

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

FOREIGN NEWS

Queen Mercedes, of Spain, is so ill that her condition causes much anxiety.

St. Petersburg's advice is to the effect that the Russians are greatly annoyed at the agreement of the congress that the Turks may garrison the Balkan passes. In St. Petersburg Schonvalouf is seriously blamed for the abandonment of some of the important fruits of the war.

Berlin correspondent of the London Times says: "A Beaconsfield informed Bismarck with extraordinary energy on the question of fortifying the Balkan passes and garrisoning them with Turks. England would not hesitate a moment, and that he would quit Berlin if her demands were unsatisfactory."

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

East.

The extensive pork-packing establishment of Charles H. North & Co., near Boston, has been destroyed by fire. Loss about $75,000.

Hon. T. J. Quinn, Member of Congress from the Albany (N. Y.) District, is dead.

William Vermilye, founder of the banking house of Vermilye & Co., New York, is dead.

An expedition for the recovery of the relics of Sir John Franklin sailed from New York the other day.

The celebration of the privations borne by Revolutionary patriots at Valley Forge was held near Norristown, Pa., on the 19th of June.

Monte A. Wheelock, who has been widely known for more than twenty years as President of the New York Stock Exchange, committed suicide, the other day, by shooting himself in the head.

West.

Advice from the West report that Gen. Howard, at the head of a well-organized force, had commenced a forward movement against the hostile Indians in Idaho. The latter number about 700, including Bannocks, Nez Perces, Shoshones and Pintos.

Akron, Ohio, has had a destructive fire. The Academy of Music building and several stores were burned, involving a loss of about $150,000.

Gen. Harrison will at once institute suit for damages against the Ohio and Miami Medical Colleges at Cincinnati and the Army Arbor College, Michigan, in $10,000 each, for damages in connection with the destruction of the body of Scott Harrison, his father, and his friend, young Davis.

George Sherry and Jeremiah Connolly were arrested at Chicago, on the 21st of June, for the murder of Hugh McConville, in January last. On the same day Perry Bowsher was executed at Chillicothe, Ohio, for the murder of an old man and woman, named Moye, and Charles Burns was hanged at Paris, Ill., for the murder of Elijah Birdwell, in October last.

About 200 tramps boarded a freight train in the Wabash road, at Jacksonville, Ill., on June 21, saying they intended to ride, as they had had all the walking they wanted. Every possible device was employed to get them off the train, but to no purpose. The tramps were determined to stay on, rather than be compelled to give up to copy with the mob. The consequence was that the tramps stayed on the train until it reached Quincy, where they got off and scattered throughout the city, a number of them being arrested during the night by the police. The train about Quincy is reported to be swarming with tramps, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and the Wabash roads are reported by passengers to be lined with them for miles.

The people of Rockford, Ill., were recently treated to a dose of "supposition" journalism after the style affected by sensational papers. They were intensely agitated by the publication in a local sheet of an atrocious hoax, in which the most fearful possibilities of a general Communistic uprising throughout America were served up as actual occurrences.

South.

Two men who were in custody on the charge of having outraged the person of Mrs. Graves, living near Mitchell, Tenn., on the 16th of May last, were taken from jail last week and lynched by a large body of armed men.

Edward H. Castley was executed at Fredericksburg, Md., June 21, for the murder of his son, Solomon Castley, in April, 1877. Jacob Lewis (colored) was hanged the same day at Little Rock, Ark.

From accounts received by way of Galveston it appears that Gen. Mackenzie carried matters with a high hand in his recent expedition into Mexico at the head of a column of United States troops. He was confined by Col. Valdez, the latter having orders to repel the invasion, but he was informed that he must get his Mexican out of the way in a certain time or they would be fired upon. The Mexicans, not being strong enough to resist, avoided a collision, and the expedition is reported to have been as far as all their own way. The less so far as the making of captures was concerned.

POLITICAL.

The Maine Democratic Convention was held at Portland on the 18th of June. Alonzo Garcelon was nominated for Governor. The platform condemns any further issue of Government bonds whereby equal taxation with other property of the country is avoided, favors the gradual substitution of greenbacks for national bank-bills, and approves of the investigation by Congress into the alleged Presidential election frauds.

The Republican State Convention of Iowa was held at Des Moines on June 19. Ex-Senator Wright presided, and ex-Congressman James F. Wilson was Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. J. A. T. Hull was nominated for Secretary of State. B. R. Sherman for Auditor. George W. Bemis for Treasurer. J. K. Powers for Register of the Land Office. J. J. McKinnon for Attorney General. J. H. Rothrock for Supreme Judge. John S. Burnell for Supreme Court Reporter. E. J. Holmes for Clerk of the Supreme Court. The platform condemns the election of Lincoln.

By the combined working of the National and State governments under their respective constitutions, the rights of every citizen should be secured at home and protected abroad, and the common welfare promoted. Any failure on the part of the National or State governments to use every constitutional power to protect their citizens, both at home and abroad, is a criminal neglect of their highest obligation.

That it is not only the right but the duty of every good citizen, at the party caucuses, in the party conventions, and at the polls, to use his best efforts to secure the nomination and election of

The Democratic Sentinel

"A Firm Adherence to Correct Principles."

$1.50 per Annum

JAS W. McEWEN, Editor.

VOLUME II.

RENSSELAER, JASPER COUNTY, INDIANA, FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1878.

NUMBER 20.

10¢

* Advertising rates on application.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

FOREIGN NEWS

Queen Mercedes, of Spain, is so ill that her condition causes much anxiety.

St. Petersburg's advice is to the effect that the Russians are greatly annoyed at the agreement of the congress that the Turks may garrison the Balkan passes. In St. Petersburg Schonvalouf is seriously blamed for the abandonment of some of the important fruits of the war.

Berlin correspondent of the London Times says: "A Beaconsfield informed Bismarck with extraordinary energy on the question of fortifying the Balkan passes and garrisoning them with Turks. England would not hesitate a moment, and that he would quit Berlin if her demands were unsatisfactory."

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

East.

The extensive pork-packing establishment of Charles H. North & Co., near Boston, has been destroyed by fire. Loss about $75,000.

Hon. T. J. Quinn, Member of Congress from the Albany (N. Y.) District, is dead.

William Vermilye, founder of the banking house of Vermilye & Co., New York, is dead.

An expedition for the recovery of the relics of Sir John Franklin sailed from New York the other day.

The celebration of the privations borne by Revolutionary patriots at Valley Forge was held near Norristown, Pa., on the 19th of June.

Monte A. Wheelock, who has been widely known for more than twenty years as President of the New York Stock Exchange, committed suicide, the other day, by shooting himself in the head.

West.

Advice from the West report that Gen. Howard, at the head of a well-organized force, had commenced a forward movement against the hostile Indians in Idaho. The latter number about 700, including Bannocks, Nez Perces, Shoshones and Pintos.

Akron, Ohio, has had a destructive fire. The Academy of Music building and several stores were burned, involving a loss of about $150,000.

Gen. Harrison will at once institute suit for damages against the Ohio and Miami Medical Colleges at Cincinnati and the Army Arbor College, Michigan, in $10,000 each, for damages in connection with the destruction of the body of Scott Harrison, his father, and his friend, young Davis.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of crooked whisky-makers somewhere in the wilds of Alabama.

Attorney General Devens, last week, sent to Congress an answer to the House resolution calling for a statement of the pardons issued since March 4, 1877. The whole number up to May 20 is 284. No copies of papers relative to the pardons are sent in as called for.

Gen. Devens, in his letter to the Senate, states that he had received the same, and that, after it was written, she picked it from the table, and closed it, and delivered it to Weber. She declared that Sherman knew nothing of the existence of the letter.

WASHINGTON.

Orders have been issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau for the enlisting of a posse, to be employed in hunting down a number of