

All Hail, Ohio!

Fraud Rebuked!!

30,000 Democratic MAJORITY

COLUMBUS, Oct. 10.—The republican committee have received very little news to-day, and all political information has so far been obtained from the Democratic headquarters. The Democratic committee think that the full official count will give Bishop 30,000 majority, and thus Democrats will have 41 majority on joint ballot in the Legislature. Again we say ALL HAIL!!!

Hartford, Connecticut, has gone Democratic.

Democrats in various parts of the State are jollifying over the result of the election in Ohio.

The administration of the State (government of Ohio) will soon be under the direction of a good old Presbyterian Bishop.

The Indianapolis Sentinel predicts that the next United States Senate will stand:

Democrats,	45.
Republicans,	29.
Independents,	1.
Doubtful,	1.

The New Railroad.
The Delphi Times says: "The prospects for the early completion of the Indianapolis, Delphi & Chicago Railroad were never so bright as at present. A meeting of the directors will be called within a week to ratify and close the contracts made by President Lee, and it is confidently expected that the line will be opened to Rensselaer within ninety days."

Some thirty indictments for murder and accessory to murder have been found against men who were engaged in the noted Kemper County, Mississippi mob, that killed Chisholm and his son. This is the case where the Republican papers all wanted the military to interfere and all said that nothing would be done by the local authorities to bring the leaders of the mob to justice. It is now to one that none of the Republican papers will notice this legal action of the authorities.—Laporte Argus.

Communicated.

On last Saturday morning I started with Chief Engineer Ferris to take a look at the line of the I. D. & C. R. R. from Rensselaer to Dyer. We went with a team overland via the Newton county bridge across the Kanawake. The line is graded perhaps one-fourth to one-fifth of the way from Rensselaer to the river, and cleared all the way. The grade across the marsh on the north side of the river is about one-half done, and almost completed from there to Dyer. There is about three miles of work from the river to Dyer to complete yet.

The people of Lowell are wide-awake and very anxious for the early completion of the road. They may well be enthusiastic for the advantages which they will realize will reach huge proportions. Lowell will then be able to control the hay market of more than 125,000 acres of marshland. She has a splendid water-power; a beautiful pleasure resort, "Cedar Lake," a magnificent surrounding farming country, and high bluffs along the track of the proposed RR. which may be utilized with handsome results by building elevators along the sides thereof, enabling grain haulers to drive from the top of the bluffs into the third story with perfect ease, thus dispensing with the use of steam and machinery altogether for elevating purposes.

The timber in the neighborhood of the line will furnish all the ties needed, and the building of bridges will be very light compared with the cost on many roads.

Gov. Hampton has sent for carpet-bagger John J. Patterson, by the grace of the Radical members of the Senate, United States Senator from South Carolina. The valiant John pleads exemption from arrest on the ground that he is not a resident of South Carolina. The men who "fiddled while Rome was burning" are assuredly being brought to judgment.

EDITOR SENTINEL:
I notice that Horace E. James in his last paper still continues to try to tear at the coat of the Republic. Let the boy go—give him all the rope he wants, and if he will, let him hang himself. To the officers of the Agricultural Society, and to the citizens of Jasper county, all supporters of said Association, I desire to say once more that I have kept the books for the society for the year 1877, that those books are in my office and open to inspection by any man, woman or child, or any other interested party.

IRA V. YEOMAN, Secretary
Jasper County A. & M. A. Well, Ira, did you ever read the life and doings of Paul Pry? It became necessary to his life and health to indulge his contemptible and ungentle disposition of prying into everybody's business. And so with Bro. James should he be denied the privilege of jangling in his fault-finding propensities, he might hire out to feed Halloran's eagle and thus disgrace himself. Let him, we say, indulge his inclinations; it will harm no one, and at the same time will be highly gratifying to himself.

Jimmy Meehan is in Lafayette purchasing a stock of new goods.

The Union "blows" over its neighborly act of loaning us near a column of ready-set matter in return for the two columns we loaned it. Rather brass, ain't it?

Tommy McCoy was very severely kicked on the head by a horse, yesterday morning. He was unconscious for a time, and we learn to-day suffers more from pain than on yesterday.

Dr. D. H. Patton, of Remington, was in Rensselaer last Sunday on a professional visit to Dr. Lourghridge. The health of Dr. L., we believe, is improving.

Mrs. Jos. D. Cowdin, of this place, accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Roach, to her home in Carroll county, this morning. She will be absent a few weeks visiting friends in Carroll and White.

Our neighbor, it seems, was first possessor of Halloran's eagle, which he used to attract a crowd in the rear of his office, affording him a fine opportunity to sing his original and justly celebrated song—"Only a Quarter-Try It for Three Months."

We are highly gratified to notice that a former resident of Jasper county, John Chilcote, brother of Capt. M. P. Chilcote, of this place, received the unanimous nomination for Clerk of Wilson county, Kansas, at a recent Democratic Convention, with a good prospect of election.

From our exchanges we learn that the hog cholera is prevailing to an alarming extent in many parts of the State.

A farmer in Randolph county recommends turpentine, in the proportion of a tablespoonful to each bucket of slop, as a cure for hog cholera.

Eld. H. B. Miller officiated at the funeral services of Emma, daughter of Milton Weaver, of West Point township, White county, Ind. The child was aged about 12 years, and was interred in the Brookston Cemetery Monday last. Bider M. reports diphtheria is making sad havoc among the little ones in parts of White county.

Charles O'Donohoe and Geneva May Carson, of West Point Township, White county, Ind., were united in the bonds of matrimony, in the township and county aforesaid, on Sunday last, by Eld. H. B. Miller, of this place.

ANOMOLIES OF ENGLISH SPELLING.
How the ALPH ABET IS TORTURED TO GIVE OVER FOURTY SOUNDS.

One of the principal difficulties in learning the English language is the inexplicable manner in which most of the words are spelled, the 26 letters of the alphabet trying with each other to represent the forty or forty-two sounds of the language in the most bungling and disorderly manner.

Be the capacity of a child ever so good, yet he must spend years in learning these "curiosities of literature," while a foreigner can only master our noble language by a vast expense of labor, patience and time.

The Protean nature of the vowel sounds is familiar to all. A few examples will show that the consonants are nearly as bad:
B makes a road broad, turns the ear to bark and Tom into a tomb.
C makes him climb, hanged changed, a lever clever and transports a lover to clover.
D turns a bear to beard, a crow to a crowd and makes anger danger.
F turns lower regions to flower regions.
G changes a son to a song and makes one gone.
H changes eight into height.
K makes now know and eyed keyed.
L transforms a pear into pearl.
N turns a line, linen, a crow to a crown and makes one none.
P metamorphoses a lum-er into plumber.
Q, of itself, hath no significance.
S turns even to seven, makes have shave, and word a word, a pear a spear, makes slaughter of laughter, and curiously changes having a hoe to shaving a shoe.
T makes a bough bought, turns here there, alters one to tone, changes ether to tether, and transforms the phrase "allow his own," to "tallow his own."

W does well, e. g., hose are whose? are becomes ware, on won, oven women, so sow, vie view; it makes an arm warm, and turns a hat into what?
Y turns fur to fury, a man to many to to, a rub to a ruby, ours to yours, and proh proud, a lad to a lady!—Moses Patterson.

Alexander H. Stephens tips the beam at 98 pounds.
A new Democratic paper is projected at Michigan City.
One gardener near Indianapolis has raised 14,000 head of cabbage this year.
Mr. H. S. Wisner, a Presbyterian minister in Iowa was once a circus clown.
A Philadelphia dancing master is said to be about introducing a new dance expressly for fat people. All the performers have to do is to sit and kick.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "If Mr. Hayes is right now, wherein was Andy Johnson wrong ten years ago? That is a hard conundrum for the republican party."

General Grant never made out very well in his issue of veracity with graving men. There is some curiosity now to see how he will fare in his controversy with two dead men.—Philadelphia Times.

Grant is engaged in the congenial business of endeavoring to stigmatize a dead man. He says that Sumner was an habitual liar. A man now dead said the same thing of Grant and proved it. That was Andy Johnson.—Chicago Times.

Hugo attended Thiers' funeral, tho for 40 years there had been a coolness between them, so that when they met at the academy they bowed but did not speak. In 1830 they happened to be discussing 1793 from different standpoints. "Bah, you can never have read the 'History of the Revolution,'" said Thiers. "I never did yours," said Hugo, and they parted.

Terre Haute Express. Mr. Jefferson's funeral was held at the opera house last night under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association. It is at once the most glowing and the most just tribute to the great man that has yet been uttered. To all but the most elaborate students of the life and character of Jefferson the lecture is a great surprise. Most men of intelligence are apt to think that they have a fair understanding of the great democrat, but Mr. Voorhees lights up his character in such a way as to make it fresh and interesting beyond the anticipation of those who would expect much of our greatest orator. Every part of the lecture shows careful preparation and elaborate work.

Dooten Differ.
So far as I have been able to judge the Southern people were as enthusiastic and joyous to the representative of the government as any I found that the correct and true sentiment and desire of the people was to return to former friendship and good feeling with all sections, and that the sentiment in the Southern States was identical with that of the New England States.—R. B. Hayes, Sept. 25th.

"They will not be simply satisfied with pensioning the rebel soldier, but demand pay for loss and damage to property." That the South is a whit more loyal to-day than in 1861 we do not believe.—Duncan McArthur Williams, Sept. 27.

An old negro cook says: "Sass is powerful good in everything but children. Dey needs some oder kind of dressin'."

that are in demand and that civilized people must use, whether the times be flush or dull, business is at ebb or flow, or money is plentiful or scarce. No attempt was made to secure frivolous novelties in the selection of my

Stock of Goods

FOR THE

Spring and Summer

trade of 1877 in Jasper county, but an eye was trained to the choosing of articles whose would recommend them to a community that is anxious to adapt themselves to the circumstances which now surround everybody in the United States. But this did not prevent the purchase of a stock that will compare favorably in point of beauty with anything to be found in this market, while of the fabrics must necessarily recommend them in an especial manner to people of judgment, prudence and economical desires.

No special enumeration of the articles comprising this new stock is deemed necessary from the fact that I deal in all articles usually found in
