FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1878.

Democratic State Ticket.

SECRETARY OF STATE,
JOHN G. SHANKLIN, of Vanderburgh.

ADJUTANT GENERAL,
MAHON D. MANSION, of Montgomery.

TREASURER OF STATE,
WILLIAM FLEMING, of Allen.

ATTORNEY GENERAL,
THOMAS W. WOOLLEN, of Johnson.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
JAMES H. SMART, of Allen.

County Convention.

All persons, irrespective of party affiliations, who are in favor of repeal of the resumption law; in favor of the remonetization of silver; in favor of the retirement of the national currency and substitution thereof of legal tender treasury notes; in favor of an economical administration of governmental affairs, and who are opposed to the extravagant and useless expenditure of money as has been and is being done by the radical republican party in the management of the government are respectfully and cordially invited to be present and unite in the organization of a County Central Committee for Jasper county, to be held at the Court House, in Rensselaer, on SATURDAY, MARCH 2d, 1878.

C. A. EDMONDS, Chairman.
IRA W. YEOMAN, Secretary.

The Silver Bill has been passed over Hayes' veto!

At the request of a number of our readers who desire an extra copy of the Democratic platform we republish it to-day.

The Monticello Herald says that Gov. Morton at one time desired Democratic Senators to point out one single good act emanating from that party in thirty years, and not one responded. Very well, what would you do about it? It was a foolish question, and they answered a fool according to his folly—with silent pity and contempt.

HOW THEY HOWL!
Remonstrate Union.

Will you walk into my parlor?
Capt. Edmonds and Ira W. Yeoman having arrived at the conclusion that anybody is good enough to vote the Democratic ticket issue the following manifest:

Then follows the call for a County Convention, decided upon and directed by a meeting of citizens at which Capt. Edmonds was chairman and Ira W. Yeoman secretary. A few years ago when Mr. James was badly afflicted with "clerkship on the brain" he was very willing, ay, anxious, to enter any parlor which presented a prospect of success. He then indulged and advocated the financial views held by those who composed the meeting that issued the "manifesto" of the clerkship proved a "will-o-the-wisp" to him, and soon he ceased to follow, and like the saw returned to his wallow. Those who unite and act with the Convention tomorrow will do so from different motives than those which actuated Bro. James.

The Monticello Herald concludes an article in its issue of this week with the following execrations:

"We opine there are very few greenback men who will be taken by this last exceedingly tame profession emanating from Indiana Democracy. Don't go to the Democratic party for a friend to the greenback," etc., etc.

Oh, no! The Herald would advise you to act with the party which has controlled the legislation of the country for the past sixteen years and is and must be held responsible for the distress that now prevails throughout the land. It would have you give your support to the party whose every act has been in the interest of shillings and pence, and to your hurt. It would have the independent citizen uphold the hands of those who break solemn contracts in the interest of the money changers, and made payable in coin bonds which of right should be paid in currency—those who have debased and depreciated silver, constitutional coin—those who contract the currency and give nothing to circulate in its stead. You have asked for bread and they gave you a stone!

In view of the steady withdrawal of the greenback currency, and no other circulation provided for, the day designated by radical legislation for resumption drawing nigh, it will be an act of wisdom on the part of those who agree with the Democracy in financial affairs to make no halt now—time is too short! A united and vigorous effort will insure success.

Mr. Voorrees, in his great speech, in all honesty and candor said:

"I was among those who doubted our right to issue it, (the greenback), but experience has shown it the best money, all things considered, that ever circulated on American soil."

In this view—with a vast public debt of billions to be paid, and a decided insufficiency of the precious metals—the Democracy, and all independent citizens, concur.

Let those whose present self-interest lead them to oppose the interests of the many to the benefit of the few, sneeringly and jeeringly taunt the independent with "Walk into my parlor." It will be of no avail.

"The American laborer must make up his mind henceforth not to be so much better off than the European laborer. Men must be content to work for low wages. . . . In this way the workingman will be nearer to that station in life to which he has been called by God to call him."—Shyleck Organ,

Sketches of the Candidates.

HON. JOHN G. SHANKLIN.

Mr. John G. Shanklin is a native of Indiana, having been born in Evansville. His father, the late John Shanklin, Esq., was a native of Donnell county, Ireland, and settled in Evansville about 55 years ago. He was engaged in active and successful business for half a century, and left a large landed estate as the fruits of an honorable career. Mr. John G. Shanklin is one of a family of five children, but three of whom, he and his brother and sister, who is the wife of John M. Harrison, justice of the supreme court of the United States, are now living. After a preparatory course in the public schools of Evansville Mr. Shanklin entered Kenyon college in 1859, graduating in 1862. On returning home he began the practice of law, and in 1863 was appointed prosecuting attorney of the First judicial district, which position he held for 18 months. He continued the practice of his profession until 1866, when his health being somewhat impaired, he went abroad, and after a few months travel on the continent, he entered the law department of Berlin university, Germany, in 1867. After a stay of three and a half years, the greater part of which was spent in Germany, he returned home and joined his brother George W. Shanklin in the publication of the Evansville Daily Courier. By which paper he is now the editor. In 1876, when there was a republican majority in Vanderburgh county of nearly one thousand, he accepted the nomination for representative in the legislature, unanimously tendered him, and fled his ticket by two hundred votes against Hon. William Hellman, a distinguished German citizen of Evansville, and a popular republican in southern Indiana. Since then he has given his whole attention to the editorial department of the Courier, a paper of large influence in that portion of the State.

HON. MAHON DICKSON MANSION.

Gen. Mansion was born at Piqua, Ohio, February 20, 1820, and is now 58 years of age on the day of his nomination for auditor of state. He has been in the state of Indiana for 36 years, during all of which time he has lived in Montgomery county. By profession he is a druggist. He was captain of company I, Fifth Indiana, in the Mexican war, and was at the city of Mexico with General Winfield Scott. He was a member of the Indiana legislature in 1851-2. He was afterwards a private, then captain, major and colonel of the Tenth Indiana Infantry in the rebellion, and served with distinction that he was appointed colonel of the regiment. He was with Gen. George B. McClellan in West Virginia, and was appointed brigadier general by Abraham Lincoln in 1862. He was wounded three times while in the service of his country, and was a member of the Twenty-third army corps, during the campaign before Knoxville, Tennessee. He was nominated as the democratic candidate for secretary of state by acclamation in 1866, and for congress in 1868, against Godlove S. Orth, of Lafayette. In the latter race he was only beaten by about 400 votes in a district which was republican by 2,000 votes. He was a candidate in 1870, and was elected by 400 majority, his opponent being General Lew Wallace. He was defeated for the same office by Judge Cason, of Boone county, by 107 votes. In 1872 he has been a member of the democratic state committee for about four years, during three years of which time he has been chairman, and he has conducted the campaign in such a manner as to stamp him as the best political manager in the state. He has always been a democrat, and is a gentleman of firm integrity of principle, and will make a good candidate.

HON. WILLIAM FLEMING.

William Fleming, the nominee for treasurer of state, is 49 years of age. He was born in Ireland, and has resided in Allen county for more than 30 years, during the greater part of which time he has been the head and front of the democratic party, not only in that county, but in his district and section of the state. He is a man of high standing and undoubted integrity, and will furnish a large part of the brains of the ticket. For executive ability, capacity for organization and political power there is not probably his superior in the state of Indiana. He will be perceptibly felt in the campaign.

His district and his section of the state came to the city solid in his favor. The delegation of workers in his behalf were men of standing, distinction, judgment, and influence, and were warmly enlisted in his behalf.

Mr. Fleming has served two terms as sheriff and two terms as clerk of his county, having been elected the last time in 1866, since which time he has not been a candidate for office. His record is without spot or blemish. He commenced life as a stone-cutter, and by industry, economy and the exercise of sound judgment has raised himself to a position of respectability and a handsome competency. He is in full accord with the sentiments of the people upon the important questions that will be presented in the coming campaign, especially upon the financial question. His means are invested entirely in large manufacturing interest and in real estate in Fort Wayne. In the fall of 1875 he assumed control of the Fort Wayne Sentinel, which had been prior to that time an intensely hard money organ. From the time he took charge of the paper its policy was changed, and it has been since advocated the repeal of the resumption act, and has favored the remonetization of silver since that question has been raised.

The feeling is quite general among the democracy that the nomination of Mr. Fleming will aid materially in securing the next legislature, and thereby insure the redistricting of the state and the election of a United States senator. His nomination gives general satisfaction, and his friends assert that he will carry his own county by at least 4,500 majority, since among the republicans, notwithstanding the fact that he has always fought them with all his might.

His nomination is a deserved recognition of his services to his party, of the high democratic standing of his county, and of his peculiar fitness for the office.

HON. THOMAS W. WOOLLEN.

Judge Woollen, the nominee for attorney general, is a resident of Frankfort, in Johnson county. He was born in Dorchester county, Maryland, in 1830, and emigrated to Indiana in 1848. He located at Madison, a city which has probably produced more prominent men than any other in the state. His first employment was as a deputy clerk of the Jefferson circuit court. Subsequently he was deputy treasurer of his county, and had the entire control of the office for two years. In 1864 he was nominated by his party for treasurer of the county, but was swept down by the know nothing avalanche of that year. After his defeat for treasurer Judge Woollen studied law, and in 1866 removed to Vernon, in Jennings county, and commenced the practice of his profession. He remained at Vernon but a short time, when he removed to Frankfort, and with the exception of a few months, he has since resided there. He is a native of Maryland, and in 1860 he was elected to the legislature from that state. He was defeated by General C. C. Johnson, of the same county. He was elected to the legislature from Johnson county in 1862, and was re-elected in 1864. He was elected to the legislature from Johnson county in 1866, and was re-elected in 1868. He was elected to the legislature from Johnson county in 1870, and was re-elected in 1872. He was elected to the legislature from Johnson county in 1874, and was re-elected in 1876.
