J. H. HELLER, MANAGER.

The name of Col. J. B. McDonald will again be presented for state commander, department of Indiana. Col. McDonald is a democrat, and the G. A. R. are in the habit of honoring none but ambitious republicans to this high post. But should they make a mistake, Col. McDonald would honor the place and the cause.

The democratic county convention yesterday was a happy gathering of Adams county democrats. The large crowd present slightly spoke of the enthusiasm that is already beginning to manifest itself in the approaching campaign. It is evident that the democrats will be in evidence and that there is plenty of fun ahead for those who hold in the hollow of their hand, the destiny of the g. o. p.

Stock in county conventions have gone up to par since the one of yesterday gave so many evidences of success. It is the common expression that never was a convention held here that contained so many features of respectability and good feeling. That it ever will be attempted again, we would not conjecture, but it is safe to say that the plan has many hundred more friends than ever before.

The Wabash Valley Nursery of Bluffton, Ind. will this spring have all kind of nursery for sale at Beavers & Cress Marble shop on northwest corner of Jefferson and Second streets consisting of apples, pears, cherries, plums, peaches, strawberries, all kinds of shade trees. ## Mr. Fristoe Sends Report of Teachers Big Meeting.

Winona Lake, Ind., April 8, '04.
Daily Democrat:—
The twenty second annual meeting of the Northern Indiana Teachers Association convened here yesterday with one of the largest attendance in its history. The first meeting was at 2:30 in the Auditorium. There being about three thousand in attendance. The regular routine of addresses of welcome and responded were carried out. Last night the National Home Disabled Volunteer Soldier's Orchestra of Marion gave a concert at the Auditorium, when its six thousand capacity was nearly full. The Decatur contingent consisting of Misses Luzadder, Dunathan, Acker, Steele Congleton, Peterson, Reynolds and Beyerly and Messrs Hooker, Craig, Suttles, Tritch and headed by that chivalric and courteous O. Harruff struck the grounds about 2 p. m. and at once proceeded to taste the water of all the springs and artesian wells and finally wound up at the meeting. They are having a good time. Tonight Hon. Geo. R. Hendling of Washington, D. C. delivers his famous lecture, "The Imperial Book." The last session will be at 9 a. m. tomorrow morning. There is a strong possibility that the teachers will make this their permanent meeting place.
Yours,
J. N. Fristoe.

Strong Testimony.

Gilmore Drug Co., Fletcher, Ohio. Gentlemen: Having a horse with a bad bruise on one of its hind legs, I was induced to try a bottle of your Caustic Oil, and as I got such good results from its use, I have used it for many other ailments, such as lame back, sore throat, fresh cuts, etc., and have found it just as beneficial in all cases, in fact I would not be without it, and can recommend it to anyone, either for man or beast. Yours truly, O. O. Lentz, D. D. S., Piqua, Ohio.
