discovery has recently been made that light may be procured from common sugar. All you have to do is to get a few pounds of lump sugar and put it in the sunlight some hours. On taking it into a dark room it will begin to glow, faintly at first, but afterwards with quite a bright light. So strong is this luminous glow that photographs have actually been taken by the light. These sugar-light photographs are quite distinct even if not quite so clear as ordinary photographs.

Good Advice.—The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people of the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects, such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Page Blackburn.

How much of horse meat is served upon the tables in this country is not mentioned in food statistics. Probably many of us, says an exchange have devoured it in the shape of sausage, and the argument holds good that the horse is a cleaner animal than the pig 365 days out of the year. Many people eat horse meat knowing that the viand is of equine character. Tons of it are sold in western New York.

A certain cure for dysentery and diarrhoea. "Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip, says F. L. Taylor of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa., "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea and was about to give up the trip, when Editor Ward of the Lacynville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Holthouse, Callow & Co.

The Enemy of Dyspepsia. Bailey's Dyspepsia Tablets is certainly the worst enemy dyspepsia has today. It drives out that dreadful disease whenever taken persistently. It brings complete relief from the taking of the very first tablet; chocolate coated. Mrs. R. A. Pierce, Mason City, Iowa, writes: "I have suffered for years with stomach trouble. Bailey's Dyspepsia Tablets have certainly done wonders for me. They are the best medicine made, and cure indigestion, belching and all dyspeptic troubles." Price 25c. Made by Lakeside Med. Co., Chicago. Sold by Page Blackburn.

City Forester Lewis, of Philadelphia, says: "I know of no scientific reason for it, but it is the inevitable result that where a pine tree is cut down an oak springs up in its place. These oaks never attain any great size, remaining in a dwarfed condition, and proving only an obstacle to the farmer in making a clearing. Another strange fact is the rapidity of the scrub's growth. The ordinary forest monarch rises slowly and with fiber firmly knit."

A Night of Terror. "Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln who attended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of consumption. "After taking, she slept all night. Further entirely cured her." This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Page Blackburn's drug store.

The tipping habit was introduced, says a Pittsburg exchange, first by those who desired to be ostentatious of their wealth and to secure the most attention at hotels. It has been followed because the public had not the stamina to resist the example. There may be a disposition to abolish it, but it is very doubtful if a custom so fixed in the controlling qualities of vanity and the desire to be well served can be got rid of at this late day.

Stood Death Off. E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malaria fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at Page Blackburn's drug store.

Obituary.

Wm. H. Fristoe was born in Page county, Virginia, January 14, 1825, moved to Licking county, Ohio, in 1831, thence to Adams county, Indiana, in 1865, settling on a farm one mile west of Pleasant Mills, died in Decatur, Ind., Sept. 15, 1901, aged 76 years and 8 months. Mr. Fristoe was married in 1847 his wife dying in December, 1891, since that time he has lived with his son Al of this city. He was of a genial disposition, pleasant to those with whom he came in contact, unswerving in his convictions, faltering not at disappointments, but ever looking on the bright side of life. His sickness dates back for more than a year, and during that time he was the same good, kind father of years past and gone. His family consisted of six children, three boys and three girls, all of whom have preceded him to the better land except James N. and H. A. Mrs. Henry Martz and Mrs. Lydia Mc Barnes of Pleasant Mills, and Mrs. Della Morris of Lexington, Ky., were taken when they were quite small by Mr. and Mrs. Fristoe and brought up by them as their own children so that their sorrows mingle with those of the two sons in the loss of a good and kind father. Funeral services were held at the residence of his son Al Tuesday at 2 p. m., conducted by the Revs. J. Q. Kline and E. J. Beardsley, after which his remains were laid to rest in Maplewood cemetery.
