

MANY SPECIAL ACTS

Big Audience Was Delighted and Another Full House Promised Tonight.

Of all the performances that have been staged at the Bosse opera house or in fact in the city of Decatur, the show given by the Elks last week far surpasses anything of its kind that has ever been witnessed here. Long before time for the curtain to rise the house was crowded to its capacity and every person present manifested eagerness to see the initial stunt of the evening. A short time before the show began, Professor True R. Frisbie and his orchestra, composed of six pieces, took their places and rendered a delightful selection which was a most fitting introduction to the greatest minstrel show that has ever held the boards at the Bosse. While the strains of the beautiful music was falling upon the ears of the audience the curtain was raised revealing the most spectacular scene that has ever met the eyes of Decatur people. With elaborate electric effects displaying the national colors of red, white and blue, the background adorned with the old stars and stripes and F. E. France and his thirty-five minstrel artists in unique costumes. Assuming the position of interlocutor, F. E. France, whose ability has long been recognized in this line, announced the opening of the show proper which was a song entitled "Brother Noah Gave Out Checks for Rain," by W. P. Schrock. In this Mr. Schrock was decidedly clever and brought the house to laughter by his unique darning and comical jestures. He was forced to respond to the loud applause by repeating the chorus. Barton France then favored the vast audience with the song "Caroline." This was a very interesting selection and was well executed by Mr. France, who was neatly dressed in the black face attire. Unceasing applause necessitated the chorus to be repeated and the singer was then allowed to resume his seat on the right wing. Hugh Hite was next on the calendar and he sang a solo which was enthusiastically received. He was also encored and responded accordingly. M. J. Mylott then scored a hit in the song entitled "That's Gratitude." His singing was decidedly clever and his dancing as well, although we must admit that he became slightly unbalanced at one critical moment when he was introducing the Hawaii dance. An encore called him back for a repeater, which he executed without a hitch and great applause was forthcoming from the audience. This was followed by a solo by Miss Florence Sprunger and it was fine indeed. C. O. France then in his usual clever manner sang that beautiful and touching ballad entitled "A Little Bit More." During the progress of the song a brother Elk in the audience threw a lemon at "Bones," which the latter caught with ease, demonstrating his ability as a base ball player as well as an actor. Mr. France was repeatedly cheered until he was compelled to repeat the chorus. L. A. Holthouse then acquitted himself grandly in a solo which was well received, after which Fred Bell sang "The Ice Man," much to the delight of all. Miss Marie Beery sang a ballad and her work is entitled to much credit. "Noah Was a Wild Old Man" was the next song on the list, H. L. Conter being the artist. Mr. Conter sang two verses and was loudly applauded. He responded and sang the verse he was saving for the applause "which was sure to come." However, this did not satisfy the audience and there was a continuous uproar for another hemorrhage. Conter proved himself equal to the occasion by composing three more verses to suit the muse.

This concluded the first part of the program and after a short intermission the second part was opened by stereopticon views of and a lecture on that beautiful piece of poetry "Thanatopsis," by D. E. Smith. This was great and was well appreciated. Miss Marie Allison then sang a comic song sang and sang another when forced to do so by continuous applause. They were both great. The Elks quartette composed of Messrs Fred Bell, Hugh Hite, Bart France and D. W. Beery then favored the audience with a well executed selection. Next came a feat that was extremely difficult to perform. For several months C. O. France has worked hard in preparing to impersonate several business men in Decatur and his efforts were crowned with much success. To do this act requires an enormous amount of nerve and self composure, both of which Mr. France managed to have and it must be said that never before in the history of Indiana, has such an act been even attempted. L. A. Holthouse and his six little Fiji Islanders then produced a stunt that was extremely good and they deserve special mention. The performance was closed by a German dialogue by W. P. Schrock and H. L. Conter.

Words cannot describe their appearance, but we are able to state that this stunt would be becoming to professionals. Thus the second annual show of the Elks minstrels closed with the word success staring this grand order in the face from every direction and the people of Decatur can rest assured that the profits derived from last night's and tonight's show will be used to relieve trying situations among the unfortunate families of the city, who really need assistance.

ERWIN IS ENDORSED

For Democratic State Chairman—His Election Seems Assured.

Portland, Ind., January 2.—(Special)—The district convention convened at the court room at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon and was a rip-roaring old fashioned, enthusiastic, democratic love feast. The committee on organization reported the officers for the convention: James J. Moran, Portland, chairman, and E. A. McKee, editor of the Portland Sun, secretary. The meeting was soon called to order by the chairman, who made a short talk, stated the purpose of the meeting and called for nominations for district chairman. Lew G. Ellingham, editor of the Decatur Democrat, being chosen by acclamation. Elchorn remained in the race until noon, when he withdrew, leaving a clear field for Ellingham, who received the entire 108 votes. His election seemed to please the entire convention and the cheering proved the popularity of the candidate.

The election of Mr. Ellingham had been conceded for several days, but the surprise of the day came when the convention unanimously endorsed Judge Richard K. Erwin, of Decatur, for state chairman. His fitness was immediately recognized and the district will make a vigorous fight for his selection. Judge Erwin's election seems assured and it is believed he will carry his party to victory in Indiana.

Ellingham's name was placed before the convention by Judge Erwin. At the close of the convention speeches were made by Congressman Adair, L. G. Ellingham, W. H. Elchorn, Judge Erwin, Walter Lotz and other prominent men who were present.

Fort Wayne, January 2.—(Special)—The twelfth district democratic convention held here today was an enthusiastic one. Ed Hoffman of this city was unanimously chosen district chairman, Thomas Marshall, of Columbia City, was endorsed for governor and the names of Horace Cline, of Angola, and F. L. Feick, of Garrett, were announced as candidates for congress.

Portland, Ind., January 2.—(Special)—This is democratic convention day for the Eighth congressional district and several hundred politicians from over the district arrived last evening and this morning. The real purpose of the convention is the selection of a district chairman and member of the state committee to succeed Lew G. Ellingham of Decatur. The campaign has been rather a warm one, there being four candidates for a time. Mr. Ellingham, Feltz and Carter, of Muncie and W. H. Elchorn of Bluffton. The two Muncie men withdrew about a week ago and the general opinion here last night and this morning was that Elchorn would get out before the convention hour, 1:30 his afternoon. Delegate meetings were held at eleven o'clock this morning at various places in the city. Mr. Ellingham and a number of friends arrived yesterday afternoon and opened headquarters. Mr. Elchorn came over this morning with about fifty boosters. Madison county sent seventy-five in a special car, sixty came from Delaware, eighty from Adams county and thirty from Randolph.

THE JOB IS COMPLETED.

J. F. Tison Does the Job Remarkably Quick.

J. F. Tison and force of men, who were engaged to move the barn located on the property of Al Steele, thirty-five feet and place it in position to be remodeled into a residence, has completed his job. He was given the contract with the understanding that it be completed within thirty days and he only consumed eleven days doing same which is a remarkable record in consideration of the fact that one hundred and ten yards of dirt was excavated for a cellar and a seven foot wall constructed. The fact that Mr. Tison has completed the job in such a short time has caused considerable comment.

THE SOCIETY NEWS FOR CONGRESSMAN

Maccabees Elected Officers—Teepie Family Reunion—Various Dinners Given.

Miss Perle Burd.

The lady Maccabees met in their regular session Wednesday night and elected the following officers: Commander, Mrs. James Bain; P. C., Rebecca Eady; R. K., Geneva Murray; F. K., Hila Murray; M. R., Rachel Mangold; chaplain, Marie Holloway; S. A., Nelle Eady; picket, Daisy Bollinger. A good social hour was spent after the election.

A family reunion of the Teepie family was one of the most pleasant events of New Year's calendar. All the members except two, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Teepie situated three miles east of this city, to celebrate the seventy-third birthday anniversary of Mrs. Teepie and the seventy-seventh birthday anniversary of Mr. Teepie. At twelve o'clock a large table filled with every goodie of the season awaited the guests in the dining room. After the dinner they had their photographs taken, and pleasant social afternoon followed. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Teepie and family, of Willshire, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Teepie and family of Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Teepie of Van Wert, Ohio; Miss Della Stoops, of Van Wert, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moser and family of Wren, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gay and family of Decatur, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moser and family, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith and family of Decatur.

At the country home of Mrs. Herman Gerke in Root township a family reunion was held New Year's day. An elegant dinner was served at twelve o'clock and luncheon at six o'clock. The guests remained for the entire day, and also spent the evening in a very pleasant manner. The relatives who enjoyed the New Year's day so splendidly were: Charles Speckman, Miss Anna and Emma Dickmeyer, Mrs. Louis Schust, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Seip, Mr. and Mrs. Enno Lankenau and family, Herbert Lankenau, Miss Clara Lankenau, Tila Meyers, Adolph Lankenau, from Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lankenau and family, Miss Anna Parent, from Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Omlor entertained in a very enjoyable manner a few friends at their country home, situated three miles south of the city, at a twelve o'clock dinner New Year's day. The company was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eiting, Mr. and Mrs. Dyonis Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hain, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dirksen and Mrs. J. B. Eaneking, of Cincinnati, being the honored guest.

TRAVELED THOUSANDS OF MILES

The Indianapolis News has the following to say about a man from Portugal traveling to Columbus just to see a plow: Some time ago Senor Xavier Peixoto came all the way to Columbus from Lisbon, Portugal, to see one of the Reeves & Company gang plows in operation. These plows are manufactured by the local company and are pulled by traction engines. The foreigner was interested in seeing these plows at work, as he owns large estates in Portugal and had an idea that he could save money by introducing them. As none was in operation here he went to Denver. When he arrived at the branch office of Reeves & Company at Denver, and announced that he wished to see one of the plows at work, the officials told him that as the ground was frozen there would be no more plowing until spring. Senor Peixoto then inquired where he could see one of the plows in operation, and was told that California was the nearest point. This did not daunt him. He merely bowed himself out, thanked the officials for their trouble and boarded a train for California, a thousand miles away, where he finally saw one of the plows in operation. The man had crossed the ocean and the continent to see the plow doing its work, and he seemed to think no more of it than if he had only taken a journey of a few hours.

The newly elected officers of the Sunday school of the Methodist church are as follows: Superintendent, J. W. Vail; first assistant, Jeff Bryson; second assistant, Mrs. Jonas Tritch; secretary, A. Katterheirich; assistant secretary, Mrs. Ella Bell; treasurer, Mr. J. D. Hale; pianist, Miss Grace McKean; assistant pianist, Mrs. Leota Beery; chorister, Mrs. W. J. Vail; assistant chorister, Miss Ethel Butler.

Will Make a Fight for the Republican Nomination in this District.

Nathan B. Hawkins, of Portland, has formally announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for congress. He claims to represent no faction, but he will probably line up with either the Cromerites or antis before the convention is over. In a column article, he says some mean things about the democrats, promises some legislation that will benefit every one in the United States and otherwise offers testimony to prove that he is the greatest man in the district and closes by saying:

"If elected to congress I shall always be mindful of the fact that the object of legislation is the greatest good for the greatest number, and my ambition will be to reflect the greatest honor and credit possible on my district. It rests with my friends and the party whether I shall be the nominee of the Republican convention. My friends are authorized to take proper steps to advance my candidacy in the district. From time to time I shall state my position on matters of interest to Eighth district voters."

NEXT WEEK BUSY

Ten Thousand Dollar Damage Case and a Rape Suit Set for Trial.

In the case of Otto Bolds vs. Juday and Company et al, injunction, appearance by Peterson & Moran for all defendants, and by C. J. Lutz for Juday & Co., Otis and Andrew Juday. Rule to answer.

Jesse D. Dailey, receiver of Journal Publishing Co., suit on contract, appearance by Peterson & Moran for defendant; rule to answer.

Flora A. Dutcher vs. Charles M. Dutcher, divorce, appearance by L. C. DeVoss for the defendant; rule to answer.

The drainage commissioners in the John H. Beery et al petition for a divorce, asked for and were granted a continuance until February 3rd to file their report.

A sale bill was filed in the McClellan Tague estate and approved. The report of the sale of personal property was also approved.

Harriet E. Haviland vs. Grant Haviland, divorce and alimony, motion argued for temporary allowance and sustained; plaintiff allowed $35 and defendant permitted to encumber realty to amount named, allowance to be paid within ten days. The defendant filed a general denial to complaint. It looks like a legal battle was on.

EIGHTY-TWO YEARS

Lived Near the Allen County Line—Funeral Wednesday at Freidheim.

Christopher Homeyer aged eighty-two years, and probably one of Adams county's oldest citizens, died Sunday evening at his home near Poe at eight-thirty o'clock, after an illness of several months duration, death resulting from dropsy and erysipelas. Mr. Homeyer was born and raised in Germany, but when a mere boy came to this country with his parents, settling a few years after landing in Adams county, and since that time he made his home upon the farm, where he died. He was one of the most popular old men in that community, his friends being innumerable. He was a member of the Freidheim church and was a devoted Christian and worker in its behalf and his many kind acts and deeds of charity will be sadly missed by those who came in closet touch with him. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, the funeral cortege leaving the home at one o'clock sun time and the services were held at the Freidheim church at two o'clock and interment was made in the Freidheim cemetery. He leaves a wife, three daughters and two sons to mourn their loss.

CHICAGO UNLUCKY FOR KALVER

His Son Roy Received Broken Leg on New Year's Day.

Isadore Kalver returned Friday evening from Chicago, where he had been visiting for several weeks with relatives and friends. His wife and children were forced to remain in Chicago owing to the fact that his eldest son Roy, on New Year's day slipped and broke his leg, while playing upon the sidewalk. The break was a bad one and may detain Mrs. Kalver in Chicago for some time. The little chap was quite plucky and made no outcry, while the break was being set. Chicago seems to be a very unlucky place for Mr. Kalver for it seems that every time he visits there something happens to his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Augusta Water and son William, of Logansport, were the guests of Rev. J. Bauer, of Union township for a short time. They returned home this morning.

PRETTY COSTUMES

Some of the Noted Women and What they Wore—The Hepburn Bill.

Washington, January 1.—Theodore Roosevelt today officiated for the seventh time as president of the United States at the New Year reception at the White House. Assisting him in exchanging the salutations of the season were Mrs. Roosevelt and the members and ladies of the cabinet.

The niceties of diplomatic etiquette were religiously observed in the conduct of that part of the reception which has grown during the last hundred years or more and to partake of the nature of an official function, in this way, but without appearance of pre-arrangement, the president greeted first the vice-president and the members of his cabinet, then each foreign nation represented in the person of ambassador or minister; the judiciary through the personnel of the supreme court bench and the judges of the local federal and district courts; senators and representatives in congress; officers of the army, navy, marine corps and militia of the District of Columbia; heads of government bureaus and members of government commissions; organizations of veterans, including the society of Cincinnati, the Aztec club, the Associated Veterans of the war of 1846-47, the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, the Grand Army of the Republic, Medal of Honor Legion, Union Veteran Legion, the United Veterans' Union, the Society of the Army of Santiago, the Spanish War Veterans, the Army and Navy Union, Minute Men, Sons of the American Revolution, and Oldest Inhabitant Association of the District of Columbia, and then the public.

The costumes of Mrs. Roosevelt and the women of the cabinet were strikingly handsome and blends of color and contrasts particularly impressive. Mrs. Roosevelt was gowned in old blue marquisette, the skirt very full, an arrangement of velvet ribbon on low knots and garlands making a trimming which reached half way up the belt. A yoke of lace and half sleeves of ruffled lace were the finishing touches. She wore a diamond necklace and other ornaments and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Fairbanks had on a flowered crepe de chine, very full and fluffy, the design being a pattern of pink roses over white.

Mrs. Root wore a becomingly designed costume of pale gray chifon with deep border of gray lace about the hem.

Mrs. Cortelyou wore an elegant white satin with broad folds around the skirt, the bodice nearly all lace.

Mrs. Meyer was in black and white striped lace over white, trimmed with touches of black velvet.

Mrs. Garfield had on a handsome gown of dark plum velvet, effectively trimmed in lace.

Mrs. Bonaparte wore a splendid mauve satin, the coat with long skirts of Irish crochet lace.

Mrs. Metcalf had on a most becoming gown of Irish crochet and other laces.

Mrs. Straus wore a shrimp pink liberty satin trimmed in lace.

Mrs. Loeb was costumed in an orchid liberty satin and white lace.

FUNERAL ON SUNDAY

Had Been Ill Several Months but Was Able to Be up and Enjoy Christmas.

Miss Verna Davis, aged twenty-three years, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Davis, who resides near the St. Paul church, died Friday morning about five o'clock after an illness of several months duration, death resulting from that dread disease consumption. Miss Davis was taken ill during the later part of the summer with the white plague, but informed her parents that she fully expected to live until after Christmas and on that eventful day she was up and around and enjoyed herself immensely. However, the next day she took bed and her decline was rapid and fast and her death relieved. She was a popular young lady in the community in which she resided, and was well known in this city and her friends were innumerable. The funeral services were conducted Sunday morning at the St. Paul church at ten o'clock and interment will be made in the Decatur cemetery.

Miss Agnes Geary left at noon for her home at Cleveland, Ohio, after visiting with Miss Rose Hain.
