Bipe Organ Dedicated.

Many Decatur people attended the dedication of the new pipe organ at the St. Johns German Lutheran church Sunday and report the occasion as a most successful one. The big church was not large enough for the immense crowds which attended every service. The exercises were appropriate and were thoroughly enjoyed. Prof. M. Luecke of Concordia Col- lege delivered the dedicatory ser- mon at ten o'clock Sunday morn- ing. During the afternoon Prof. Dorne, also of Concordia preached a powerful sermon in honor of the twenty fifth anniversary of the ded- ication of the church, and at 7:30 in the evening Prof. Ruprecht of Chi- cago conducted an organ recital of great merit. The church had been especially prepared for the occasion presented an inviting appearance. Among the improvements notice- able was a new beautiful Brussels carpet which was laid by Niblick & Company of this city. One of the parties which drove from Decatur last evening arrived home early this morning and report a tedious homeward trip. They were in a rig drawn by a team of old fash- ioned mules which became tired when they reached the bridge north of Mouth and refused to budge. For two hours the driver and occupants of the rig coaxed and threatened, beat and persuaded the mules but finally had to give up. One of the party walked to Mouth and telephoned to this city for a team to bring the load to town.

Gain at Work.

For the first time in several months, regulars visited our city and early Thursday effected an entrance into the grocery store of Hower and Hower at the corner of Monroe and Seventh street and also in the meat market next door owned by Fred Scheiman. While Night Policeman Fisher was making his rounds in the West End he saw a man at the corner of Hower & Hower's grocery who acted very suspicious looking first down one street and then the other. Fisher's suspicions were then aroused and he hastily returned to the city for reinforcements and immediately returned to the scene of action but when they arrived the birds had flown. The officers began a search among the surrounding buildings and also in the neighborhood and found one of the men red handed sitting near Niblicks elevator eating peaceably and contentedly from a can of fish and a large pine- apple he had in his hand. He was immediately arrested and hustled to jail where a search further re- vealed more canned stuff and some tobacco. The men effected the en- trance into the grocery store by first pulling away the wire netting that was tacked up to protect the glass in the window and then picking up a heavy boulder and hurling it through the glass completely de- molishing the windows at this place they took a number of cans of fish, real ham also eggs tobacco and cigars but took no money. At Scheimans meat market they took several rings of bologna and some other meat undoubtedly affecting their entrance into that place by prying open the door and as at the former place they took no money. The man captured gave his name as Burns. An affidavit was filed against him in circuit court charging him with burglary.

Confirmation Day.

Sunday was confirmation day at the St. Mary's Catholic church and the event as always was a mem- orable one for the class of thirty eight who received the holy sacra- ment at the hands of Bishop H. J. Alerding of Fort Wayne. The ser- vices were held at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. Alerding delivering a short sermon at the close.

The bishop also conducted vespers at three o'clock in the afternoon. He returned home this morning. The class of thirty eight taken into the church were as follows:

Misses Anna Masoney, Catharine Masoney, Clara Eiting, Cecelia Nes- wald, Agnes Berling, Edith Miller, Anna Lichtle, Lena Meyer, Josephine Schumacher, Irene Gerard, Agnes Costello, Mary Geels, Marie Gluting, Bertha Steigmeyer, Ida Bogner, Rose Heiman, Francis Rademacher, Loreto Bosse, Alma Starhouse, Lillian Meyer, Margaret Clark, Emma Keller, Emma Kelley. Master Edmund Kleinhenz, Otto Bogner, Joseph Colchin, Charles Herman, Joseph Gase, Joseph Kor- tenbrier, Otto Keller, Clarence Brem- berkamp, Fred Fullenkamp, Melvin Gallogly, Samuel Benz, Adolph Col- chin, James Carrier, Florain Geimer and Leo Braun.

The young laides of the Evangel- ical church will give an informal re- ception for their pastor, Rev. and Mrs. Heist at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cook, South Fifth street, Thursday evening from eight to ten. All friends of the church are invited to attend.

Postmaster Albert Brittson and Marion Smith left Thursday for an extended trip through the west in search of a business loca- tion. If they find something that looks good Marion will remain in- definitely but Mr. Brittson will re- turn in about sixty days. Their ul- timate destination is the state of Washington but enroute they will visit Denver, Salt Lake City, Port- land, Oregon and other cities.

Photographer Moser had the finest display of water color por- traits in his gallery window Sat- urday, ever seen in this or any other Indiana city. The line con- sisted of about fifteen large size portraits made from life and in- cluded a picture of President Roosevelt and other prominent men and of beautiful women. The line was made by the highest priced artists in America for the Sprague Hathaway Company of Boston, highest class dealers of water color portraits in the world. Mr. Moser did not learn of the arrival of the line in time to announce the feature or many Decatur people would have taken advantage of the op- portunity to see the beautiful pictures.

The Daily Democrat foreman, John Nix has assumed an important air and we beg to announce that he has a perfect right to do so for a big healthy boy baby now completes the happiness of his home. Mrs. Nix and the boy are doing nicely.
