Only the other day says an exchange we went into a store with no evil intention and were busy thinking about nothing, when we heard three men in a red hot argument, trying to settle the question as to whether this is the beginning of the twentieth century or the second year of the century.

Free Medical Advice. Dr. Geo. Leininger invites the sick to write him. Each letter has the doctor's personal attention. Booklet entitled "Success of the Twentieth Century" mailed free by writing the Dr. Geo. Leininger Chemical Co., Chicago, Ill.

The Rochester Sentinel hits the Bull's eye in the following: "When you hear a man blowing and striking in favor of the enactment of a law making it a criminal offense to criticize the administration you will see a fellow who would be one of the first to violate that law if some other party than his own should come into power."

Enk Preparation No. 31 is a positive cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. For all manner of stomach troubles it will be found beneficial and very rapid in its action. Relieves congestion from excessive use of alcoholic drinks. Sold by Holthouse, Callow & Co. and Nachtrieb & Fuelling.

Each season of the year has its beauties, but none in which there is greater variety than at this period of autumn. Both mind and soul of man should be stirred by the beauties of nature at this time. Enthusiasm for the beautiful coloring of the passing foliage, in which we have taken such comfort and delight during the burning days of summer, serves in a measure to soften the sadness and seriousness of the yearly parting.

Stricken with paralysis. Henderson Grimett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost completely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by Holthouse, Callow & Co.

Alexandria is in the clutches of a soulless gas company. The city council established meter rates which did not please the company and the company resorted to the simple expedient of turning off the gas. Now there is talk of petitioning the council to give the soulless corporation what it asks, from a pecuniary point of view it is a good thing to be soulless.

A great discovery. Dr. Geo. Leininger's For-mal-de-hyde Kidney Tablets are entirely different from any cure given to medical science or the public—they positively cure all kidney and bladder disease, rheumatism uric acid and acid troubles and prevent Bright's disease.
