Hon. A. L. Osborn, of Laporte, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, has been in Rensselaer for some days.

Ralph Fendig has just received a large and select stock of Ready-made Clothing which he offers at a very small advance on first cost.

Norman Scott, Sheriff of Pulaski county, died very suddenly at the supper table, while in Star City, last Saturday. Supposed from heart disease.

Ralph Fendig is agent for the justly celebrated Howe Sewing Machine. He invites all who intend procuring a machine to examine these before making a purchase.

Senator Winterbotham, of Michigan City, was in town Wednesday evening. Mr. W. is a probable candidate for Congress, is a man of considerable means, to which Horace attaches some importance.

A special invitation is extended to the ladies to call and examine the stock of Dress Goods just received at Leopold's. They are the handsomest in the market, and sold very low for cash.

Remington Times: Our tombstone man, Wm. Shepherd, received the contract for furnishing granite monuments for the late Isaac Reynolds, of Monticello. His competitors were from Lafayette and Logansport. Bill scooped them both.

"Standard goods, small profits and quick sales" is Ralph Fendig's motto. Call and examine his stock and prices before going elsewhere.

Mrs. Irwin and her sister, Miss Della White, of Springfield, Ohio, are visiting families of Dr. Ira C. Kelley and Mr. T. P. Wright.

To keep cool is the question that bothers us most just now, and by buying a good pair of linen pants, a white vest and a summer coat, at the Narrow Gauge One Price Clothing Store, one can come out solving the problem.

C. M. & Geo. Johnson, formerly of this county, are engaged in the publication of the Roanok Clarion, at Roanok, Wabash county, Indiana. It makes a very creditable appearance, and we wish the brothers success.

SPECIAL CASES:

How Mr. Hayes has provided for the Ballot Thieves—A Roster of Criminals in Office as Pay for Crime.

"Appoint this gentleman (James E. Anderson) to a Consulate in a warm climate. This is a special case.—R. B. H."

Of course Mr. Hayes knew nothing of the friends that placed him in the Presidential seat, nor had he the least personal acquaintance with the individuals who perpetrated them, and yet how many of them he has made "special cases" of.

Mr. Hayes, who divided the swag among the Florida thieves, was made Minister to France.

Mr. Stoughton, who "conferred" with Anderson and other Louisiana culprits was made Minister to Russia.

Mr. Kasson, who was one of the visiting statesmen, and helped steal the Florida vote, was made Minister to Austria.

Mr. McLean, who confesses that he helped steal the Florida vote was made Chief Justice of New Mexico.

Mr. Dennis, who confesses to the frauds that made it possible for McLean to steal the Florida vote, was appointed on the special request of Hayes, which was "written with a blue pencil," a special Treasury agent.

Gov. Stearns, who held the fort while Cowgill and McLean stole the Florida vote, was made one of the Hot Springs Commissioners.

Mr. Cowgill who completed the theft of the Florida vote, was made U. S. Marshal.

Thus Hayes, Kasson, McLean, Dennis, Stearns and Cowgill, through and by whom the four votes of Florida were stolen from President Tilden, have all been recognized by Mr. Hayes as "special cases," and rewarded accordingly.

Wm. Pitt Kellogg, for helping steal the vote of Louisiana by braucing up the Returning Board and such Supervisors as Anderson, received a seat in the Senate, to which he had no title, through the single vote of Stanley Matthews, the friend and representative of Mr. Hayes.

S. B. Packard, who helped Kellogg steal the Louisiana vote, received the biggest consulate in Europe.

Geo. L. Smith, who forged and falsified the returns of De Soto parish, was made collector of New Orleans.

Jack Wharton, who assisted, was made Marshal of New Orleans.

Madison Wells, who was one of the thieves whom Kellogg brauced up, was given the office of Surveyor of the Port.

Tom Anderson, who was another Returning Board thief, was kept in office as Acting Collector, even after his conviction of forgery and theft.—This was a very special case.

Charles W. Kenner, the third Returning Board thief, was made Naval Officer, Kenner, the fourth and last Returning Board thief, perjurer and forger, was given a place in the Custom House under Principal Thief Anderson.

Gen. John M. Harlan, who was one of the referees in the Peliciana, Anderson case, was made Judge of the U. S. Supreme Court.

George A. Sheridan, for helping to keep the Returning Board thieves stiff, was transplanted to Washington and made Recorder of Deeds.

Don Weber, who, at the request of John Sherman, made the vote of West Virginia, was promised in writing a consulate, but was killed before he could be appointed.

J. E. Anderson for complying with John Sherman's request to the extent of signing a protest he knew to be false, and which was afterwards found to the extent necessary to steal the parish of East Feliciana, was personally and in writing recommended by Hayes for "a consulate in a warm climate."

A score of clerks, supervisors, constables and others who helped forge or cover up others' forgeries, have all been provided for, but these we have enumerated as "Special Cases." Still we have no doubt that Mr. Hayes was perfectly innocent, and that these appointments were all accidents.

Don't fail to go to C. C. Starr's new store for anything you want in the Grocery or Queensware line, and examine his goods and prices before making your purchases. Standard goods and low prices, for cash, is his motto.

W. S. Orwin the Jeweller, on Monday took his departure for a trip to Rush county. He will be absent about ten days and will take in Indianapolis, Logansport and other points on the route.

From the Wisconsin Greenbacker.

HONEST MEN FOR OFFICE.

A private letter from our old home in Indiana informs us that our friend and neighbor, George Majors, is a candidate for the State Senate.

He has already filled the position of Senator, being also, the only member of the Indiana legislature who was elected squarely on the Greenback issue. He filled the position of Senator well and faithfully, and has the entire confidence of the voters who elected him. His speech in the Senate of Indiana during the session of 1876-7 was an able one, and has become one of our campaign documents. Mr. Majors is an honest farmer, whose life has been familiar to us for almost forty years. As an enterprising, hard-working tiller of the soil, a true friend, an upright citizen, and a faithful worker in the cause of religion and humanity, Indiana has not his superior. Indeed, Mr. Majors has an honesty such as the world seldom knows—a honesty all his neighbors willingly testify to. When this Republic shall elect men to official stations who possess the marked integrity which shines out from the life of George Majors, the nation will have started on a career of usefulness, such as eye hath not seen, nor has it entered into the heart of man to conceive. Our Indiana friends will do a wise act in returning Mr. Majors to the State Senate.

One of two young ladies of Altoona, Penna., recently visited Philadelphia, wrote back as follows: "We attended a great deal of attentiveness to the streets like other ladies, and held on our cloze. Nobody said nothing in a day which don't hold up their cloze, and the liar you holds 'em, the more attentiveness you attracts."

Gen. Butler's Crushing Rejoinder. Leicester (Pa.) Intelligence.

Mr. Butler makes an obviously crushing rejoinder to those who have said that the effect of the return to Mr. Hayes' title would be revolutionary and a Mexicanization of the Government. The charge was almost too silly to notice; and it is a complete refutation of the silly point out that fraud and force are the Mexican methods of obtaining supreme power in the State; and that the means by which Mr. Hayes ascended to power far more closely resembles the Mexican process than does the resort to a judicial interpretation of the law and the facts which we invoke for his deposition.
