TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We, the undersigned members of the Jay County Bar, most of whom were engaged in the practice of law at the time the Hon. John A. M. Adair was clerk of the Jay Circuit Court, have carefully examined a printed pamphlet put in circulation by N. B. Hawkins, charging that during Adair's term of office, as clerk of said court, some fifteen years ago, he over-taxed certain fees in litigated cases and estates.

In justice to Mr. Adair, we would say that no investigation was ordered or made, by any one in authority, but a pretended investigation for political purposes, was made by one Earl Patterson, of Muncie, who was and now is in the employ of said N. B. Hawkins, Republican candidate for Congress.

That we have examined said pamphlet and find the same is false, slanderous and misleading. That the fees taxed by Mr. Adair were within the law, were approved by the court and were satisfactory to both litigants and attorneys. His demeanor and conduct as a county official was gentlemanly, honest and courteous, and we are frank to say that there were no fees illegally taxed or collected by him, as such clerk.
