A Few Good Tips That Apply Elsewhere.

There is one habit that a good many young fellows and not a few old ones indulge in, that adds nothing to the sum of their happiness and that is decidedly disagreeable to those within hearing. Reference is had to the propensity of a lot of fellows to use profane language on the street and other public places. It is to say the least a rude habit and many times the fellows guilty of it do not pay any respect to ladies but persist in ripping out oath after oath with the abandon of a pirate or parrott with an idea that it is smart. There is a law against profanity and if the police would make a few examples of them fellows who make the air blue with their oaths there would be a much clearer atmosphere. And then a few examples might be made of the cuss who persists in emptying his mouth of a lot of filth on the side walk. The two habits mentioned have no defense and should be put on the list of nuisances that should be abated without any delay.—Muncie Herald.

DEGRADED WOMAN.

Mrs. Sisemore Sues Colored Husband for Divorce.

Katharine B. Sisemore has filed a complaint for a divorce against her husband, George W. Sisemore, in the superior court and it will be heard this term of court. Mrs. Sisemore is white and her husband colored, and their marriage at Portland two years ago created a great deal of surprise. The wedding also resulted in the arrest of Albert Milton, of this city on a charge of perjury, but the charge was later dismissed. The complaint was taken away by the attorney and the causes of action are unknown. It was not learned when they separated, but it occurred recently.—Marion Leader.

WORK BEGUN ON CALUMET CANAL TODAY

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—Governor Durbin and Senator Fairbanks were at East Chicago, Ind., today attending the ceremonies marking the beginning of work on the Calumet canal from Indiana Harbor, near Whiting, to Hammond and East Chicago. The governor pressed a button that started the great work. Millions are to be expended, and it is the plan to have the canal completed within a year and a half. The celebration today marks the beginning of one of the greatest enterprises in the history of the state. For years a number of capitalists who are heavily interested in land around Lake Michigan in Lake county tried to get a bill through the legislature authorizing an assessment of property for the building of the canal, but they were defeated. The Calumet canal bill was one of the most interesting features of several sessions. The defeated promoters showed their pluck by organizing a great company to carry on the work as a private enterprise. The result will be the redemption of thousands of acres for factory sites and the building of a harbor that will be a great factor in the commercial life of the state.

It is expected that within the next few days "Hol" Shideler of Marion and "Billy" Taylor of Indianapolis will formally announce their candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor. With all due respect to Shideler and Taylor, there is something really humorous about their "timidity" in announcing themselves. Every man in politics in Indiana has known for Amusements.

One of the great substantial successes of last year's dramatic season was "An Indiana Romance," a four act pastoral comedy drama from the pen of J. C. Nugent, and produced under the direction of F. W. Caldwell, which will be the attraction at the Bosse opera house on Saturday, Oct. 24. "An Indiana Romance" was first presented at Lafayette theatre in Washington, where it scored such an emphatic and immediate success that it ran for seven weeks, playing to capacity business. Following the Washington engagement the play was taken to New York, where the critics of last resort as it were, at once pronounced it a genuine and refreshing novelty. The public of the great metropolis flocked to see it, and its New York run was marked by the same success that attended the premier presentation in Washington.

"KATHLEEN MAVOURNEEN."

In presenting Monday night's bill at Bosse's opera house the C. Y. M. S. Club are offering a pastoral comedy-drama of unusual strength and beauty. The part of Kathleen O'Connor is perhaps one of the strongest romantic parts in romantic comedy. Her simplicity, grace and wit, tend to bring her prominently to the audience, while her affection for Terence O'More, and her unhappy ambition which mars their happiness wins the sympathies of the audience entirely. Terry's quaint humor and droll sayings, convulse his hearers while his openhearted frankness stamps him a typical Irish laddie. Father O'Cassidy's deep interest for his friends and his anxiety to help them makes him a most lovable character and one that appeals to all. Taken in its entirety Kathleen Mavourneen will please its most critical audiences. Every effort has been made to stage it correctly, and during the action of the piece the club has arranged for some pleasing specialties and also for an excellent musical programme, so that there will not be a dull moment during the entire evening. The cast is as follows:

Terence O'More.....Frank Wemhoff
Bernard Kavanaugh, Henry Thomas
Father O'Cassidy.....M.O. Wemhoff
Darby Doyle....."
Capt. Clarefield.....Thos.E. Ehinger
Dennis....."
David O'Connor Otto Bremerkamp

BROKE UP MEETING

New York Police Arrest Alleged Anarchist In Midst of Speech.

Meeting at Murray Hill Lyceum Is Thrown Into Great Disorder by Arrival of Bluecoats.

John Turner, an Englishman, Charged With Anarchy and Violating Alien Laws.

New York, Oct. 24.—Armed with a warrant sworn out by Secretary Corley of the department of commerce and labor, four immigration inspectors with several secret service detectives and a number of policemen, went to the Murray Hill Lyceum last night and arrested John Turner, an Englishman, on charge of inciting and promoting anarchy, in violation of the alien labor laws.

Turner had just finished a lecture on "Trade Unionism of the General Strike," and the hall, which was crowded, was in an uproar when the arrest was made, but the police were too numerous for the crowd to do more than shout their disapproval. Turner was put aboard a revenue cutter and taken to Ellis Island, where he was locked up.

Immigration Commissioner Williams had had a warrant for Turner's arrest for the past five weeks. The federal officials allege that he had been going from city to city preaching anarchy, and though trailed by a number of secret service detectives, he was not apprehended until last night. Emma Goldman sat on the platform with Turner and denounced his arrest, but urged the crowd to leave the hall without making a demonstration.

The police confiscated a lot of anarchistic circulars and cards which had been distributed announcing that "John Turner, chief organizer of the National Shop Assistants' (retail clerks) union of England, a member of the executive committee of London trades council, would deliver a series of lectures on Oct. 27, Nov. 1, 8, 9 and 15." Turner was arraigned before a United States commissioner today.

INCREASE OF CONSERVATISM

Buying Is Not So Confident, Says Bradstreet's Review.

New York, Oct. 24.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: The week's developments have favored an increase in the conservatism which has ruled in many lines for some time. Buying is not so confident, and smaller quantities are taken than a year ago at this time. Actual needs, which after all are not large and no speculative feeling dominates demand. Good and poor reports combine to give an appearance of irregularity to general trade as a whole. Railway gross earnings are more moderate than earlier in the year, but still reflect good gains in the volume of traffic over a year ago. Car shortages are not complained of much outside the lumber trade. Seasonal shutdowns of outside work on railroad improvements, suspensions of iron furnaces and copper, coal and iron ore mines have rendered many thousands of persons idle. On the other hand, the long-standing curtailment of cotton mills is becoming a thing of the past, and some shut down steel mills have resumed.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

William Oliver, Aged Fifteen, Held to Answer Heinous Charge.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 24.—William Oliver, aged fifteen, was arrested at his home near Atherton and committed to Lena Alkire. It is charged that Oliver brutally mistreated the girl Tuesday as she was on her way home. Mounted farmers took the trail of the assailant, bent on lynching him if caught. After the excitement subsided Oliver returned home and the father of the victim came to Terre Haute and swore out a warrant. Oliver was arrested and brought to jail before the people in the neighborhood knew he was accused.

Illinois Bank Burglarized.

Calro, Ill., Oct. 24.—The bank of Dr. H. L. Burnett at Raleigh was broken into by four men, who succeeded in blowing off the outside door of the vault. The explosion awakened Dr. Burnett, who opened fire, and the robbers were driven off, but not until they had secured $500.

NO RECONCILIATION
Troubles of Madame Rejane and Her Husband Irreconcilable.

Paris, Oct. 24.—Preliminary to the hearings of the divorce suit brought by Madame Rejane against her husband, M. Porel, her manager and director of the vaudeville theater, and the counter suit brought by M. Porel against Mme. Rejane, the couple appeared before Judge Ditte, president of the tribunal of first instance, for the usual judicial effort to effect a reconciliation. Only a few minutes was necessary to show the judge that neither party was inclined to a reconciliation, and at the end of half an hour they left after having signed, as witnesses, the document drawn up and signed by the judge in his formal decision that no reconciliation could be effected. Judge Ditte confined the daughter of the couple to Mme. Rejane and gave the custody of their son to M. Porel, Mme. Rejane having the right to receive her son each day at breakfast time.

A DESPERATE FIGHT
But Somehow Neither Side Got the Best of it.

Fort Riley, Kan., Oct. 24.—There was a pitched battle yesterday seven miles northeast of the maneuver camp, and it came about as close to the real thing as is possible with blank cartridges. It was good to look upon, better to be in, and full of infantry dash and the touch and go of cavalry work. The browns under Gen. Barry represented a force advancing from the north. The blues under General Bell were a force which having been pushed out on a reconnaissance, were attacked at once by the browns, and the resultant mix-up constituted a "contact of opposing force of all arms." The fight was at its hottest and the men in their eagerness were pressing close, when Colonel Wagner, the senior umpire, sounded the recall and the battle closed.

"It was a desperate fight," said Col. Wagner, "and so sharp on both sides that only actual war could have told the victory."

Today a grand review was had, all troops at camp participating.
