TALK OF COMPROMISE.

Agreement on the Tariff Expected Within a Day or Two.

CONCESSIONS BY BOTH SIDES.

Important Private Conference Between the Supporters of the Senate Sugar Schedule—Report on Trust Investigation Will Criticize Senator Camden. Thistle Appropriation Knocked Out.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—It is stated by one of the Democratic senate conferees that there is now a possibility of reaching an agreement on the tariff bill about the end of the week, with a probability that the bill as finally agreed on will be reported Monday. The agreement, when it comes, will be a compromise, as both house and senate feel that concessions will have to be made. On the great questions of difference—coal, iron ore and sugar—there has been no agreement, although it was understood that different propositions were made and rejected yesterday. It is believed, however, that if the sugar schedule was disposed of the other differences would not long be allowed to stand in the way.

SENATOR SMITH.

The senate conferees still take the position that they have nothing to compromise on sugar, but it is stated that a counter proposition is to be made to the house on this schedule. In this connection a significant and private conference was held last night, attended as near as was ascertained by Senators Brice, Smith, Murphy, Jones and Vest. It couldn't be ascertained if Senator Gorman was present. It is understood that the sugar schedule was the subject under discussion, and the amount of concessions which will be yielded by the senators who have the bill in charge was finally decided upon. It is possible that the other differences which exist were discussed at the conference. The fact that the Democratic house caucus has been postponed is regarded as a victory for the house conferees, which gives them a prestige in the contest. One of the Democratic conferees who has been most persistent in saying that no agreement was in sight, said last night that the situation was more hopeful of agreement than at any time.

CAMDEN BLAMED.

His Sugar Trust Speculations to Be Criticized in Investigator's Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The senate sugar trust investigation committee is preparing its final report. There is no longer any doubt that Democrats and Republicans will present a disagreement on the main features developed and that there will be two reports showing the special shadings of the two parties. There are some features, however, upon which all will agree, and it is understood that the part which Senator Camden has played in the inquiry is one of the points on which the Democrats and Republicans agree. On this point the testimony will be cited and the facts as they appear commented upon in a manner which will not, it is stated, relieve the West Virginia senator from blame.

CONGRESS.

Senate Largely Amends the Sundry Civil Bill—House Contest Decided.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The sundry civil bill, interspersed with less important affairs, occupied the senate's attention. To the former an unusual number of amendments were proposed and final action was not reached. Mr. Chandler's amendment that the action of immigration commissioners in regard to admission of aliens should be final and that the commission should be appointed "by and with the advice and consent of the senate" was adopted. The whole day in the house was spent on the election contest of Moore vs. Funston, Second Kansas district, and was decided in favor of the Democrat by a vote of 126 to 92.

ON A USELESS VISIT.

Being Likely to Come of Requests by the Hawaiian Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Hawaiian commission will today visit Secretary Gresham. Mr. Wideman talks charily of the purpose of the visit, but declares that it is neither to ask the restoration of the queen nor to ask compensation for her dethronement. It was evident, however, that he felt deeply on the subject of asking a policy of noninterference in further developments in Hawaii, but he remained noncommittal. It is not likely that anything will come of the visit.

Public Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that the aggregate debt on July 31, 1894, was $1,638,896,240, as against $1,632,

$3,636,747 Jan. 1, 1894. This apparent increase of $1,552,604 is owing to the increase in the issue of treasury notes which, however, are offset by an equal amount of cash in the treasury. Aside from this item the statement shows a net decrease in the public debt of $63,905.

THISTLES MAY GROW.

Senate Recedes From Its Appropriation For Their Extirpation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Just before adjournment last evening the senate adopted the report of its conference committee on the agricultural bill in which the conferees agreed to recede from the $1,000,000 Russian thistle appropriation.

Pure Food.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Mr. Hatch's pure food bill will be favorably reported to the house. Under the authority of congress to regulate commerce, the bill proposes to prohibit the introduction into the United States from abroad, or the transportation between states, of adulterated food or drugs under heavy penalty of fine and imprisonment.

Anticipation Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The senate committee on agriculture has agreed to permit Senator Washburn to favorably report the house antioption bill, the members reserving the right to oppose the bill when it shall come before the senate.

ATROCIOUS.

Young Negroes Beaten, Tied and the Sores Left to Fester With Sew Worms.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Aug. 2.—Henry Wheeler and his wife, colored, who live in the north suburbs of town, have been arrested on the charge of murdering the 16-year-old sister of the latter, who had been living with them. It is charged that they tied her hand and foot and left her alone for days at a time in a secluded cabin. The flies got on to the lacerated portions of her body upon which she had been beaten and screw worms resulted by the hundreds. When found she was literally a living skeleton, and was too far gone to receive any benefit from medical attention. A coroner's jury found it a case of murder, and Wheeler and his wife will remain in jail until the next grand jury, which meets in November. Wheeler has always borne a good character among the white people, but was disliked by the negroes because of his aristocratic manner. He has been sentenced for 10 years at the Southern Methodist church.

HE IS HER CHILD.

Mrs. Bohn's Denial of Parentage Reversed In a Peculiar Will Contest.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 2.—In the celebrated Bohn will case Judge Shaw has decided that 11-year-old Charles D. Bohn is the child of Mrs. Lucinda Bohn and therefore entitled to $40,000. It was contended that the youngster was really the son of another woman. This view was supported by the testimony of Mrs. Bohn herself until the physician who attended her and the child was brought from Colorado and swore to the contrary. In the face of this Mrs. Bohn, who is inclined to be superstitious, has little education, broke down and reversed her story, saying her first testimony was the result of threats by Samuel Matheny, who had eloped with and married Bohn's adopted daughter Leopetta. If a case had gone against the boy Matheny's wife would have been $40,000 richer.

SPECTACULAR SUICIDE.

Omaha City Clerk Smiles to a Large Crowd and Then Shoots Himself.

OMAHA, Aug. 2.—William Wakely, Omaha's city clerk and a well known politician, was the principal in a spectacular suicide last night. He accompanied a select party of ladies to a local bathing resort and after seeing them to the water's edge climbed into the ropes marking the danger line. Facing a large crowd of sightseers he slowly drew a revolver and with a smile on his face blew his brains out and dropped into the lake. His conduct has not been unusual up to the moment when he drew the gun. His affairs are supposed to be in good order, and his family, one of the most prominent in Omaha, can assign no reason for the deed.

SWALLOWED A BEE.

It Stung the Woman's Throat and Her Respiration Nearly Ceased.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 2.—Mrs. Daniel Stanton of this city has had a narrow escape from death from a very peculiar cause. While eating a peach in a darkened room she swallowed a bee that was on the fruit and the little insect stung her throat. By violent coughing Mrs. Stanton ejected the bee, but her throat soon began swelling, and in a few hours it was so severely closed that respiration became difficult and she was in great danger of being choked to death. Medical attention finally succeeded in reducing the swelling, but for some hours Mrs. Stanton suffered terribly.

Murderer Lynched.

ELKHORN, W. Va., Aug. 2.—Yesterday Anderson Holliday of this place, while drunk, shot at Bob Calloway and missed him, but the bullet passed through the head of Wesley Cobbs, killing him instantly. Holliday was lynched.

FIRE'S DREAD GRASP.

Forty Acres of Chicago Lumber Yards Enveloped and Destroyed.

MILLION AND A HALF LOSS.

Fatalities and Injuries Occur During the Fight Against the Progress of the Flames—Firemen Forced to Run For Their Lives—Fireboats Also Caught In Close Quarters—Blaze Fanned by Winds.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The lumber district of Chicago was last night visited by one of the most disastrous fires in its history, and the loss will probably foot up between $1,200,000 and $1,600,000. The following lumber companies were entirely cleaned out:

The S. K. Martin, Brown & Richards, Perley, Lowe & Co., Shoemaker & Higbie, John Spry and Edward Hines, together with Wells & French, car builders; Conway & Co., cedar posts; W. B. Palmer, cedar posts; Whitcomb Cedar Post company, Siemens & Halske, manufacturers of dynamos.

The burned district is about six squares from east to west and about three from north to south. The greatest portion of the district bounded by Blue Island avenue, Lincoln street, the river and Ashland avenue was burned over and 40 acres of lumber yards are nothing but smoking embers.

Flames Fanned by Winds.

The fire was discovered by a watchman. He saw a blaze on the outside of the fence on the east side of Lincoln street, near a single shed, and turned in an alarm, but before the first engines arrived the shed was a mass of flames which had communicated to the surrounding lumber piles. The Martin yards are 2,500 feet long by 300 feet wide, and the flames originated in exactly the right spot for a strong north-west wind to carry them through the entire length and breadth of the yards. The wind drove the flames so fiercely that the first engines which arrived were utterly helpless and call after call for additional help was made until over 50 engines and three fireboats were at work. It is not likely that even they would have counted for much had not the wind died away after the fire had been burning an hour. The course of the flames was southeast and east for the first 45 minutes. Piles of lumber, lath, shingles and cedar posts were swallowed up with appalling rapidity.

Life Endangered.

The wind suddenly changed at 9:30 o'clock and began to blow from the south with much less violence than before. The flames started rapidly north again and burned back to a line level with its starting point. The sudden change in the direction of the flames caught several engine companies unprepared and the men were compelled to run for their lives. No engines were abandoned, but three of them had close calls, horses and men narrowly escaping death. The fireboat Yosemite, at work in one of slips, lost steam and had to be pushed off with poles and boards. She finally got out of the slip with no more damage than a severe scorching in several places. The fireboat Geyser had also a close call, but ran through the flames which leaped out over the slip and escaped unharmed.

Fatalities and Accidents.

Two of her men, John McGinn and Thomas Freeding, were badly burned while fighting the fire. A large "Siamese" hose which they were holding got away from them and knocked both men over the side of the boat upon a pile of burning cedar posts a few feet away. Their injuries are not fatal. Fireman Phelan inhaled hot air and was badly burned. In addition to the firemen injured, the following casualties occurred:

LEUTENANT JOHN MCGINN of the fireboat Geyser died of his burns at 12 o'clock.

OTTO RAFTER, fell off a lumber pile; back broken and will die.

UNKNOWN MAN, struck on the head by a flying cap from a fire engine, knocked into the river and drowned.

UNKNOWN BOY, shoved into river and drowned.

The fire burned until late this morning. It is extremely difficult to obtain an estimate of the losses, but the estimated total is nearly correct.

Late in the night when Fire Marshal Sweeney began to take account of stock he found that he was short several thousand feet of pipe and two fire engines, which the firemen were forced to abandon to the flames. Both of them were partly rescued, but the heat was so great and the rush of fire so swift that it was necessary to abandon them.

GUN WAH MEDICINES.

Their Promoter Convicted of Fraudulent Use of Mails In Denver.

DENVER, Aug. 2.—W. H. Hale, formerly proprietor of the Gun Wah medical agency, was convicted in the United States district court yesterday afternoon of having used the mails with intent to defraud. Hale sent letters to correspondents purporting to be from a great Chinese physician. He also represented that his medicines came from China, although they were simply a decoction of mountain sage made in his office.

Omaha Butchers Strike.

DE MORAES.

of the conspiracy was to prevent his entering upon the duties of president of the republic of Brazil, to which he was elected by an overwhelming majority in the closing days of De Mello's rebellion. There is dissatisfaction throughout the country.

SATOLLI APPROVED.

His Temperance Rating Indorsed by Archbishop Ireland.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 2.—In an address before the Catholic Total Abstinence union yesterday afternoon Archbishop Ireland expressed strong approval of the recent letter of Mgr. Satolli in regard to saloonkeepers holding membership in Catholic societies. "The Catholic church," he said, "has put herself on high ground in opposition to intemperance and all its alliances. No stronger and clearer words could be spoken than those of Leo XIII in his letter on temperance work in America, of the father of the council of Baltimore and of Mgr. Satolli, the congreator and intelligent representative in this matter, as in all others of the great principles of the Catholic truth and of Catholic practical life. Temperance work, courageous and continuous, will put the church in her true light."

IOWA DEMOCRATS.

They Commend the President and Nominate a Ticket.

DES MOINES, Aug. 2.—Ex-Governor Boies presided over the Democratic state convention which yesterday nominated H. H. Dale of Polk county to head the ticket for secretary of state. The resolutions reaffirm the platform of 1892 and demands of congress that the same be carried out in good faith by giving a tariff law that will lay the duties on imports for revenue alone. President Cleveland was commended for his ability, wisdom and patriotism. One of the unusual incidents of the meeting was that not a candidate opened headquarters.

Gladstone Not Coming.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Under date of July 30 Mr. Gladstone has written in a rather shaky, irregular hand an answer to the invitation of 100 representative Americans to visit that country. He expresses gratification at its reception, but declares that advancing years and trouble with his eyes place obstacles in his way which he can hardly hope to surmount.

Detectives have been at work on the case ever since and claim now to have convicting evidence against Cole and his son, the whereabouts of the latter being unknown. A negro is also involved, an uncle of McAfee, recently sentenced for life for the murder of Druggist Eyster, and Detective Thornton left last night for Chicago to secure the latter. It is claimed that old man Cole bears marks of injuries inflicted during the desperate struggle with the officer, in which butcherknives, cleaver and a revolver were used disastrously.

COUNTY NEWS.

A. R. U. Strikers Resist Summons and Take Extraordinary Action.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 2.—Most extraordinary action was taken at last night's meeting of the A. R. U. at Argentine, when 400 Santa Fe railway employees who were recently summoned to appear before the United States court at Topeka flatly refused to obey the mandates of that court, and ordered the secretary to forward a letter in which it was said: "We are not conscious of having violated any law and do not feel justified in paying railroad fare to answer them in person, nor will we employ an attorney. 'If the decrees of the court can be invoked against us, with no more justification than in the present case, then our boasted justice and liberty is simply a jug-handle affair, and we will not attempt to resist it. You will find us at Argentine whenever you want us.' The action of the court is awaited with much interest.

The Big Four is making a clean sweep of its employees at Terre Haute who struck during the Debs troubles.

The efforts of democrats to get up a tariff bill are fast tightening the hold of the democratic party on a niche in the cliff on the failure side of things on this earth.

Democratic uncertainty is what is causing the large outflow of gold from this country. The foreigners are losing faith in our republic while in such hands as at present.

MR. GORMAN has an exceptional knowledge of the ways and peculiarities of the United States senate. He served it fourteen years as page and postmaster, and is now in his third term as a member.

The main difference between the two Cleveland administrations is that in the first the party did not have full scope to show its incompetency. In the second, however, they are getting in their graft and the country is suffering.

THE Indianapolis Journal well says: The New York Evening Post is much shocked over the anarchistic views recently expressed by sundry college professors and thinks they ought to be rebuked and taught a lesson. The ownership of the gored ox makes the difference. When college professors advocate free trade the Post is immensely gratified and makes haste to quote them as exponents of the most advanced thought; but the chances are ten to one that the same college free-traders are also anarchists. The college professor is notoriously unpractical, and his anarchy is merely his free-trade theories gone to seed.

THE Rockville Republican states it knows nothing of the reunion of the 78th Indiana regiments called for that city for September 1st as announced in the Russellville items in this paper last week.

It is now in order for the democrat papers hereabouts to go to booming Hill. He's coming 'their way now.

HAY fever victims are getting ready for the August campaign.

THE BAINBRIDGE FAIR.

Larger Crowds than Ever—The Race Track the Principal Interest.

Yesterday's attendance and races were the best ever seen at the Bainbridge fair grounds for the second day of the fair. The indications are that the fair will be the largest in its history in point of attendance. The stock display is fair, and as to hogs and sheep very good. There is a light show of cattle and horses, with but few stallions. The ladies' departments, art, domestic, textile fabrics, etc., are above the average and very fine indeed. This shows that the ladies are up and active and take a great pride in the fair.

The race track is the great drawing card, the magnet of the fair, being the center of gravitation and general attraction. In the 2:50 pace on Tuesday the winner was Tom Pat, owned by W. G. Duncan, of LaClare, Ind.; time of best heat, 2:29½. In Wednesday's races the 2:40 pace was won by Royal Gem, owned by John Brown, of New Ross, in three straight heats, 2:30, 2:31½ and 2:26. In the 2:35 trot Maud Halbert, owned by C. Pruett, of Rockville, won the last three heats and the race in 2:30, 2:33 and 2:37. This was done after Western Boy, owned by Eli Glore, of Alamo, had won the first and second heats in 2:29½ and 2:30.

An immense crowd is in attendance at the track today, and the races for today and tomorrow are full and of great interest.

More About Ginseng.

If young Gardner or any of the other seng-diggers of Putnam want to know any more about ginseng here it is from the Globe-Democrat:

War between China and Japan has demoralized the ginseng trade of this city considerably. Dealers have a large supply on hand, with no immediate prospect of disposal, while prices have taken a downward turn. In fact, buyers hold aloof. St. Louis is a large shipping point, as consignments are made direct to San Francisco and to Hong Kong. Ginseng is a favorite Chinese remedy, and has been used by the inhabitants of the Flowery Kingdom for centuries. The root is very scarce in China, while it grows wild in the United States, particularly in Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi, also in the north and northwest. The ordinary root is quoted in this city by dealers at $1.70 to $2.20 per pound. Choice large ginseng readily brings $4 to $8 per pound. In 1860 the price was 25c per pound; in 1865, 60c; in 1870, $1.50, and for the past ten years $2 to $2.50.

Reduction in Rates to Michigan Points.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad have arranged to make special low excursion rates to Michigan points; tickets to be sold for all trains of Tuesday, August 14, good returning any time within twenty days. These tickets will be first class, good on any train of the date named, and will be sold at half rates for the round trip, the object of this being to accommodate those whose vacations do not extend longer than two or three weeks, and at the same time familiarize the public with the beauties and health-giving qualities of the Michigan resorts. This is an opportunity which cannot be ignored by invalids or by tourists who are fond of fishing, hunting, boating or any of the numerous pleasures of outdoor life.

For full information, tickets, etc., call on any C. H. & D. R. R. ticket agent, or address D. G. Edwards, General Passenger Agent, Carew Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BAINBRIDGE.

The following is a partial list of the visitors in town this week attending the fair: Miss Cora Darnall of Greencastle and Miss Mamie McHaffie of Stilesville, at Mr. Samuel Collier's. Miss Lillie Graham of Greencastle, at Miss Annie Gordon's. Miss Ella Constance of Lincoln, Neb., and Miss Annie Bloss at George E. Constance's. Misses Mabel and Lennie Thornton of Sedalia, Mo., at H. C. Black's. Mr. Ed. Cross of Lebanon, at Mr. Andy Cross'. Mr. and Mrs. Wood of Muncie, at Dr. J. F. Cully's. Mr. Tom Priest and family of Bedford at Mr. Robert Priest's.

F. D. Ader is in town again in the interest of Harry Randall and incidentally visiting the fair.

An opera company from Indianapolis is here this week.

Mr. Flora Dyer returned home Saturday from Chicago.

Miss Mary Taylor is very ill.

Uncle James Shoemaker who lives three miles south of town is said to be very poorly.

Charles Ammerman of Greencastle, was in town Monday, bringing some exhibits for the fair.

PUTNAMVILLE.

Miss Lucy Perry is visiting at Anderson.

Jimmie Stoops had his led broken Monday by allowing it to get caught in the wheel of a log wagon on which he was riding. This should serve as a lesson to the little boys of Putnamville who are continually jumping on and off moving wagons.

Miss Myrtle Lewis of Hutchinson, Kan., is visiting relatives in this community. She and Miss Nellie Lewis will go to Niagara Falls the 7th.

Frank Beadle, one of Clayton's most enterprising and respected young men, visited his friends and old school mates last week. Frank formerly lived here and his genial disposition will insure him a cordial welcome whenever he comes.

"Dan" and Harris received slight injuries by upsetting their buggy in a ditch Sunday night.

Several of our people are attending the Bainbridge fair.

Miss Daisy Hendricks and Mabel Bishop of Brazil, are visitors this week. The former is at her grandfather's, Uncle Johnny Hendricks, and the latter at W. H. Walden's.

Ezra Lewis has moved from Greencastle to a farm southeast of Putnamville.

Rev. Dickerson preached his farewell sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. He has a host of friends here who will long remember his excellent sermons and the good he has done.

Rev. Edgin attended district conference at Monrovia.

The Methodist church has been closed for some time on account of extensive repairs being made in the way of new floor, windows, papering, painting, etc. A special program has been prepared for the re-opening service next Sunday. Dr. Poucher will deliver the sermon. Everybody invited.

Sherrill and Mahoney are threshing the wheat in this vicinity.

Walter Tyler and Florence Stokes of Indianapolis, were at Emma Stokes' last week.

A prominent democrat of this place was heard recently to remark that there were two things about which he was tired of hearing people talk: the Shaker meetings and the democrat party. As to the former we can easily give you a rest for it don't excite our curiosity any more. But in regard to the latter, as long as we receive such low prices for our stock and farm produce, as long as the present financial depression continues, and your party so overwhelmingly in power, shows by their jangling attempts at legislation that they are incapable of administering the affairs of this government, we can not help but feel that democracy is a burden, and therefore we must have our say.

RUSSELLVILLE.

Wheat threshing will all be done here this week; crop good, large yield and good grain.

Corn promises a good crop. Rains have been reasonable in this vicinity.

Two years ago some young democrats carried banners reading in large letters: "Elect Cleveland and get $1.25 per bushel for wheat!" "Elect Cleveland and get $2 per day for work!" They elected Cleveland, but ask democrats about the balance of the promise!

R. D. Smalley has bought a drug store in Brownsvalley.

The old settler's day at Sutherland's springs the 4th will be well attended.

PORTLAND MILLS.

Frank Scott of Greencastle, will move into his own property this week. Uncle Jimmy Wright of this place is probably the oldest settler in this part of the county, having landed in this vicinity in 1829. He is robust and strong yet, is seldom sick, a good neighbor, a hardshell Baptist in belief and a democrat in politics. He served in the forty-third Indiana regiment during the war, and is now 74 years old.

On Saturday afternoon Aug. 11, every son of a veteran, whether he belongs to the order or not, is requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall to hear a lecture.

Some of our G. A. R. officials will go to Rockville on the 3rd to be at the presentation of a fine memorial badge to Past Department Commander James T. Johnson.

James, Frank and Charley Cunningham must have been in a game of ball last Sunday night, as they had engaged a first-class Carpenter to umpire their little game. Be careful Charley, Mr. Calvert has (we think) that same Carpenter engaged.

Born to Mr. Clarence Sigler and wife on the 26th, a son.

The BANNER TIMES published the call for a mass convention of the republicans of Russell township on Saturday, Aug. 25, in last week's issue. The purpose is to nominate candidates for township offices.

DRESS FOR THE APIARY.

Let Your Costume Be Close and Free From Openings.

Before the advent of the Italians and convenient smokers it was thought best to have a dress of sort of jacket attached to the veil, with sleeves for the protection of the operator, while working among the hives. Such things are now almost out of date, with the exception of veils. While it is not necessary to have a special bee costume, it is a wise precaution to arrange your ordinary attire so that bees may not get under the clothing. Many severe stings are received in this way from bees having no ill will at all, but only sting because pressed by the clothing. When bees are shaken or dropped off the combs, they are very apt to crawl up one's feet and legs and also under one's sleeves. Tight fitting wristbands, with underwear tucked inside long stockings, will prevent this.

The necessity of face protection depends largely upon the race of bees to be handled. If you are to deal with hybrids or Cyprians, you had better wear a veil. With pure Italians you will rarely need one if you are careful and experienced. If a beginner, you had better wear a veil. A. I. Root, whose large experience entitles his opinions to consideration, gives preference to a veil of grenadine, with a facing of Brussels net sewed in. The grenadine is strong, and the Brussels net facing obstructs the vision but little. Gather the top of the veil with a rubber cord, so it will fit closely to the crown of a broad brimmed hat. In his "A B C of Bee Culture" Mr. Root describes a hat much worn in India and other hot countries that is also being adopted in this country and especially at the south. It is called the Hopalong.

HOPALONG HAT AND VEIL.

It is made of palm leaf, and it is supported above the head in the manner illustrated. As the light breezes can circulate above and around the head, it is perhaps the coolest sunshade one can wear.

The Sheaf of Days.

From a full sheaf in youth we bravely draw Each morning one light arrow, which is sent By strength of arm, impelled by hidden law Until its force is spent.

Some shafts go well and true, and some go ill. Beyond our vision others droop and fall. Fair shafts are others, sped by strength of will. While some fly not at all.

In later days the sheaf is not so full. Our arms are weak; the darts but feebly go. From lifeless cords our stiffening fingers pull To bend the sullen bow.

And some have straighter shafts and better bows, And keener vision others, but no hand The journey of a single arrow knows Or how its flight is planned.

DRYNESS AND DROUGHT

Predicted for August by Hicks, the St. Louis Weather Prophet.

August begins and ends with a new moon perturbation. This means a warm beginning and ending, with probabilities of earthquake and atmospheric disturbances increased at those times. The period which began in July, with an equinox of Mercury central on the 30th of that month, will reach a crisis about August 1st. It will be extremely warm, and the oppressive heat will grow until storms of wind, thunder and heavy local falls of rain appear and usher in a cooler atmospheric condition. If no black clouds with thunder and storminess result about 1st to 3d, the chances for insufferable heat with seismic shocks following will be greatly increased. Storms would break the growing electric tension, lessening the earthquake probabilities, but both are probable, both at the opening and closing of the month. The 5th and 6th will bring renewed storms, after which there is much hope of cooler days and nights until we near the storm period central on the 11th. About the west will note growing warmth with storm indications, which conditions will increase into heavy disturbances and traverse the country from west to east by the 13th. Cooler days and especially nights will follow up to the reactionary temperature and storms 16th and 17th, after which pleasant again.

From 21st to 24th another period calling for renewed heat with much tendency to storminess will fall. The moon's last quarter falls in this period, but will tend more to bring change to cooler than to excite storm phenomena. We expect much dryness and drought generally in this month. Storms and changes will take place in regular orders and some heavy rains will fall in scattering showers, but they will be too far apart, both in distance and time, to supply a general sufficiency of moisture. Make timely note of this and calculate accordingly in all matters liable to suffer thereby, saving unnecessary loss and labor by so doing. As stated above, August has a second new moon, and falling as it does on the 30th, will drag the crisis of reactionary storms about 28th and 29th forward into the 30th. It will grow very warm at this time and the heat will not relax until storms of lightning and thunder occur, or until earthquake phenomena in many places distribute local electric accumulations in our globe and restore the equilibrium between the earth, air and sun. There is always increased danger of destructive seismic shocks and convulsions when a long season of heat, without electric storms, leads up to or near the autumnal equinox. The Charleston earthquake is an instance within the memory of all. August ought to end in cooler, pleasant weather—especially the closing night.

Judges McGregor and McNutt of Brazil, democratic and republi-tending the races at Bainbridge today. They came together and went over the Monon together.

The excursion train on the Monon to Bainbridge carried about four hundred passengers from this city and points south to the fair today. Reports from the track show that there are several thousand there. The dust is terrible and can be cut with a knife almost.
Especially is this so from the depot
to the grounds and at the track.

Business men who are standing back on account of the dull trade are falling behind. Now is just as good a time to advertise as there ever was. People are looking for bargains, and the merchant who advertises the bargains will get the anything, is worth advertising. If it isn't it had better be advertised for sale.

The last two to arrive came from Brazil, where they created considerable interest. They will leave tonight for Indianapolis, and will work in the intervening small towns.

An exchange offers the following suggestion in typhoid and cholera treatment: A decoction of cinnamon is recommended as a drink to be taken freely in localities where there is typhoid fever or cholera, for cinnamon has the power to destroy all infectious microbes. Even its scent kills them, while it is perfectly harmless to human beings.
It is said that the essence of cinnamon, when exposed in the sick room, will kill typhoid bacilli in 12 hours and prevent fresh cases.

Samuel C. Mills vs. Anna Mills is the title of a divorce complaint filed in the circuit court. The plaintiff states that they were duly married on November 29, 1892, and lived together until April, 1893, when they finally separated; he charges the defendant with cruel treatment; that she would not get up of mornings and get his breakfast, but would lie in bed and make him get his own morning meals;

that she was cold, silent, sulky and distant, scolded and quarreled;
that she is of a violent and unconrollable temper, and when plaintiff would come in late from work she would get quite angry; that she threw missiles at him, striking him with a hatchet, from the effects of which blow he has never recovered;
a pot of hot coffee was also fired at and upon him; from these domestic troubles the plaintiff wants a release. The parties live in Greencastle township, and C. T. Peck is attorney for the plaintiff.

In an article headed "Literature

Saturday contained the following:
"Connected with the association
from its incipency is the Taylor family of Indiana, consisting of three brothers and a sister, each and all students and writers of startling originality and depth. H.
W. Taylor, in addition to his studies of Hoosier folklore, is the author of "The White Druse," a beautiful occult poem, now appearing serially in the Chicago Magazine.
S. H. Taylor of Chicago is known to the public principally through his patriotic poem entitled
"The Man with the Musket," published a few years since in the Century magazine. That gentleman remarked in the hearing of your correspondent that he has re-

Dr. J. N. Taylor of Crawfordsville is well known as a man of scientific writer of miscellaneous literature.

The sister, Minnetta, is the

SHADES AND COLORS.

A GLIMPSE AT THE NEW FALL DRESS GOODS.

Greens and Drabs—Brocades of Silk and Wool—A Gown of Moss Green Camel's Hair—No Diminution in the Width of Shoulders.

[Special Correspondence.]

New York, July 26.—The sample cards that are very jealously guarded show among the new colors for fall dress goods some very harmonious shades and colors in plain material and pleasing combinations in figures and plaids and also woolen brocades. The greens appear to be more numerous than any other one color, and they are marked by soft russet tints hidden away somewhere in the texture and giving but a hint of their presence. Quaker drab is seen in several shades, and these bid fair to become very popular. Drab will take any kind of trimming. It has the peculiar quality of showing up the trimming so that very little suffices, and much trimming would overload it. Cloth, a new dead fine serge, camel's hair and silk in the soft lusterless wear are the principal fabrics in drab. Mouse beaver and undyed seal are also new colors, but they are all somewhat of the drab shades, though lacking the purplish tint in the Quaker drab.

Novelty goods in brocades of silk and wool, mostly in Persian patterns, will be used quite extensively, particularly for trimmings and corsages. The most refined taste would suggest a sparing use of such material. Many of the drab materials will be made with no trimming other than folds, stitching and drapery. One very ladylike tailor gown of drab ladies' cloth had a peculiar arrangement on the skirt, three deep side plaits being let in the front under pocket straps of biscuit cloth, fastened with oxidized buttons. The belt and collar were arranged in the same manner. The waist was laid in similar plaits, and the sleeves were laid in plaits so that they fell in a looped puff on the outer side of the arm. About the whole dress there was not one point of color, but it made a dressy toilet.

A gown made of moss green camel's hair, with a russet bloom, was made with five plaits on the right side of the skirt, in form of a panel, and on the left side the skirt was slightly lifted under a jet ornament. The sleeves were large balloon puffs, made by gathering the goods very full under a narrow line of jet trimming. The front of the waist was a full plaited vest of chameleon silk, red, green and ivory. There were stiff bretelles made of lace over foundation and edged with handsome passementerie and ending with large jet ornaments.

Jet in every conceivable form and kind of device will be most lavishly employed as garniture for everything where it can possibly be put on all fall and winter costumes.

There is no diminution in the width of the shoulders. There are some few ladies who do not like such wide effects, but the fashion remains the same. Some of the new models are almost ridiculous, but there may be modifications later on. A pretty fancy shown me yesterday is a black lace bertha which can be applied to any dress, providing the satin is of a proper color. This consists of a pair of bretelles of black Spanish lace, which falls over a plain stiff bretelle of mauve satin. Below this are two lace falls which take the place of caps to the sleeves, and in front the lace falls below the waist. A jabot from beneath a bow of black ribbon. In the back it reaches to a point at the waist line. This is made postiche and thus can be worn over any waist, and it would transform an old fashioned corsage into the height of style. One could be made of white or cream lace and worn over light colored gowns.

MOVABLE BRETTELES.

Crepons will be worn through all the fall and very likely for dressy home wear during the coming winter. There are a few most charming Japanese crepons, such as have been heretofore considered too choice to send out of that country. They are painted by hand in the creases, so that as the material is moved it shows sometimes three different colors.

OLIVE HARPER.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

A Gigantic Undertaking Which Awaits Uncle Sam's Pleasure.
[Special Correspondence.]

Nicaragua, July 20.—The canal here is waiting patiently for the people to put it through. The people are waiting impatiently for Uncle Sam's government to float the bonds, so that they may raise the money necessary for commencing operations. The malcontents, who are not engaged in the soothing task of misgoverning this delightful country, are also waiting impatiently for the first good chance to overturn the present misgovernment. It is a waiting game.

As I came up the river to Greytown at the harbor I noticed three or four dredging machines which are said to be the largest and finest in the world. They stood off near the right bank. Nobody was working at them. The rust is destroying a great deal of valuable machinery that was brought here to work in the cutting of the canal—in fact, $1,500,000 worth.

The country through which one travels from ocean to ocean is rough and mountainous and in places grand and imposing. If I were a scenery writer, I might get in a few fine descriptive licks about the splendor of earth, air and cloud, rugged mountain and mighty ocean.

There are groves and groves of wild banana and pineapple trees. If a fruit selling dago of New York were to see them, his heart would expand with joy. Parrots warble sweetly and seductively from every bough. The sugar cane grows luxuriantly and of its own accord—is indigenous to the soil, as the learned people put it. Nature has put sugar on the free list. The climate is healthy, but snakes, with bite of the deadliest, are everywhere. The country badly needs a St. Patrick.

Rio del Norte, or Greytown, as it is called at present, is a rather bustling sort of place. Its population is composed of Spaniards, those of Spanish descent, half breeds, Mosquito Indians, West Indian negroes and a big English and American contingent. Spanish and French are the languages most spoken. Americans get on well here. Their pushing, help yourself ways stand them in good stead. Quite often they join the army, and before they are in it a month they are made generals. The main body of the army is made up of disreputable half breeds and negroes. Their outfit is a modest one, only costing 60 cents. They don't wear any shoes, which is a good thing for them when they are profiting by the wisdom contained in that old saw which says, "He that fights and runs away will live to fight another day."

This is perhaps the only country in the world where a wealthy man is at a disadvantage because of his wealth. It is dangerous to possess money or property, for whenever there is a revolution

THE GREAT DREDGES.

—which there is about every time the moon changes—the people that get the upper hand confiscate it. The plutocrat, or would be plutocrat, has no earthly show. He is looked upon but as something good to eat. The only real privilege he has is that of being allowed to ripen before he is devoured.

The words law and order are shorn of their magic here. You may do almost anything but tackle the man that is too strong or the host that is too many. If you wish to enjoy the acquaintance of the active life of the country for any considerable time, it is well to keep a civil tongue, have your eye peeled and let up on doing the town after dark.

I don't suppose its population is much over 5,000. In general appearance it suggests part of the French quarter of New Orleans. The houses are grouped somewhat after the same old fashion and painted as fancifully. Guitars tinkle in the winosops. In the distance the river shines. Beyond the river is the ocean, with its burden of ships.

Along the main street Mosquito Indians straggle, Spaniards and Frenchmen lounge and smoke, and Americans—if they have not been in the country long—bustle. Every one lives in expectancy of the time when the cutting of the projected canal will commence. Then things will boom, and money will be made. From the Atlantic to the Pacific, as the crow flies, it is only a distance of 42 miles, and in the middle of this is a lake 10 miles across. This would bring down the actual cutting to 32 miles. The real difficulty of the undertaking is to cut through and fix up the great sand bar on the Atlantic side.

The Mosquito Indian is more intelligent and better looking than the Indian of the United States. He is slightly but strongly built and ranges in weight all the way from 115 to 150 pounds. He is possessed of great endurance and will make 20 miles a day with a burden of 200 pounds for 10 consecutive days. They call the Indians that travel with burdens packers. They have taken the place of the mules who in former days used to carry the packs. Their women are quite comely.

There is much gold in the interior, and there are great forests of rubber trees, but provisions are so hard to get and so costly that it is next to impossible to develop either resource. Out there $40 in gold is the price charged for 100 pounds of flour. Other necessities are proportionately dear. Un sold, the dollar of Nicaragua is worth only 50 cents of United States money.

There is a great future in store for this country. When the bonds are floating and the canal is in process of cutting, things will boom and swing both long and merrily. BART KENNEDY.

PLANS FOR DOUBLE HOUSE.

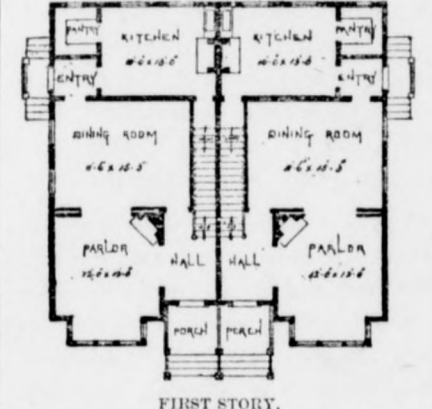

Neat and Pleasing in Appearance—Costs About $3,000 to Build.
[Copyright, 1894, by Palliser & Co., Architects, 24 East 42d st., N. Y.]

Times, places and circumstances have at all periods been found to be good governors of parties who have or may have had real estate that they wanted to improve, and among the many ways that have yet been devised to produce a large amount of room at a small cost, giving the necessary accommodations to separate families, the double house undoubtedly stands ahead as far as economy is concerned. One lot is thus made to do the duty of two, one chimney, one wall and one roof doing likewise, and while we have not fully made up our minds to accept the double house system as a sure indication of the near approach of the millennium yet we are willing to accept it as a nearer approach to the attainment of a home—even though it may seem to be only half a home—than that system, so prevalent in our country at the present day, of putting one family on a floor directly over another, the beauties of which are a theme poets never sing about. But still the double house has its many drawbacks, such as the owner of one half painting the exterior white and the other brown, as is frequently the case, plenty of proof of which can be seen in this locality, or one adding a bay window and enlarging, while the other is anxious to sell out on account of his neighbor's disposition to be always making improvements, with which his pocketbook will not allow him to keep pace, and plenty of like trouble in the same spirit that we could enumerate, all of which we know from actual observation and experience.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW.

FIRST STORY.

The double house should be the property of one man, as then he can live in one half and either rent the other or let it stand empty to suit his pleasure; can paint, tear down and build up when it suits his fancy, or can make both sides into one should his family wants demand it, and thus eventually convert it into a home, for we must say that the half double house never yet associated itself in our minds other than as a more stopping place, wherein we are waiting for the home that is to be and sometimes never comes.

The design here illustrated shows a neat and attractive front, and one which cannot fail to please even the most fastidious double house critic, and if they are as numerous all over our country as here they are legion. The halls are in the center of the building, stairs being placed back from front doors, which gives a roomy entrance, the stairs to cellar being under main stairs and reached from the kitchen. Each half contains six good rooms, with bathroom, dressing room, pantry, closets, etc., with a large attic over the whole, which is divided by center wall running up to the roof.

The frame is a balloon, sheathed and clappedboard; roof, shingled on lath; underpinning of brick; inside blinds to bay windows, outside blinds elsewhere, except cellar and dormer. That it is accomplishing considerable for a small elevation is fully seen when such a house as this is erected in a first class manner, with all improvements, for the sum of $3,000.

Hints For Warm Weather.

With the advent of warm weather we hastened to take up the carpet and stain the floor a rich deep brown, and as the preparation used was one that dries perfectly in two or three days we were soon ready to resume our abode, substituting for the obnoxious carpet lovely fur and Turkish rugs. In regard to the latter, buy only the real, for though so expensive the best is indeed the cheapest in their case. We also bring in, for the purpose of "seasoning" in the strong light, our beautiful dining table that is to be—every inch of it solid San Domingo mahogany and made after the Louis XIV design in Clarence Cook's delightful volume "The House Beautiful." On this table no staining and no disfiguring varnish were allowed. It was simply polished to the highest degree, and though all the care it receives is an occasional rubbing down with boiled linseed oil, yet it has in a year's time improved almost incredibly. The color has grown deeper, richer, warmer, with exquisite red and golden lights, and by the time it has reached the mature age of 100 years there will doubtless be few mahogany tables that can compare with this in beauty.—CHRISTIAN WORK.

Has a Salty Flavor.

A New York girl has a unique portiere hanging between her sleeping room and bath—a piece of sailcloth, on which is roughly painted a figure of a mermaid in the ocean. The curtain is tied by small loops of rope to a stout fishing pole fastened across the door, and on the bracket above are large, exquisitely polished conch shells and starfish.—Selected.

SOONER DIE THAN RUN.

Chinese Lost by Sinking of the Kow Shing Showed Great Bravery.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Times' account of the sinking of the Kow Shing on July 25 says the transport carried 1,600 Chinese troops for Corea and that few escaped. The Chinese refused to allow the vessel to ship anchor and run, saying to the British commander: "We refuse to become prisoners. We would sooner die here. If you move the ship except to return to China we will kill you." The reports say the Chinese exhibited the greatest bravery during the battle. It is officially declared that the war is now on.

Late War News.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 2.—It is rumored here that eight Russian warships, with troops aboard, have left Vladivostok under sealed orders.

It is also reported that a boatful of men escaped from the transport Kow Shing before she went down and reached Sheipin Island in safety.

In consequence of the declaration of war the Chinese minister will leave Tokyo today. The Japanese flag has been hauled down from the consulate here.

Charges Against A. R. U. Directors.
CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—District Attorney Milchrist has filed in the Debs contempt case information against A. R. U. directors, claiming that the five were advisory assistants in the progress of the strike and are subject to punishment.

Failure Due to an Embezzler.
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 2.—The downfall of the National Temperance Relief union, which was yesterday declared insolvent, is attributed to the embezzlement of $20,000 by its former secretary, F. H. Lewis, now dead.

Stabbed by a Lunatic.
MUSCALINE, Ia., Aug. 2.—County Commissioner Wilson of Wahpeto, Louisa county, was murdered yesterday by a lunatic named Stephen Courtney while walking along one of the principal streets. The murderer used a knife.

Anxious to Lynch the Bandit.
GUTHRIE, O. T., Aug. 2.—An attempt to lynch Elmer Lucas, the bank robber wounded in the Chandler raid, has made his removal to this place a necessity.

Major Halford's Injury.
OMAHA, Aug. 2.—The reported injury to Major E. W. Halford is not so serious as thought at first. He expects to be about within 10 days.

THE GUINEA FOWL.

Its Finely Flavored Flesh and Eggs Are Highly Prized by Epicures.

Guinea fowls are among the most neglected breeds of domestic poultry known in this country. As a marketable commodity the guinea cannot yet rank very high on account of the fact that but few persons have ever eaten them, consequently do not know or appreciate their merits as a table fowl. In point of fact the flesh of this fowl is of delicious flavor, being much like that of the pheasant.

Those who are fond of game or of poultry which has a gamy flavor will not fail to be abundantly satisfied with the guinea fowl, which is composed entirely of dark meat and which has retained through long years of comparative domestication the half wild habits which, it seems, cannot be effectually bred out of them.

The Poultry Yard says: Do not kill the old birds, for they make rather tough eating, but select the cocks between 1 and 2 years old—not older, as these have their full growth and are juicy and splendid eating when nicely roasted in a moderate oven.

The eggs of the guinea are very rich and of fine flavor, and what they lack in size is fully made up by the large numbers laid by the hens each season, though it is not the easiest thing in the world to find just where the nests are, even though careful and persistent search be made. The size of the eggs and the comparative difficulty to tell whether they are fresh or not until they are broken open prevent in a great measure their ever becoming popular in our markets.

Be Kind.

Be kind to thy father, for when thou wert young
Who loved thee so fondly as he?
He caught the first accents that fell from thy tongue
And joined in thy innocent plea.
Be kind to thy father, for now he is old;
His locks intermingled with gray;
His footsteps are feeble; once fearless and bold,
Thy father is passing away.

Be kind to thy mother, for, lo! on her brow
May traces of sorrow be seen.
Oh, well may'st thou cherish and comfort her now,
For loving and kind hath she been.

Remember thy mother; for thee she will pray
As long as God giveth her breath;
With accents of kindness then cheer her lone way,
Even to the dark valley of death.

Be kind to thy brother; his heart will have death
If the smile of thy joy be withdrawn.
The flowers of feeling will fade at their birth
If the dew of affection be gone.

Be kind to thy brother; wherever you are
The love of a brother shall be
An ornament purer and richer by far
Than pearls from the depths of the sea.

Be kind to thy sister; not many may know
The depth of true sisterly love.
The wealth of the ocean lies fathoms below
The surface that sparkles above.

Thy kindness shall bring to thee many sweet hours
And blessings thy pathway to crown;
Affection shall weave thee a garland of flowers
More precious than wealth or renown.

A NEW IDEA.

You will remember that Goliah was very much surprised when David hit him with a rock. He said such a thing had never entered his head before.

ANOTHER SURPRISE.

Some of our people may be surprised when we tell them that the best Daily paper for their needs is the DAILY BANNER TIMES, of Greencastle, Ind.

HERE'S THE IDEA:

Perhaps you are not taking it. If not, why not. It's cheap enough, prompt as is the coming of the day, and has all the local news at the right time.

IT'S ADVERTISING.

Merchants who have tried it say it's the best advertising medium in the city. That's another surprise, but the advertisers will testify to the fact.

DON'T DELAY.

Don't wait for some philanthropist to come along and give you warning that you are missing the best thing of your life. We will tell it to you.

ADVICE FREE.

We, in giving this advice, presume you desire to increase your business, succeed in life, and keep up with the procession of local and foreign events. If you do, address an order to the
