Invitations are being sent out for Indiana Press Day at the St. Louis World's Fair, which is June 10. It is likely that the fraternity will be well represented on this occasion.

The contest for governor at the democratic state convention has the earmarks of being exciting. It is probable that several candidates will be in the field and an interesting contest waged.

The will of Henry H. Myers was probated Friday morning. He bequeaths all his real and personal property to Elizabeth C. Myers so long as she remains his widow. The will was made October 1st 1895 and was witnessed by Robert Blackburn and J. Q. Neptune.

For the benefit of inquirers the time nor place for the democratic congressional convention for the eighth congressional district has not been arranged and perhaps will not be until after the St. Louis national convention.

Newspaper stories now have it that Senator Fairbanks has unbended the knee and will accept the second place on the g. o. p. ticket. The story is still shaded in mystery and the real truth will not be known until the convention meets and acts.

Senator Beveridge is scheduled for some high class work during the republican national convention at St. Louis. He will make one of the seconding speeches to the nomination of President Roosevelt and as usual will charm his hearers with that flowing stream of eloquence that bears the label of the junior senator.

June 17 is the date arranged for the democratic congressional convention in the twelfth district, the same to be held at Fort Wayne. No opposition to Congressman Robison is likely to come to the surface and his nomination by acclamation will occur. Congressman Robison's career in congress is one in which the twelfth district may be proud.

Amid appropriate ceremony the Indiana building at the World's Fair was dedicated Friday. The governor and staff, members of the Indiana commission together with many hoosiers were present to pay their respects to such an important occasion. The building is an architectural gem and reflects great credit upon the greatest and grandest state in the union.

It is a matter of congratulation to note the signal marks of improvement in the Indianapolis Sentinel and the Democrat hastens to express its approval and delight. The fact that the Indiana democrats have a state newspaper is due to the personal sacrifice and loyalty to party of the Hon. T. Taggart and we hope to see him grow to be as great in journalism as he is great in many other avenues of life. As a friendly suggestion we might add that every Indiana democrat ought to have party pride enough to be an every day paying reader of the Sentinel.

Since the return of Hon. Hugh Dougherty he refuses to commit himself as to this gubernatorial candidacy, but no doubt soon will make public his acceptance or refusal. At the present time there is a very loud demand that Mr. Dougherty make certain the success of his party by an acceptance, which we hope will be forthcoming in the due course of human events.

Illinois has at last nominated a republican candidate for governor he being the Hon. Charles S. Deneen of Chicago. This result came after a series of conferences among the candidates, and ends one of the most remarkable deadlocks ever witnessed. It has left a foul taste in the mouth and will keep the g. o. p. managers busy to election day, smoothing out the wrinkles.

The Indianapolis Journal is now the property of that newspaper magnate George F. McCullough, already the owner of the Star League of Indianapolis, Muncie and Terre Haute. The deal has caused surprise as well as speculation. The Journal has long been the g. o. p. state organ and will continue so to be under the new arrangement. The two morning papers will be merged into one and issued under the heading of the Star and Journal.

The g. o. p. are up against it. Their campaign thunder already bears evidence of being troubled with the shorts, and without that, nothing but despair and defeat stares them square in the face. Beneficiaries of a high protection tariff have always been their best contributors but now the trusts have absorbed about everything in sight and a trust is even without soul in campaign emergencies. Take away the g. o. p. campaign contributions and their best argument is gone.

Major Menzies, one of the delegates at large to the democratic national convention at St. Louis, is stuck on the Philippine plank adopted by the Maryland democrats. In short, that platform favors granting complete and absolute independence to the Philippine Islands and establishing under American protection the first Republic in the Orient. Major Menzies is one of the many bright Indiana democrats and is safe and conservative upon all questions of public importance.

COURT NOTES.

By prearrangement the Illinois democratic state convention will indorse Hearst.

Erwin & Erwin, as attorneys for plaintiff filed a divorce case Friday entitled Mary Irene Cook vs William Cook. A degree of separation and $500 is demanded.

In the big oil damage case, Williams Moyer vs William Glendening et al the plaintiff concluded their evidence at two o'clock this afternoon and the defense began immediately. The last week of the April term of the Adams circuit court began Monday and court will adjourn Saturday for the summer excepting the special session to be held June 26th and which will probably be of short duration.

A new case entitled State of Indiana vs L. G. Bodkins and Finley Reynolds, Geneva saloon keepers was filed today. The defendants are charged with selling liquors to a person in the habit of becoming intoxicated. Sheriff Butler went to Geneva today to arrest the parties.

The case of Henry Koeneman vs G. R. & I. railway company was appealed today from Squire Smiths court to circuit court. The case is one in which Koeneman demands $200 from the railway company for delay in the shipment of sheep and hogs from this city to Buffalo. The appeal was taken by the defendants against whom judgement was obtained in the lower court for $139.40.

The big damage suit of William Moyer vs William Glendening et al is still in progress the plaintiff still offering evidence. Mr. Glendening as a witness for plaintiff was on the stand over a day. The case is being hard fought and is of considerable interest to those who enjoy hearing a good legal battle. The case will probably not go the jury this week.

An affidavit has been filed against Channey Steele by Prosecutor Moran for the state of Indiana charging him with provoke. The prosecuting witness is Alex LeBrun and the trouble is supposed to have happened on June 1st at Alex place of business, corner of Seventh and Adams street when Steele said same ugly things. He has left town and consequently no arrest has been made.

The state of Indiana vs Zera David, assault and battery upon one Charley Young is the title of an other affidavit filed by prosecutor Moran before Squire Smith Saturday evening. The scrap occurred at the same time and place as mentioned in the provoke affidavit above and a range house must have looked possible for a few moments. David has also left for other fields of labor.

The officers reporting fees collected are the clerk who reports $96.39 on probate cases, $1839.76 on criminal and civil cases, $78 on marriage licenses, $7 on other licenses, $164 for transcripts, $1715, for certificates $90 for insurance, $5.25 for naturalization, a total of $407.85. Sheriff fees taxed $102.90, deeds $1 total $103.90. Clerk recording deeds, $267.35 mortgages $211.73 other instruments $33.80, miscellaneous $676.43.

Mrs. Emma Gage was granted a divorce Monday from her husband Laban H. Gage. Judgement was rendered against the defendant for costs who was ordered to pay into court five dollars per month for support of the four year old son, Jacob Gage whose custody was given to the mother. This is the case where the plaintiff made the sensational charge that while she and her husband and child, Laban attempted to kill them by driving the horse before a rapidly advancing train, himself hopping out before the track was reached. Defendant was ordered to pay the cost of the case within thirty days.

Mrs. John C. White went to Ft Wayne this morning to visit for a short time with friends.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

It required but one ballot of the council Tuesday evening to select a member of the school board, Robert D. Patterson being successful and receiving the entire vote. He will assume the place occupied during the past three years by W. J. Myers and begins his official duties within five days. The board will meet soon to organize. Last nights council meeting was a long one and quite an amount of business was transacted. Mayor Coffee presided and every member was present. Clerk Hower read the minutes of the meeting of May 17 and May 31 which were approved. The specifications for new side walks on Monroe street were adopted, all voting aye but Fordyce. The specifications for side walks on Decatur street were presented and deferred to next meeting night. Engineer McKean was ordered to give grade on Decatur street side walks. The purchasing committee were authorized to purchase a gradebook. The street commissioner was authorized and instructed to employ men and proceed at once to clean up Fourth and Monroe streets and the catch basins. The petition of Sam Emmerine and others for a street was filed and referred to the street committee. The selection is a satisfactory one and shows but few changes except where they were made necessary by resignations. Mr. Hill who takes the commercial department is said to be well qualified for the position and is attending college at Indianapolis at present to better prepare himself. The other high school teachers are all well known here and have proven their ability. The grade list includes several new ones, all of whom are from Adams county. The assignment of the teachers to their grades will be made within a few weeks.

A remonstrance was filed by R. O. Johnson to the Cris Amacher ditch petition and the board appointed reviewers, they being L. W. Lewton Henry Eiting and J. H. Bright.

BASE BALL.

The Rosenthals can no longer boast of a clean record. When Warren got through with them Sunday, bright and glorious colors were trailing in the dust and the local team tasted the bitterness of defeat; but not, however, until they had fought a fast and clean battle and one they may be proud of. The game was one of those kind that an audience enjoys, plenty of fast fielding and just enough hitting to keep them on the anxious seat. The game was called promptly at three o'clock, with a large crowd present, and from the minute the umpire called "play ball" until the last half of the tenth inning it was a battle royal. In the first inning Warren proved easy, while the Rosenthals gathered in three of the kind that count. The same dose was administered to Warren in the second third and fourth while the Rosenthals still kept getting busy and added three more to their list, making their total six. But right here is where the Warrenites got busy and bunched their hits which, coupled with several errors gave the visitors six runs and the score was tied. Excitement at this time was running high and for the next three innings each side was blanked Warren, however, pulling the game out of the fire in the tenth inning, by scoring two runs on three hits and two misplays by the Rosenthals. After the sixth inning, when Warren placed their renowned pitcher, Tom Irvin, in the box the Rosenthals practically had no chance to win, except in the last half of the ninth when France, the first man up, got a hit and stole second but the next three batters were helpless before the magnificent pitching of Irvin, who struck out ten men in five innings and the catch of a difficult foul fly by catcher Coburn of Warren. The fine ball played by Touhey, of Rapids Michigan at first base for the Rosenthals was hair raising he making several difficult stops and catches. The score by innings was as follows:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 R H E

Warren 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 8 8 7

Roshtls 3 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 6 5 5

Batteries, Bussic, Irvin & Coburn, Farrell and Pennington. Two base hits, Foust, 2, Ray, Touhey bases on balls, off Bussic 5, Irvin 1, Ferrel 2; hit batsman by Bussic 4 Irvin 2; Farrell 2; struck out by Bussic 4, Irvin 10, Ferrel 4; double plays, Rosenthals 3. Umpire, Knoff; Score, Woodward. Time of game two hours attendance 500.

He bears the glad tidings that the trip is one of a life time, and just now is seeing Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and several other of the beautiful cities of that great and glorious country. If all goes well he will return to his home, friends and charge, here about the last days of next week, after which with a renewed energy he will take up his pastoral work. The council of the town of Berne have again showed their good business sense by appointing and retaining for another year Clark J. Lutz as their attorney and legal advisor. During the few years he has occupied a similar post of duty the town has taken on several improvements of considerable magnitude, all of which stood the test, thus showing a proper guidance amid the tangles of law. During the coming year more improvements are promised for Berne and should they come to light the same guiding hand will steer them clear of all breakers.

George Bergman of Portland has received a dispatch apprising him of the death of his uncle, Dr. Noah Bergman, at Mount Cory Ohio. He formerly lived in this county and was at one time engaged in the practice of medicine at Berne. Berne people will remember Dr. Bergman, as he and his family lived here until about nine or ten years ago, at which time they moved to Woodburn, where he was postmaster, and afterwards to Mount Cory, Ohio. Mr. Bergman was one of the first doctors in Berne.—Berne News.

Relatives here received word Monday that Hon. William A. Dailey s dying at his home at Walkerton, St. Joseph county, the result of a sudden attack of diabetes. He has been unconscious since Saturday noon and there is not the slightest hope for recovery it is said. Albert as he is known here was reared in Adams county. He served as a lieutenant in company C. 47th Indiana, during the Civil war. He left here thirty years ago and went to Walkerton where he has attained prominence as a lawyer. He has many relatives here and will be well remembered by the older citizens.

NUT VALUES.

Chestnuts are starchy and take the place of potatoes.

Brazil or cream nuts are very rich in fat and should be blended with pecans, English walnuts or hazelnuts.

Black and white walnuts as well as hickory nuts contain nitrogen and oil, but no starch. Blend with rice or potatoes.

Cocoanuts contain very little nitrogen, but are rich in oil. The fiber is difficult of digestion. The cream and milk are excellent for salads and sauces.

Peanuts are very rich in nitrogen and contain considerable starch and oil. When boiled and mashed they are much better than when roasted and ground.

Almonds are really digesters or appetizers. They are too expensive to be used alone in large quantities. Four or five thoroughly masticated at the end of a meal will frequently aid in the digestion of other foods.—Ladies' Home Journal.

The Man and the Match.

"Show me two men with unlighted cigarettes, and if I watched them for a minute I can tell you correctly whether the one who has the match is from Philadelphia, Boston or New York."

The speaker was a person of some observation, and his friend naturally asked:

"How can you tell?"
"In this way," said the observant man. "If the man is a Philadelphian he will strike the match, hold it for his friend to get a light, then take a light himself and throw the match away. If he is a Bostonian he will light his own cigarette first, then hold the match for his friend and after that throw it away. If he is a New Yorker, however, he will strike the match, light his own cigarette and throw the match away."—Philadelphia Press

On the Other Hand.

Lawyer—Your case would have been stronger, Mr. McGuire, if you had acted only on the defensive, but you struck first. If you had let him strike you first you would have had the law on your side. Mr. McGuire—Yes, O'rd had th' law on my side, but O'rd 'a' had him on my chest a-poundin' th' loife out av me.
