AN ACCIDENT

Ireta Erwin Quite Badly Hurt

Struck in Eye by Roman Candle Stick and May Loose Sight.

Ireta Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dore B. Erwin was painfully injured this morning while acting as a peacemaker and as a result it is feared she will lose the sight of her eyes. A little girl named Mier and Richard Rademacher were scuffling, the later using an empty roman candle as a weapon. Ireta interfered and the boy struck her with the roman candle the blow landing on the eye. She fell to the ground in terrible agony and has since been suffering terribly. Dr. Boyers was called and on examination proved that the outer coating of the eyes had been burst and had bled profusely. The physician stated that it was very doubtful whether or not the sight could be saved but he extended some hopes. The accident is deplored by Ireta's many friends who hope she may escape any serious results.

Joe Berling returned today from a business trip at Fort Wayne.

CHURCH SERVICES

Rev. W. I. Alexander to Preach Here This Week.

Rev. W. I. Alexander of Argyle, Illinois arrived last evening and is the guest of Rev. E. A. Allen. He will preach at the Presbyterian church each evening this week: Rev. Alexander formerly lived here and his ability is well known. The services will be interesting and beneficial and the public is invited to attend. The Sunday services conducted at the Presbyterian church were exceptionally fine and a large audience attended both morning and evening. Editor E. A. K. Hackett of the Fort Wayne Sentinel gave interesting talks and Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner of Elkhart and Miss Ellis and Dr. Hughes of Chicago, assisted the choir in rendering some very excellent music.

Mrs. Feaster went to Berne today to visit with relatives.

A boy living near Monroeville, and whose name could not be learned, had his right arm and one side of his face blown off yesterday morning while celebrating the fourth. He was using dynamite. An eye was destroyed and the lad was terribly crippled, but has a chance for life.
