

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

A telegram from El Aladja in Asia, reports a six-hours' battle near Tukhia, in which the Russians, in their dash to Tukhia, accounts, were beaten by the Chinese.

Russia is rapidly armamenting the ranks of the Russo-Bomanian army. The total strength of the invaders in Bulgaria, including all the reinforcements, is only 230,000.

Russia has agreed to pay Servia 1,000,000 rubles a month from the time the Servian army assumes the offensive.

A dispatch from the Russian headquarters on the Danube says the Czarowaz has declared it impossible to winter his army in Bulgaria unless Rostchuk or some other fortress previously surrendered.

The sentence of death passed on the Gees-hoffs, the English merchants at Philippopolis, has been commuted to one of exile.

The Hungarians have made a hostile incursion into Romania.

Turkish reports from Schipka represent military operations as entirely suspended by the weather.

Intelligence from Biels states that Strelman's army is decimated by typhus.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Advice from the City of Mexico report that the Mexican Congress has authorized the Government to expend $300,000 in the construction of a factory for breech-loading arms. The Government has contracted for $200,000 worth of Remington arms. The Government has ordered the Collector of Customs at Vera Cruz to remit monthly to the United States $25,000 on account of the payment of the American debt."

D. Spencer, the absecding President of the collapsed State Savings Bank of Chicago, is living in Paris.

In order to check the outflow of gold to America the Bank of England has raised the price of its gold eagles a half-penny.

The Spanish Government has paid the American Minister at Madrid $570,000 on account of claims for losses incurred by American citizens in Cuba through the revolution.

Another terrible explosion has occurred in Finsashire, Eng., causing the death of forty miners.

Henry Meiggs, the railroad-building millionaire of the Andes, is dead.

An American named Beddo took a conspicuous part in the electoral contest in France, and has been expelled from the country by order of the Government.

A Paris telegram says that "Gambetta has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $800 for placarding his recent address to the electors of his arrondissement. The printer of the address was sentenced to fifteen days' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $400."

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

East.

The statement of William M. Tweed, submitted a short time ago to Attorney General Fauchald, is made public, and contains the names of twenty-one Senators paid for votes of silence.

Col. Forney has sold his paper, the Philadelphia Press, to Col. W. W. Nevin. The price paid was $180,000.

The remains of the late Gen. Custer were interred in the cemetery at West Point, on the 11th inst.

One of the heaviest banks in New York is reported to have just taken out $2,500,000 of circulating notes. This move will necessitate the retirement of $1,900,000 in greenbacks. This is said to be part of a scheme on the part of the New York banks for the contraction of the currency.

Gilman, the swindling New York insurance broker, has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

New York has raised $100,000 to defray the expenses of transporting that need other of Cleopatra's to this country, the Rhenish of Egypt having agreed to donate it to any American city that would take it off its hands.

West.

The business part of the town of Vacaville, Solano county, Cal., has been swept away by fire. Loss, $100,000.

A singularly horrible tragedy was enacted in a Chicago hotel a few days ago. A man, J. M. Glazier, a well-known lawyer, married a married woman, the wife of one Bell, with whom he had been continually intimate, by taking her throat, and then ended his own life by the same means.

The Kansas City Times states that grave doubts exist as to the guilt of Joel Collins, who was recently killed as one of the Pacific Robbers, and his father, a wealthy citizen of Dallas, Texas, has employed counsel to investigate the matter. It is claimed that Collins could not have been present at the train robbery, that he was returning from the Black Hills, where he had sold a drove of cattle for $20,000, and his conduct when captured is accounted for on the hypothesis that he supposed he had fallen in the hands of robbers, and was determined to resist to the end.

Dan O'Hara, a prominent citizen and leading Democratic politician of Chicago, is dead.

James Berry, supposed to be one of the Union Pacific train robbers, has been arrested in California by Mr. Moore.

The Milwaukee papers report the mysterious disappearance from that city, where he has resided for a year or two, of John M. Blancher, Attorney General of the United States under President Johnson. His mental faculties have been seriously impaired of late.

South.

Colored Congressmen, some of South Carolina, has been indicted for bribery by a Colored Grand Jury.

The Mayor of the fever-stricken city of Fernandina, Fla., has addressed a pitiful appeal to the people of the Northern cities for aid.

Internal Revenue Collector Mott and six deputies lately arrested two illicit distillers and seized a large quantity of whisky in Burke county, N. C. While the revenue officers were descending a mountain with their booty they were constantly assailed by a party armed with rifles, and all but one wounded.

The Odd Fellows' Hall at Little Rock, Ark., one of the finest buildings in the State, has been destroyed by fire. Loss heavy.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Attorney General Devens wants an appropriation of $25,000 to cover the deficiency in his department during the past fiscal year.

The commission appointed to investigate the origin of the Patent Office fire very unanimously agree that the fire was not the work of an incendiary.

The demand by business men for silver currency seems to be increasing. The Treasury Department the other day received a telegram from a prominent firm in New York, offering to pay greenbacks to the amount of $30,000 for so much silver coin. The department replied that the Government could not spare so large a sum in silver.

The Democratic Sentinel

JAS. W. McEWEN, Editor.

"A Firm Adherence to Correct Principles."

$1.50 per Annum.

VOLUME I.

RENSSELAER, JASPER COUNTY, INDIANA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1877.

NUMBER 36.

The President has accepted an invitation to attend the Virginia State Fair on Oct. 30.

The President and several members of the Cabinet attended the Maryland Fair, at Frederick, last week.

An important decision has been rendered by Secretary Schurz, which confirms the title to their lands of many thousands of settlers on the line of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, and firmly fixes them in the possession of the invaders in Georgia, including all the reinforcements, is only 230,000.

Russia has agreed to pay Servia 1,000,000 rubles a month from the time the Servian army assumes the offensive.

A dispatch from the Russian headquarters on the Danube says the Czarowaz has declared it impossible to winter his army in Bulgaria unless Rostchuk or some other fortress previously surrendered.

The sentence of death passed on the Gees-hoffs, the English merchants at Philippopolis, has been commuted to one of exile.

Turkish reports from Schipka represent military operations as entirely suspended by the weather.

Intelligence from Biels states that Strelman's army is decimated by typhus.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Advice from the City of Mexico report that the Mexican Congress has authorized the Government to expend $300,000 in the construction of a factory for breech-loading arms. The Government has contracted for $200,000 worth of Remington arms. The Government has ordered the Collector of Customs at Vera Cruz to remit monthly to the United States $25,000 on account of the payment of the American debt."

D. Spencer, the absecding President of the collapsed State Savings Bank of Chicago, is living in Paris.

In order to check the outflow of gold to America the Bank of England has raised the price of its gold eagles a half-penny.

The Spanish Government has paid the American Minister at Madrid $570,000 on account of claims for losses incurred by American citizens in Cuba through the revolution.

Another terrible explosion has occurred in Finsashire, Eng., causing the death of forty miners.

Henry Meiggs, the railroad-building millionaire of the Andes, is dead.

An American named Beddo took a conspicuous part in the electoral contest in France, and has been expelled from the country by order of the Government.

A Paris telegram says that "Gambetta has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $800 for placarding his recent address to the electors of his arrondissement. The printer of the address was sentenced to fifteen days' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $400."

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

East.

The statement of William M. Tweed, submitted a short time ago to Attorney General Fauchald, is made public, and contains the names of twenty-one Senators paid for votes of silence.

Col. Forney has sold his paper, the Philadelphia Press, to Col. W. W. Nevin. The price paid was $180,000.

The remains of the late Gen. Custer were interred in the cemetery at West Point, on the 11th inst.

One of the heaviest banks in New York is reported to have just taken out $2,500,000 of circulating notes. This move will necessitate the retirement of $1,900,000 in greenbacks. This is said to be part of a scheme on the part of the New York banks for the contraction of the currency.

Gilman, the swindling New York insurance broker, has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

New York has raised $100,000 to defray the expenses of transporting that need other of Cleopatra's to this country, the Rhenish of Egypt having agreed to donate it to any American city that would take it off its hands.

West.

The business part of the town of Vacaville, Solano county, Cal., has been swept away by fire. Loss, $100,000.

A singularly horrible tragedy was enacted in a Chicago hotel a few days ago. A man, J. M. Glazier, a well-known lawyer, married a married woman, the wife of one Bell, with whom he had been continually intimate, by taking her throat, and then ended his own life by the same means.

The Kansas City Times states that grave doubts exist as to the guilt of Joel Collins, who was recently killed as one of the Pacific Robbers, and his father, a wealthy citizen of Dallas, Texas, has employed counsel to investigate the matter. It is claimed that Collins could not have been present at the train robbery, that he was returning from the Black Hills, where he had sold a drove of cattle for $20,000, and his conduct when captured is accounted for on the hypothesis that he supposed he had fallen in the hands of robbers, and was determined to resist to the end.

Dan O'Hara, a prominent citizen and leading Democratic politician of Chicago, is dead.

James Berry, supposed to be one of the Union Pacific train robbers, has been arrested in California by Mr. Moore.

The Milwaukee papers report the mysterious disappearance from that city, where he has resided for a year or two, of John M. Blancher, Attorney General of the United States under President Johnson. His mental faculties have been seriously impaired of late.

South.

Colored Congressmen, some of South Carolina, has been indicted for bribery by a Colored Grand Jury.

The Mayor of the fever-stricken city of Fernandina, Fla., has addressed a pitiful appeal to the people of the Northern cities for aid.

Internal Revenue Collector Mott and six deputies lately arrested two illicit distillers and seized a large quantity of whisky in Burke county, N. C. While the revenue officers were descending a mountain with their booty they were constantly assailed by a party armed with rifles, and all but one wounded.

The Odd Fellows' Hall at Little Rock, Ark., one of the finest buildings in the State, has been destroyed by fire. Loss heavy.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Attorney General Devens wants an appropriation of $25,000 to cover the deficiency in his department during the past fiscal year.

The commission appointed to investigate the origin of the Patent Office fire very unanimously agree that the fire was not the work of an incendiary.

The demand by business men for silver currency seems to be increasing. The Treasury Department the other day received a telegram from a prominent firm in New York, offering to pay greenbacks to the amount of $30,000 for so much silver coin. The department replied that the Government could not spare so large a sum in silver.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One copy one year..... $1.50
One copy six months..... 1.00
One copy three months..... 50
*Advertising rates on application.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

A telegram from El Aladja in Asia, reports a six-hours' battle near Tukhia, in which the Russians, in their dash to Tukhia, accounts, were beaten by the Chinese.

Russia is rapidly armamenting the ranks of the Russo-Bomanian army. The total strength of the invaders in Bulgaria, including all the reinforcements, is only 230,000.

Russia has agreed to pay Servia 1,000,000 rubles a month from the time the Servian army assumes the offensive.

A dispatch from the Russian headquarters on the Danube says the Czarowaz has declared it impossible to winter his army in Bulgaria unless Rostchuk or some other fortress previously surrendered.

The sentence of death passed on the Gees-hoffs, the English merchants at Philippopolis, has been commuted to one of exile.

Turkish reports from Schipka represent military operations as entirely suspended by the weather.

Intelligence from Biels states that Strelman's army is decimated by typhus.

General news from the rest of the world.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One copy one year..... $1.50
One copy six months..... 1.00
One copy three months..... 50
*Advertising rates on application.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

A telegram from El Aladja in Asia, reports a six-hours' battle near Tukhia, in which the Russians, in their dash to Tukhia, accounts, were beaten by the Chinese.

Russia is rapidly armamenting the ranks of the Russo-Bomanian army. The total strength of the invaders in Bulgaria, including all the reinforcements, is only 230,000.

Russia has agreed to pay Servia 1,000,000 rubles a month from the time the Servian army assumes the offensive.

A dispatch from the Russian headquarters on the Danube says the Czarowaz has declared it impossible to winter his army in Bulgaria unless Rostchuk or some other fortress previously surrendered.

The sentence of death passed on the Gees-hoffs, the English merchants at Philippopolis, has been commuted to one of exile.

Turkish reports from Schipka represent military operations as entirely suspended by the weather.

Intelligence from Biels states that Strelman's army is decimated by typhus.

General news from the rest of the world.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One copy one year..... $1.50
One copy six months..... 1.00
One copy three months..... 50
*Advertising rates on application.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

A telegram from El Aladja in Asia, reports a six-hours' battle near Tukhia, in which the Russians, in their dash to Tukhia, accounts, were beaten by the Chinese.

Russia is rapidly armamenting the ranks of the Russo-Bomanian army. The total strength of the invaders in Bulgaria, including all the reinforcements, is only 230,000.

Russia has agreed to pay Servia 1,000,000 rubles a month from the time the Servian army assumes the offensive.

A dispatch from the Russian headquarters on the Danube says the Czarowaz has declared it impossible to winter his army in Bulgaria unless Rostchuk or some other fortress previously surrendered.