IT LOOKS GOOD

The democratic National committee makes a positive statement of the political conditions. They have the best organization in years, and are familiar with conditions everywhere, and as a result no boastful "hot air" is contained in their following analysis: "We have made no formal statement concerning the political situation before this time because the materials upon which alone a correct judgment could be formed were not at hand. Our efforts during the past three months have been devoted to the task of organizing and harmonizing the party in the states hitherto considered doubtful by reason of former dissensions. That work is now finished and it is possible for the first time to reach a conclusion based upon a systematic canvass which can never be satisfactorily made until after organization is completed and the campaign has well progressed. In every state and in all sections, democrats have buried their differences and are working harmoniously and enthusiastically for the ticket. Our canvass shows that scarcely anywhere is there a trace of dissension which for the past eight years has unhappily divided the party. In the states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Maryland, Delaware and West Virginia and in many of the western states our organization is now more complete and effective than ever before in the history of the party. Candidates for governor or who stand for the very highest type of citizenship and represent popular local democratic issues in all the doubtful states are greatly aiding the national ticket by their energetic campaign. Our canvass shows that we shall certainly carry by good majorities the states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, out, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia and Indiana and that in addition to these electoral votes we shall have the majority if not all of the electoral votes of the Rocky mountain states. It is impossible at this juncture to predict the outcome in Wisconsin. Illinois must also be classed in the doubtful column, for although at this moment our canvass there is imperfect, it is sufficiently advanced to indicate an unmistakable republican defection."

T. Taggart says Indiana will go democratic and that Judge Parker will be elected. It must also be taken into consideration that Mr. Taggart usually knows his business.

Hon. Henry G. Davis, the boy orator, is doing valiant service for democracy. His limit so far has been eight speeches in one day, and he wound up fresh as a daisy and as youthful as any of the boys.

GET a sweet tooth in dress? Want something different from the monotonous sameness of "ready-mades" with their unvarying marks of the slipshod factory work?

Want to look like a collegian, have broad shoulders on your jacket, roominess across the chest, lapels precisely the right length and width, waistcoat hug, but not bind. Trousers cut with an "air," not scissored at random? You get all these tailoring subtleties in A. B. & CO.'S HAND-TAILORED CLOTHES, the approved choice of the Varsity set. Prices not low, but moderate.
