John Pontius, one of the stardwark young democrats of Hartford townshp, was here on business, having delivered one of his fine horses which was sold to buyers here. He says his brother, Clinton Pontius, is just recovering from the effects of a few broken ribs, the result of a fall.

The price of oil took another slump yesterday of three cents over making the market price for Indiana pt $1.23. This is still a very fancy price for oil and the producer hates to see the price fall. This will have no effect whatever upon the work in the field, and oil men again look for oil to take a boom in the course of a few days.

If your uncle has an aunt who has a nephew whose wife has a cousin that is married to an old friend of your wife's sister, whose grandfather used to live in the same town with an old schoolmate of yours, whose son in law is now in St. Louis, you should at once renew the acquaintance with a view of saving hotel bills while attending the Worlds' Fair. This scheme can be worked successfully in many instances.

Judge Erwin yesterday overruled the plea in abatement filed in the criminal suits brought upon grand jury indictments and in which it was alleged that Editor Rohrer had packed the jury. The particular case at bar was the State vs Samuel Sprunger, charged with selling liquor without license. Evidence was heard and the place overruled. The same plea was filed in seven other cases and this decision will apply to each. They will be tried next week.

Jonathan Adair who lives one mile east of Hoagland had a very serious accident last Saturday which resulted in his having his right leg broken and being badly bruised otherwise. The accident happened in the following manner: Mr. Adair was taking a heavy load of wheat to the Monroeville market and while driving slowly along, the wagon slipped from the road way in some some unforeseen manner on the ice completely overturning the wagon, hurling Mr. Adair and his team into the ditch and the wagon on top of them. Relief soon came and Mr. Adair was freed from his precarious position with the above results. The team was also considerably bruised up but it is believed will eventually be all right.

Hon. John W. Tyndall of Decatur, was nominated Thursday afternoon, by acclamation as a candidate for joint senator of Adams and Allen county. The convention met at Fort Wayne at two o'clock and that building was packed with democrats of the counties. Senator Ullery was made chairman of the meeting and P. T. Breslehan of the Journal-Gazette, Secretary. Committees on credentials and resolutions were appointed. On call for nominations Judge R. K. Erwin in a very able manner presented the name of Mr. Tyndall and the convention went wild. The nomination was seconded by W. H. Reed of Fort Wayne and Senator Steve Fleming moved that the nomination be made by acclamation. The motion carried amid the cheers of Tyndall admirers and the nominee was presented and made his maiden speech to Allen county democracy. The honor was modestly received by Mr. Tyndall who is already a popular candidate in this county. Speeches were made by several other prominent democrats and the convention was a genuine love feast.

Mrs. Robert Blackburn received a letter from Whittier today stating that the condition of her mother Mrs. Charles Miller was no better, that she was growing weaker every day and that the end was not far off. All the children who are now residing in the west have been summoned to her bedside.

A deal has been consummated whereby a new firm is in existence in Decatur, their name being Meyer & Scheiman. The members of the concern are Henry Scheiman, the well known stock man and Eli Meyers who for several years has conducted a livery stable here. Mr. Scheiman purchases a half interest in the stables, the consideration being $2000. They will add some new equipment and make the barn one of the finest in the state. They will also continue in the stock business in which Mr. Scheiman has been engaged and expect to do a flourishing business. Both men are clever, popular and conservative business men and are bound to meet with the success they deserve.

Next Sunday afternoon a meeting will be called by the Decatur base ball players to make and complete all arrangements for the National game to be played here the coming season. The meeting will be held at the Columbian Club rooms and every one who is interested in base ball is requested to be present at this meeting. The boys will at this time elect a captain, manager, secretary and treasurer who will have full charge of the team. New suits will be ordered, the ground fixed up as soon as possible and the season opened up as soon as the weather will permit. Good ball was played here last season and every one who witnessed the same received their money's worth, and it is the intention this season to give the patrons good games as only dates of this kind will be accepted. The opening date and who will be announced the first of next week.

Tuesday was Al Gerards birthday and seemingly this event slipped from his mind, at least his wife got him away from home on some pretext or other long enough for a number of his friends to assemble and give him cause to keep the same in memory for years to come. To say that he was surprised would hardy express it and it took Al some time to recover from the effects. The evening was enjoyed by playing numerous games and a good time in general was had by all present. Mrs. Gerards showed her ability as a hostess by setting before her guests a sumptuous repast, which all freely partook of. Those present that enjoyed themselves were Messrs and Mesdames Campbell, H. Cordua, A. Graber, J. Eady, Geo. Gerard, Mrs. J. Barnett, Mrs. Patten, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Ramey, Miss Myrtle Watts, Miss Della Everett, Miss Orpha Barnett, James Fristoe, John Spauler, Fred Ashbaucher and Cyrus Weaver.

Sylvester Wolf, aged eighty six years, five months and five days, died Tuesday morning at one o'clock at his home in Root township from a complication of diseases. Mr. Wolf had resided in this country for fifty two years and had always been a respected citizen and a worthy neighbor. He was a member of the Baptist church and was a hard and consistent worker for the church and a firm believer in God's truths and the doctrines of Christianity. He leaves six daughters and two sons to mourn their loss, his wife having predeceased him seven years ago. The funeral services will be held Thursday at one thirty o'clock at the Baptist church in this city. Dr. Beardsley and Rev. E. E. H. Pontius officiating. The much advertised hog sale of J. D. Nidlinger occurred yesterday at the Riverside barn and was a big success. Forty three sows all well pedigreed were offered for sale and forty three were sold under the hammer of the auctioneer. The sale started promptly at twelve o'clock and continued until every animal had been disposed of. A number of outside buyers from Montpelier, Indianapolis, Chicago, Fort Wayne, Marion and numerous other places were present and the bidding was spirited throughout and some very handsome prices realized for the stock. The sale was conducted by A. G. Madden of Kingmon, Ind., H. B. Carrell of Hartford City and Col. Fred Reppert of this city, and these three famous auctioneers kept the crowd in good humor throughout, and the best prices possible were obtained by them. Mr. Nidlinger is becoming famous all over this section of the country as a fancy hog raiser and the foreign buyers fully realize that when John advertizes a certain kind of stock for sale that he will keep up to his standard, his methods being thoroughly honest and upright in every respect and he treats all buyers alike. John gives two of his famous sales a year, one in the fall and one in the spring, and makes it his business to put the best he has on the market, thus insuring the buyers a full blooded animal.

D. D. Kern arrived yesterday from Sanford, Michigan where he has been for over a month looking over the green pasture lands of that state. He informed us that he had opened up a large real estate office in the above named place and was now a full fledged Michigan real estate dealer. He has formed partnership with a Michigan man. David is to do all the outside work such as appointing representatives and agents in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, who are expected to form parties to go to Michigan and inspect the farm land. He further stated that on last week his firm sold four rich farms realizing a nice commission on them. David is undecided yet as to whether he will move his family at present but he himself expects to devote all his time to this new enterprise.
