

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's "Medical Discovery" greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, septic and antifever. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone and Queen's root, contained in "Medical Discovery" in subduing tonic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, cat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak constipation, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and the Golden Seal root, Stone root, root and Black Cherry bark in aiding digestion and building up the strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must be expected to work miracles. It will cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe obstruction, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial, laryngeal troubles and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is the lingering on coughs, or those of long standing, when accompanied by bleeding from the lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Benton Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "It serves an excellent purpose, providing a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in action upon the bronchial, disorders stomach, especially if there is ulceration or inflammation of the mucous membrane of the stomach, it is a most efficient preparation.

Glycerine will relieve many cases of prostatitis and excessive gastric (stomach) disorder."

Golden Medical Discovery "enriches and restores the blood, curing blotches, pimples, scrofulous swellings and old sores, ulcers, and to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful elixir. There is no alcohol in it.

The recent sad death of Jacob Manand and the arrest of Charles Wolfe the very serious charge of murder, has caused the usual discussion of previous murders in Adams country of which there has been comparatively few. Nearly sixty years ago

John Fetick shot and killed a man named Muldoon, who had assaulted sister. In those days the unwritten law was even more popular than now, and Fetick was never brought to trial. In 1872 John Zimmerman shot and killed John McLean, his son resulting in acquittal. In the early spring of 1884, Amos Backes farmer of Blue Creek township was shot and killed. Fred Richards and Charles Wurst were charged with the same and both sent to prison on life sentences. Wurst served about fifty years and died soon after his release. Richards was pardoned about three years ago and returned to this county. Both men always insisted that they were innocent and Wurst was claiming he had been convicted wrongfully. In 1894 Rhoda Durbin was tried for the murder of her infant child, but the jury returned a verdict of acquittal. Alex Bombay, of Monroe township shot and killed a man named Oliver Wingent. Bombay claimed that Wingent had threatened him and that to frighten him he had put the keyhole at the latter's home, illing him. Bombay was convicted, not released after four years and died soon after. In September, 1903, Joseph Osborn, of Union township, beat his father-in-law, John Busenbark, to death with his fist. The trial will be remembered by many of our readers.

On the following Christmas eve, the jury returned a verdict finding Joe guilty of murder in the second degree and he was sentenced to prison for life. He was released a few months ago and is now living in Grant county. This completes the list of Adams county up to the writing of this week's sad chapter.

In the case of Daniel Straub et al vs. Chicago & Erie Ry. Co. damages,

$1,500, appearance by A. P. Beatty for defendants, ruled to answer.

In the Henry L. Teeple et al petition for drain, answer filed to J. T. Evert-son's motion for order on superintendent to pay labor claims, by Gabriel Everett, contractor.

State vs. Fred Gerber, larceny, reset for trial for October 20.

A hunters' license was granted this afternoon to Paul Auth.

Attorneys in the Amacher ditch case which was appealed to the appellate court some time ago, have been noticated that the cause has been transferred to the supreme court, but no reason for so doing is assigned.

Real estate transfers: A. C. Hoffman et al to Fred Troutner et al, 40 acres in Blue Creek township, $2,500; John Sheiman et al to Ella M. Weikel, lot

1016 Decatur, $100; Samuel Amerine to Mary Knavel lot 680 Decatur $600.

A marriage license was issued to Harvey Gay, 20, a farmer, and Goldie

Drake, nineteen, both of Adams county.

A township teachers' institute was held at district number three, in Blue Creek township last Saturday. Every teacher was present and an interesting program was rendered. Each teacher reported the schools in most excellent condition.

A Wells county jury fixed the value of two toes at $500 today. One was a big toe and the other was a little one. What the big toe was worth and the value of the little one was not itemized in their verdict, so that it would be hard to tell what proportion of the price each brought, and any one in Wells county contemplating getting five hundred dollars through the toe route will have to cut off both of them. —Bluffton News.

Dan M. Niblick and family are today moving into their beautiful new home on north Fifth street, just completed. The home is one of the most modern in the city and every convenience known, including steam heat and the other things which make life worth living in this day and age, are there. Mr. Niblick has been in poor health for several days, bordering on lung fever, but is some better today and expects to soon be at work.

New York, October 10.—The Democratic national committee is preparing to announce next week the amount of its campaign fund and the individual contributors of amounts of $100 or over. The lists, which have been compiled to date and sent here from Chicago, show that the campaign fund is a little over $220,000. Of this fund something over $180,000 has been collected from contributors, which, with $42,000 of the Denver convention fund, is the total fund now in the Democratic treasury. It was learned that there have been fourteen individual contributors of $1,000 each and eighteen contributors of $500 each. There have been no contributions of sums between $1,000 and $500 to date. The Denver headquarters of the national committee collected $5,000, which is said to include a check of $1,000 from former Senator William A. Clark, of Montana. The smallest contribution received was 1 cent, which came in the mail from Monroe, Wash. Nathan Straus, New York city, had given $1,250, and the National Democratic Club, New York city, $2,500. The following have given $1,000 each: DeLancy Nicholl, New York city; Jacob Ruppert, New York city; W. F. Sheehan, New York city; Archibald McNeill, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Guy B. Tucker, Little Rock, Ark.; M. F. Dunlap, Illinois; Roger Sullivan, Chicago; Perry Belmont, New York city; Robert L. Owen, Oklahoma; J. Hogan, La Crosse, Wis.; E. O. Wood, Flint, Mich.; E. F. Goltra, St. Louis; Moses C. Wetmore, St. Louis, and Norman E. Mack, Buffalo. The following have given $500 each: Melbert Cary, Conn.; Jefferson Levy, New York city; Dr. John Cox, Conn.; William F. Burns, New York city; K. S. D. Mallory, Selma, Ala.; Nathan Cole, Los Angeles, Cal.; P. W. Burns, Chicago; Joseph Fels, Pa.; William B. Rodgers, Pittsburgh; Carl S. Vrooman, Cotuit, Mass.; Melville E. Ingalls, Cincinnati; W. R. Burt, Saginaw; Murray Carleton, St. Louis; F. B. Lynch, St. Paul; T. J. Walsh, Helena, Mont.; W. B. George, Billings, Mont.; R. S. Ford, Great Falls, Mont. The major part of the Democratic campaign fund has come from dollar contributions and from the Democratic press, which started campaign subscriptions.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 9.—After a stormy session in which the two factions almost resorted to physical violence, the Catholic Women Foresters concluded the count on the election of officers at 7:30 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, of Chicago, the organizer and for 18 years the president of the order, losing to Mrs. Rose D. Rittman, of Minneapolis, by one vote. The Rogers faction demanded a recount, and it will be taken up this afternoon. The balloting started at 2 p.m. yesterday and continued through the night.

Walter Johnson, a member of the Decatur fire department was painfully injured Friday afternoon while assisting to manipulate the machinery of the hose cart, his index and little fingers of his left hand being badly lacerated, the former being amputated a short time afterward. The department was called to the south part of the city to extinguish a fire which had originated on a field and after arriving at the scene they experienced difficulty in unreeing the hose. Johnson seized the belt which operates the mechanism and as a consequence his hand was caught in a cog wheel with the above stated results.

Special Judge V. W. VanFleet, of Elkhart, sitting in the circuit court at Warsaw, who heard the evidence in the case against Roy Massena, of Pierceton, charged with embezzling $1,500 while serving as deputy treasurer in 1905 and 1906 under J. J. Babcock, instructed the jury to return a verdict in favor of the accused, which was done, and a short time later the young man was discharged. At the conclusion of the taking of the evidence Friday afternoon, Judge VanFleet excused the jury and addressed counsel for the state. He said that he could not allow the accused to go to the penitentiary even if the jury returned a verdict of conviction, because he did not think the defendant proven guilty by the evidence.

Wabash and Hartford townships want an east and west traction line. They want it badly, too, if the subsidy election held yesterday is a criterion by which one may base his opinion Friday was the day set for the holding of elections in these townships, and though there was some opposition, it carried heavy in every precinct but north Wabash, where but seven votes were cast in its favor and 130 against it. However, this did not affect the result, as Wabash voted to give a subsidy of $15,076 to the Bluffton, Geneva & Celinea company, the total being 424 "yes" to 188 "no," while Hartford voted 170 to 58 that they will give them the sum of $9,405. The vote by precincts was as follows:

WABASH TOWNSHIP.
Yes. No.
Geneva, A precinct.....137 14 Geneva, B precinct.....221 13 Ceylon precinct.....59 31
N. Wabash precinct.....7 130
Total.....424 188

HARTFORD TOWNSHIP.
South Hartford.....59 33
North Hartford.....111 25
Total.....170 58
Majority in Wabash township, 236.
Majority in Hartford township, 112.

Sunday was an interesting day for the Evangelists. The first meeting of the day opened with an unusually large attendance. So interesting was each service that the time simply slipped away. The Sabbath school reached its climax both in numbers and eagerness in the lesson study. It was certainly delightful to look upon such a well filled house of people, little and big, assembled for Bible study. The morning service, conducted by Rev. Tracy, of Bippus, Ind., was the sweetest yet. He chose for his theme "Power for Service," based upon Acts 1:8. He spoke of man's weakness sin. Of his strength by the infilling of the Holy Spirit. After the sermon a beautiful duet was sung by Mrs. Eugene Runyon and Miss Bessie Baumgartner. During the rendition of this heart-searching song a number came forward to renew their consecration and also to seek a deeper spiritual life. The Y. P. A. was well attended, Bro. S. C. Cramer ed a very helpful discussion on the subject "Commanding our Society—by Diligent Committee Work." After the young peoples service, Bro. Metzner, of Huntington, Ind., spoke to a full house. He read a part of the thrilling story of Jonah's attempt to escape from the call of God to duty and from this deducted his theme "The Sin of Disobedience." He said a large proportion of sin can be traced back to the act of disobedience. Man may disobey for some time and God will not cease his following after him, but the crucial test comes when man must decide either to be saved or to be lost eternally. A beautiful duet was rendered and also an excellent solo. The interest is still growing and widening. A genuine revival spirit is coming upon the people and it is hoped that this wave shall continue to enlarge until the entire city of Decatur shall feel its magnitude. Meeting each night of this week, Bro. W. S. Tracy, of Bippus, will preach for us tonight. Come.

WOMAN INTERRUPTS POLITICAL SPEAKER.

A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently by continually coughing. If she had taken Foley's Honey and Tar it would have cured her cough quickly and expelled the cold from her system. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes.
