

STRONG AGAIN.

You who once possessed sturdy physiques and steady nerves, but now have lost natural physical force to properly attend to your daily duties, you no longer have a sense of "all-generous" after the slightest exertion; you who are dull, languid and old in spirits at an age when you should be full of physical fire; you who may feel that your life is not worth the struggle—there is a scientific means of recovering all the precious powers which seem to be entirely lost.

Have cured thousands such as you. Don't experiment with your health or money. We will take the risk. If six boxes do not cure you, your money is returned. For years we have been curing men on these satisfactory terms.

$1.00 per box, 6 for $5.00 mailed in plain package. Book free. Address PEAL MEDICINE Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

The advertiser who keeps his business prominently before people and asks persistently and often for their trade is the one who will get the most business. The man who is nearly as energetic will get the business that is left, and the one who stands around on the edge, with his hands in his pockets, may very reasonably and justly expect to get "what the boy shot at."

A report from Supt. J. C. Gluck, Reform School, Prunytown, W. Va., Oct. 18, 1900. "After trying all other advertised cough medicines we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia Reform School. I find it the most effective, and absolutely harmless." Holthouse, Callow & Co.

The buildings decided upon for the St. Louis world's fair cover a great deal more ground than the similar structures at the Chicago exposition. There was no special building devoted to education in Chicago. In St. Louis the two halls for the educational exhibit will occupy 735,000 square feet. The space under roof in St. Louis will be at least one-third greater than that at the famous Columbian exposition at Chicago.

Does not miss a day from work Perry Crisler of Mayfield, Kan., says: "I have had asthma so bad that I could not work or hardly lie down and rest, but since using Dr. Geo. Leininger's For-mal-de-hyde Inhaler I have not missed a day from work, and have had no attack of asthma, and now when I lie down I rest and sleep well." Sold at 50c on a guarantee by Smith, Yager & Falk.

After the Sobley Investigation is over there will still be "glory enough to go round," and the old hero of Santiago will not be lacking in getting his share. When the future history of our country is written it will not be of the controversy, but the two hero's chase, and annihilation of the Spanish fleet with Schley directing the fight. If the Spanish fugitives had escaped Schley he would have been censured and blamed. They didn't. Give him honor.

Worth its weight in gold. J. H. McMurray, Box 61, Seymour, Mo., writes: "Dr. Geo. Leininger's For-mal-de-hyde Inhaler has done a power of good for my catarrh. By my recommendation a mill man bought one and he says ten dollars could not get it if he could not get another. I will let all of my friends know of your wonderful catarrh cure." Sold at 50c on a guarantee by Smith, Yager & Falk.

Economy can be overdone. A fellow who works hard all his life can die owning broad acres, stocks and bonds, notes and cash for heirs to quarrel over. He can go without the comforts of life deny himself all luxuries, be roundly haled by all he deals with for his close, stingy ways, many choose dollars instead of friends and never seen a day of rest, amassing wealth for those who never cared for him to be out of the way to reap the reward of his skimping and labors.

Just One Bottle. Scammon Kans., Nov. 19, 1900. Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill. Sirs:—About three months ago I had occasion to use something for constipation. One bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin was all. I have been doing business with your firm for over a year and find it like your medicine profitable, and pleasant. Phil. L. Keener, editor "Scammon Miner." Sold by Smith, Yager & Falk.

The weather forecast, as published by the authority of the Secretary of Agriculture, is a most highly appreciated public service. To go to the postoffice, or rural mail box as the farmers do, and get the weather forecast for at least a day in advance is a privilege only of a twentieth century civilization. All the people, and especially the farmers, appreciate these weather reports, and they ought not to forget to say a good word for it and thus aid in continuing and improving it.

Advice to Catarrh Sufferers. Geo. Tinsley, Clayton, N. M., writes: "I have been using Dr. Geo. Leininger's For-mal-de-hyde Inhaler just one week, and it has done me more good than anything I have ever tried for catarrh. I would advise all sufferers of catarrh to try it." Sold at 50c on a guarantee by Smith, Yager & Falk. o

Speaking of Old Dan Tucker, the play to be produced here Thursday, Oct. 24, at opera house the Evansville Journal says: If the old saying, "laugh and grow fat," is true, then the large audience at the People's theater last night must have taken on several additional pounds of tissue. Old Dan Tucker was the play produced, and in it the author has produced a legitimate successor to Banner Salve, her hands became better and in a short time she was entirely cured. Beware of substitutes. Holthouse, Callow & Co.

Mrs. T. Briddleman of Parshallville, Mich., was troubled with salt rheum for thirteen years and had tried a number of doctors without relief. After two applications of Banner Salve, her hands became better and in a short time she was entirely cured. Beware of substitutes. Holthouse, Callow & Co.

The Agricultural Department at Washington has just issued its estimate of the year's corn crop, showing a total yield for all the states of 1,250,597,000 bushels. Of this the statement shows that Nebraska, notwithstanding the dry will furnish 103,467,000 bushels, or more than one-tenth of the entire crop. This is interesting as showing the wonderful recuperative properties of the Nebraska soil. There is probably no other state in the Union which would, under the circumstances make such a magnificent showing. Nebraska is a grand state and is rapidly increasing in wealth and population.

According to a McPherson county exchange, the meanest man on earth has been found out there. He sold his son-in-law a half interest in a cow and then insisted that it was the front half sold, calmly appropriating all the milk while he forced the young man to feed and water the cow twice a day. The cow recently hooked the old man and he is now suing the son-in-law for damages.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDeis, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly I put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure indigestion had made him a total wreck. Smith, Yager & Falk.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes that he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at Page Blackburn's drug store.

The farmers of Wauhoo county, Nebraska, are dreaming million dollar dreams and have their slumbers disturbed by visions of golden chariots and cottages by the seashore, with government bonds and steam yachts as side dishes. A fourteen-foot vein of bituminous coal has been struck near Sedeburg, in that county, and the price of land and options has soared higher than Mr. Gilderoy's celebrated kite.
