BIOGRAPHY—CHARLES McCONNEHEY.

The Lord calls his laborers into the harvest field, ripe for the garnering. To some the day of labor is longer, to others shorter. To all he allows a full period. But the evening cometh, and he calls his workmen and gives to each their reward. "Well done good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Rev. Charles McConnehey, son of William and Maggie McConnehey, was born Feb. 26, 1876, at Monroe, Adams county, Ind. He died in the blessed hope of eternal life on Wednesday morning, Oct. 16, 1907, at his home in Decatur, Ind., aged 31 years, 7 months and 20 days.

The cause of his death was diabetes of which malignant disease he suffered about a year and a half. His call came rather unexpected. He was able to pursue his duties a part of the day previous to the one of his departure. He was converted at the age of 15 years in his own home. While seated in his home with his Bible in his hand the peace of God came to his heart and the assurance of his acceptance was precious to him ever after. Early in life he was given to the contemplation of the solemn and the serious. While others of his age went to seek amusement and worldly enjoyment on the Lord's day he turned his footsteps toward the house of the Lord or to employ his time in meditation and the reading of good books.

In the spring of 1893 he entered the ministry and since then has been in the active service until his health failed him about a year ago. He served with acceptance the following fields of labor in the bounds of the Indiana conference: Noblesville, one year; Altimont, one year; Edgerton, one year; Lancaster, three years; Culver, two years, and East Germantown, seven months. Upon the urgent request of his physicians he laid down the work so dear to him, however, in the hope that he soon would be able to take the same up again. The Lord thought otherwise.

On April 10, 1900, he was united in marriage to Mollie Dienst, of Louisville, Ky. Three children were born to them: Arie, Charlie and Evangeline. As a husband and father brother McConnehey was kind and affectionate. As a minister of the Gospel he was zealous and exerted a wholesome influence upon all with whom he came in contact. It was his earnest desire to use his God given talents to the best of his ability. His preaching was biblical, earnest and attended with unction. He was patient in his sickness, resigned to the will of God. He was prepared for the change which awaited him, however, he greatly desired to regain his health and again enter the active service of the ministry. His end was peace. His spirit took its flight to be with the Lord whom having not seen yet he loved.

He leaves behind a sorrowing companion, three children, parents, two brothers and many relatives and friends. May the Lord grant a blessed reunion in the world beyond.

The funeral was held from the Evangelical church on Friday afternoon, Rev. A. B. Haist in charge, who preached an appropriate sermon on the words "Write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labor and their works do follow," and paid fitting tribute to the memory of the departed. A. Van Camp spoke in behalf of the Sunday school with which the departed was connected from early childhood to the

We received a letter Monday from James Pierce, who is spending the winter at Indianapolis, stating that he was feeling fine and working hard every day. He enclosed a program of a banquet that he attended on last Saturday evening at which he delivered an address upon "The Wilds of Decatur." Jim said he made a hit and from what we know of him there is no questioning his statement.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hite are the proud parents of a ten pound boy that arrived this morning. Mother and babe are doing well.
