HENRY S. MICHAUD,
Auditor, Adams Co.

The Adams county council held their second session at an early hour Wednesday, approving their work of yesterday, and this placed the final seal upon their labors, and an immediate adjournment was taken. The special appropriations asked for and granted were for a bridge over the Mathias Miller ditch in Blue Creek township $700, Shoemaker abutments in Hartford and Wabash townships $1,250, Beery abutments in Kirkland and Washington townships $450, repair of the lob ditch bridge east of Geneva $500, repair of the Johnson bridge in Blue Creek township $75, railing for the Linn Grove bridge $250, repair of the Forum bridge in east Washington township $225, repair of the Friedhelm bridge $375, J. W. Shiffler bridge in Union and St. Marys townships, public advertising $300, blacksmithing $25, repair at jail $75, winding clock $75, bridge and road repair $550, attorney for the poor $75, Elm street sewer $17.50, inspectors at the local option election $54, refund of liquor licenses $495.34, insane $228.25, miscellaneous $293.99, road grader $20, change of venue costs $1,000, water meter for the court house and jail $100, book type writer for the auditor $275, safe for the auditor's office $300.

The finishing touches to the labors of the county council came in adopting the tax levy, which was done by making the county levy twenty-eight cents, and gravel road repair ten cents. The sinking fund levy was abolished entirely.

After a chronic ailment covering a period of many years the death of Fred Conrad of Magley, occurred at nine o'clock Wednesday. The deceased has lived in Magley for a long time and is well known by the population thereabouts, and during all this residence was a model man and stood well with every one. During much of this time his health has been ailing, but he stood it bravely and seldom complained of the fates that afflicted him. He leaves a wife, four daughters and one son, and besides them there are friends without number who mourn his death and the loss of a fearless and well tempered man. The funeral will occur from the Reformed church north of Magley, and the Rev. Synder will officiate and speak work of encouragement and good cheer to those who survive and mourn his death.

Frederick Conrad was born in Germany, September 1, 1846, and at the time of death was sixty-one years and seven days old. The funeral services will be held from the Reformed church, north of Magley, at one o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

A new case filed by Hooper & Lennhart was Ruth Garlock vs. Harry E. Garlock, suit for divorce. They were married December 19, 1902, at Keystone, Indiana, and lived together until June, 1906, when the defendant abandoned his family. Cruel and inhuman treatment and drunkenness are also alleged. A divorce and the custody of the five year old son are asked by Mrs. Garlock.

A marriage license was issued to Benjamin Rice, aged 21, son of David Rice of near Monmouth, to Bertha Birschoff, aged 17.

Curtis Johnson, who has been in trouble so frequently during the past ten years, and who served a term at the reformatory has one more chance to evade prison. He was arrested several months ago for burglarizing the west end saloon and spent the summer in jail. Late Tuesday afternoon, he appeared before Judge Merryman and plead guilty. He was fined five dollars and costs and committed to the state prison at Michigan City for a term of from one to eight years. Sentence, however, was suspended, so long as the young man refrains from the use of intoxicating liquors and otherwise behaves himself. He will have to report to the prison officials regularly and on his first offense will be sent to prison. If this punishment held over his head for eight years don't reform him, nothing probably will.

The petition of Frederick and Elizabeth Aolder to adopt Luella Aolder, a babe, was presented and granted, the child being ordered adopted as prayed.

Anna Holder vs. Edwin C. Holder et al, set for Tuesday, September 14, on motion for allowance.

Joseph D. Beery vs. Stephen Wilken et al, deed reported and approved and commissioner discharged.

Agnettie Aspy vs. Andrew J. Pyle et al, quiet title, deed reported and approved, and commissioner discharged.

John F. Lawson vs. Catherine Miller et al, partition, appearance by A. P. Beatty for Catherine Miller on final report.

A marriage license was issued to Edward L. Engeling aged 30, a traveling salesman from Fort Wayne, to Margaret Zeser, aged 26, of this city.

Hooper & Lennhart filed a new case, W. W. P. McMillen vs. John Jacob Myer, suit on note, demand $100.

William F. Pyle, administrator of the estate of Jemina A. Bair, filed a report of the sale of personal property and a petition for an order to sell real estate.

Before Special Judge R. S. Peterson George Shroll, administrator of estate of Joseph Shroll, filed a re-appraisal and a report of the sale of real estate. L. C. DeVoss appeared for John Shroll.

Commissioners Laughlin, Miller and Zwick, accompanied by County Attorney Tutz, went to Bluffton on the morning train, they going to attend a joint session of the two boards. Bids were opened for the construction of the J. A. Engle macadam road, which will traverse the highway between Hartford township, in this county, and Nottingham township in Wells county. L. O. Bears & Co., the contractors of Geneva, and who also are building the eastern part of the interurban grade between Geneva and Linn Grove, were the lucky bidders. Following is the bids:

L. O. Bears & Co.$5,699.00
James Crosbie 6,224.00
Abie Heshner 5,926.80
Wilson Heller 5,845.00
Daniel Huntcut 6,000.00
Rufus Meshberger 5,828.00

The members of the board returned from Bluffton on the noon train and have been busy all the afternoon attending to the many important things in closing the affairs of the September session. They have succeeded in wading through considerable business during the time they have been together.

The members of the board will go to the county farm this evening and will stay over night and also a part of the day tomorrow, when they will see the threshing of the grain at the county farm. This event is one that usually finds the board at the county farm.

The commissioners set a date for a special session at which time they will receive and open bids for the construction of the bridges and abutments, which were made a special appropriation by the county council. The object of the special session is because the board wants to get all the concrete work done before the cold weather interferes. The date is set for Monday, September 27.

Bids for the safe and book type writer for the auditor's office and the water meters for the court house and jail will be received the first day of the regular session, Monday, October 4th.

An important meeting was held last evening by the trustees of the Decatur Cemetery association, the meeting being held for the purpose of selecting a sexton to take the place of Horace Bothoff, who for many years has had charge of the cemetery. Fourteen applications faced the trustees when they undertook to consider the matter of appointment, but in the face of this but one ballot was necessary to make possible the selection of John Chronister, who for some time has been working at the green houses of E. S. Moses. The new sexton is in every way qualified and will make the association a good man in a very important place. During the time that Mr. Bothoff has been in charge he has displayed care of the grounds and improved them in a very efficient way. The trustees have made great headway in the last several years and their cemetery grounds are becoming one of the most beautiful spots to be found any place. They intend to extend their energies and in the next few years to come the improvements will be more marked.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 8.—E. M. White, assistant attorney general of Indiana, came to Marion this afternoon and filed an application in the circuit court for the appointment of a receiver for the Grant County State Bank at Upland, which failed to open its doors this morning. The state bank examiner, Charles W. Camp, who reached Upland early this morning, will have charge of the bank pending the hearing of the petition, which has been set for next Tuesday. While the stockholders will lose all the stock they own, amounting to $26,000, there probably will be enough money to pay all depositors in full. The deposits in the bank a few months ago reached more than $100,000, but they now amount to only $52,000. The bank experienced a small run six weeks ago, and although it was checked after a few hours, the fears of many of the depositors were not entirely allayed, and this resulted in a gradual dwindling of the deposits. In order to prevent a second and more serious run it was decided not to open the doors this morning. Excited men and women gathered about the door when they heard of the bank's failure to open. They were greeted by a notice that had been posted by the bank examiner to the effect that the bank was closed pending the appointment of a receiver. The bank is embarrassed because Charles W. Cole, former president, who has been absent from Upland since last May, loaned a large amount of the bank's money to the Upland Glass company, now in the hands of a receiver, a concern in which he was interested.

Mr. Tucker, who has charge of the music at the First Methodist church at Marion, and has many friends here, will organize a ladies' chorus at the library tonight. The chorus will meet weekly during the winter for study.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church are looking forward to a very pleasant meeting tomorrow afternoon. At this time the society will meet on Mercer avenue at the home of Mrs. H. F. Linn, being entertained at that time by Mrs. Linn and Mrs. Knorr.

A pleasure trip in the Van Camp automobile was taken yesterday to Fort Wayne. Almost all of these trips are very pleasant as a lunch is taken along and a picnic is spread under a tree. Yesterday's spin was greatly enjoyed. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Camp, Mrs. Rost of Schenectady, N. Y., Misses Beatrice and Ida Van Camp.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society will be entertained Thursday afternoon at 2:30 sharp at the Methodist parsonage by Mesdames Powell and Heller. Mrs. John Parrish will have charge of the study for the afternoon, the subject being "Young People's Work." Further arrangements for the ransack sale will be made and a full attendance is desired.

The Queen Esther Circle will have an exchange Saturday afternoon at F. V. Mills grocery store.

The Shakespeare Club will hold its meeting with Mrs. Dorwin at the home of Mrs. C. A. Dugan this afternoon.

The Euterpean Club picnic at the home of Mrs. John Peterson on the last day of this month commences the meetings of the year 1909-1910 for the club members.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaefer of Dallas, Texas, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith today.

The members of the Dew-Drop-In Club has been having a number of informal gatherings lately for they are all going to school at different places and each day something is planned. Miss Leota Bailey was the first member of the club to leave, having left yesterday for Wellesley, N. Y., where she will spend a year in school at that place.

A happy social gathering was that of last evening given by Miss Bess Jefferies to a dozen of her girl friends and those who attended enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Various games were played during the evening, and during which a dainty luncheon was served by Miss Bess. At late hour the guests departed for their homes after an evening well spent.

NATURE'S REMEDIES FOR DISEASE.

Nature provides more effective remedies in the roots and herbs of the field than were ever produced from drugs.

Thirty years ago, Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy made from roots and herbs, which has proved more efficacious in curing women's diseases than any other medicine the world has ever known, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is looked upon everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

One of the large timber wolves belonging to a carnival company at Hartford City, escaped and, going to the barn of Edwin H. Ford, assistant postmaster near by, engaged in a battle with his cow. The kicks and bawls of the cow and the screams of the wolf aroused the neighborhood and not until Ford had laid the animal low with a club did the battle cease. The cow was badly lacerated, but the wolf was not much hurt. A number of dogs that were attracted by the fight were snapped by the animal.
