

WHAT GRANDMA AND GRANDPA SAY IS TRUE.

They Say That Pe-ru-na is Good for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Catarrh.

Good Health at Seventy-Seven.

Mrs. S. J. Edwards, Union City, Tenn., writes under date of Nov. 7, 1908, the following:

"On the 7th day of February, 1905, I will be seventy-seven years of age. I enjoy the best of health, thanks to Peruna, and have not had a spell of sickness since I began using it five or six years ago.

"I consider it the grandest medicine on earth, and whenever I feel a little badly a few doses of Peruna put me right. I can do as much work as I could forty years ago. I think all old people, who feel the effects of age, should benefit their health by using Peruna."

III the Best Part of His Life.

Mr. J. R. Prince, R. R. 2, Cattaraugus, N. Y., writes: "I am not very well satisfied with the picture that I am sending you, but when the reader looks at this picture if he could only realize that the original suffered for forty-five years, the best of his life, until your kind advice and prescription cured him, he would know from whence these wrinkles came. Next month I shall be sixty-six years old."

Nervous Prostration.

Mrs. Martha Avery, 28 Graham St., Amherst, Mass., writes:

"Four years ago I had nervous prostration. I employed several doctors. They would say I had catarrh of the stomach and bowels, another nervousness and another enlargement of the liver. My stomach was in a bad shape.

People who Object to Liquid Medicines Should Buy Peruna Tablets

A Democrat reporter detected a blaze on the roof of the Indiana House Tuesday afternoon and the alarm was immediately sent in. The timely work of several people who soon aggregated no doubt saved the structure. Some men obtained buckets and by the use of a ladder found their way to the roof, where the threatening blaze was soon extinguished, saving the building and its contents. The departments appeared upon the scene, but before their arrival the danger was past.

MET AWFUL DEATH

William Ault, Formerly of Decatur, Struck by Engine at Fort Wayne

THE WIFE A VICTIM

Mr. Ault Died Few Moments After Accident—Brother of J. Ault of this City

Oblivious of the pending danger, unconscious of the fact that he was walking into the jaws of death, William Ault, until four years ago, a resident of Decatur and brother of James Ault, who resides here, walked upon the Nickelplate railroad track Tuesday night, accompanied by his wife, and both were struck by a switch engine, the former dying, while enroute to the hospital in an ambulance. Mr. Ault was employed at the electric works, and he and wife were returning home from church, when they were struck by the engine which ushered Mr. Ault into eternity and severely if not fatally injured his wife, who now lies at the St. Joseph hospital suffering from a broken leg and internal injuries. The decedent was fifty-nine years of age, and for many years was a resident of Decatur. His business capacity was carpentering which avocation he long followed. Before leaving here four years ago he became a member of the Ben Hur lodge and many members of this order will probably attend the funeral services to be held Saturday. Besides the grief-stricken and suffering widow, two sons and a stepdaughter survive, beside a multitude of other relatives, to mourn the loss. The Journal-Gazette has the following to say about the tragedy:

While on their way home from the city, passing across the Nickel Plate bridge over the St. Marys river, shortly before 11 p. m. Tuesday a party of three persons was struck by a Nickel Plate switch train and one man was killed and two women were injured. William Ault, aged sixty, residing at 750 St. Marys avenue, died on the way to St. Joseph's hospital in an ambulance. Mrs. William Ault had a leg broken and sustained internal injuries.

Feels Ten Years Younger. Mr. Henry Merz, 1505 West Franklin St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "When I first wrote to you I had bronchial trouble for four years, and had tried several doctors, but they could do me no good. I had pain and rattling in the chest, cough, expectoration, especially at night. I took Peruna, and can now say that I am entirely well. I feel ten years younger since using Peruna. I recommend Peruna to all my friends, for I was in bad condition. I am an old soldier and am seventy-seven years old."
