Advice to Catarrh Sufferers. Geo. Tinsley, Clayton, N. M., writes: "I have been using Dr. Geo. Leininger's For-mal-de-hyde Inhaler just one week, and it has done me more good than anything I have ever tried for catarrh. I would advise all sufferers of catarrh to try it." Sold at 50c on a guarantee by Smith, Yager & Falk.

"Prison Sunday" will be observed in churches throughout the state October 27. There will be a much more general observance of the day this year than there was a year ago, although last year more than 600 churches devoted services to the occasion. This year many church organizations, such as conferences, synods and presbyteries, have adopted resolutions asking pastors to observe the day with fitting sermons.

Does not miss a day from work. Perry Crisler, of Mayfield, Kan., says: "I have had asthma so bad that I could not work or hardly lie down and rest, but since using Dr. Geo. Experts at the Ohio agricultural experiment station are greatly alarmed over the way the Hessian fly is working on the wheat that has been planted. A special bulletin issued says that the fly is propagating wonderfully and that all the wheat in the ground will be lost. They advise that all fields be replanted after there have been two or three cold nights, and that all sowing stop until there has been some cold weather.

Worth its weight in gold. J. H. McMurray, Box 51, Seymour, Mo., writes: "Dr. Geo. Leininger's For-mal-de-hyde Inhaler has done a power of good for my catarrh. By my recommendation a mill man bought one and he says ten dollars could not get it if he could not get another. I will let all of my friends know of your wonderful catarrh cure." The Adams county, Indiana, fair last week was a pronounced success in every particular. A Fleasible Attack. An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 25c at Page Blackburn's drug store.

A dispute over the question whether you should say "Tomorrow" or "Thursdays" or "Tomorrow is Thursday" is needless for either expression is allowable. "Tomorrow will be Thursday" means that, looking forward from day to day as the point of view, the speaker thinks of tomorrow as a future time and says of it that it "will be" Thursday. "Tomorrow is Thursday" means that, without any reference to today, the speaker thinks of a certain day as "tomorrow" and says of it that it "is" Thursday.
