John Ryan, a tramp umbrella mender, layed down for a snooze by a fire along the Clover Leaf at Frankfort. He woke up to find that he was burning up. He yelled for help. A railroad man turned the hose on him and extinguished the flames. He was taken to the county infirmary, where it was learned that his entire right side was burned from the foot to the waist. He says his home is in Seymour. He had been drinking with six other hoboes.

When the gray's on the buckwheat and the sausages are hot, when the steam is floating upward from the shining coffee pot, when the cook stirs up the batter that was set the night before, and when little Rob and Clara smok their lips and yell for more; oh, it's then a man is feeling pretty near his best—if there isn't any trouble with the works beneath his vest—and it's then he humbly thanks the Lord for what he's got—when the gray's on the buckwheat and the sausages are hot.

We have taken a toe-nail from the hind foot of a prairie chicken, the white end of a goose bone and a corn shuck and made a horoscope. By casting it we find that the coming winter will be a cold one—unless our casting is wrong. But of one thing we are certain. December will be colder than June and January will cut more ice than July. That is about as near to it as any weather prophet can get and preserve his reputation.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substances and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Holthouse, Callow & Co.

In order to do our best work we must have a lofty conception of what the work ought to be. The man who is satisfied with chronos can never become a good artist or utilize his powers. The man who thinks his city or community can only be moderately good will never be at his best as a citizen. The boy or girl who is satisfied simply to "pass" his examinations will never accomplish much as a student. "If we cannot reach the stars we must try to get as near them as we can," said a wise writer. The best within us must strive to reach the best without us.

A fraternal society man says: "One of our members lately fell from the roof of a five story building and a check for the amount of the certificate was handed him from the second story window on his way down." In the fraternal order in the sons of Eli, when a member falls five stories they not only hand him the check from the second story window, but it is cashed by the bank on the ground floor as he passes the door.

Greensburg, Pa., July 11, 1898. About four weeks ago one side of my abdomen began to enlarge from a growth inside. It grew to such proportions that it seemed to fill the abdomen. Then dropsy began and swelled both legs and stomach to twice their normal size. The doctors called the trouble enlargement of the spleen, and told me I must die. I was removed from the hospital and sent for Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm. I took seven bottles and continually gained and am well in every way. The dropsy entirely disappeared and left the growth very small. Michael O'Neil. For sale by Holthouse, Callow & Co.

Indiana's showing in the free rural delivery system of the country is one to be proud of, says the Indianapolis Journal. Of the 5,000 carriers of the whole country she has 400. Ohio stands first and Illinois second, but Indiana is a close third. Of the ninety-two counties of the state sixty-nine are well covered by rural carriers, and of the twenty-three counties not yet served four are expected shortly to have free delivery.

Jumped on a ten penny nail. The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an anti-septic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Holthouse, Callow & Co.

Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick? Was it your home merchant, or was it Sears & Roebuck? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it Montgomery Ward & Co., or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for the church or for some needy person in town do you write to the Fair store in Chicago or do you go to your home merchants?

Good Advice.—The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people of the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects, such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac, Page Blackburn.

A young dude in Elkhart county contracted a bill of $11 for dental work and then declined to pay, pleading that he was a minor, and the contract was invalid. A squire thought differently, and the circuit court affirmed this view. The young man has been committed to jail until he settles, although his friends clamor that there can be no imprisonment for debt.
