Hooligan's Circus Will Make You Laugh
Sure Enough.

That bright, breezy and spirited musical comedy, "Hooligan's Troubles" now being presented by the cleverest fun-makers, will be the attraction at the opera house, Tuesday, Nov. 15th. The comedy is one of those rattling, humorous concerts which is ever popular, filled to the brim with charming satire, up to date specialties, and all that goes to form two and one-half hours of solid pleasure and wholesome laughter. Everybody seems to be crazy-going over "Hooligan;" tickets will surely go like hot cakes.

FROM KLONDYKE

Adams County Boy Returns Home for the Winter.

Alfred Hiltz, son of Jacob ("Tennessee") Hiltz at Linn Grove, returned from the Klondyke gold fields, arriving here Wednesday morning. He brought with him two fine Alaska dogs. Mr. Hiltz intends to spend the winter with his family here and return in March. He and a partner have a good claim in the gold fields that is worth thousands of dollars. He says that Amos Sprunger of this place is still in Alaska in the neighborhood of his claim and is getting along nicely.—Berne Witness.

Marshal Green Receives Word to be on the Look Out For Him.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9, 1094.
Ed Green, Marshal,
Decatur, Ind.

Dear Sir:—There is a party going through your section of the state, taking orders for periodicals, in which he represents The Outlook, McClure's, Leslie's Weekly, The Ladies' Home Journal, Saturday Evening Post, World's Work, Success, Review of Reviews, Pearson's Magazine, Collier's Weekly, Everybody's Magazine, Woman's Home Companion, Cosmopolitan and The Delineator.

This man is offering several of these periodicals together, for a very small price, giving as a reason therefor that they are trying to raise the circulation to a large amount and thus secure advertising.

We beg to advise that this man is not in the employ of Collier's Weekly, and we are quite sure that he does not represent any of the publications named above, but that he is an imposter and a crook. We will thank you to take this matter up with your officers, and it will be well to give this item to the newspapers of your city, so the people will not be victimized.

Should you find this man operating in your town, we will thank you to place him under arrest and wire P. F. Collier & Son, 220 State Life Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind., and we will prosecute him to the fullest extent.

Yours truly,
P. F. Collier & Son

We frame your cabinet pictures and pictures of all kinds 15 to 25 per cent cheaper than anybody in town. Don't fail to see us. Lyman Bros. 260d6
