J. H. HELLER, MANAGER.

If any of the children, real or prospective, of the Landis boys, have any preference as to the kind of a soft snap they desire at the expense of Uncle Sam, please hold up your hands.

The new executive order which provides a continuance in office of the present postmasters is causing a round of that good, old-fashioned cussing among those who believe in that fundamental principle "to the victors belong the spoils."

The Philadelphia Press is anxious to know and inquires for answer "If beauty's just skin deep." We must confess we'd like to know the depth of ugliness. Almost any dude does know when off his throne that beauty goes but skin deep and ugly to the bone. Beauty fades away while ugly holds it's own.

William Pine, of Geneva, made us a social and business call last Friday. He says that his short experience of township life is from fair to middling.
