

Democratic Sentinel.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1878.

Next week we will publish the official vote of the State.

The majority for Shanklin, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, is 14,140.

Address of the National Committee.

Headquarters of the National Central Committee.
RENSSELAER, IND., Oct. 14, 1878.
To the National of Jasper County:

We congratulate you on the result of the election in this county on Tuesday of last week, after one of the most hotly contested campaigns ever conducted in this county. We have done well. Two years ago Peter Cooper received but 80 votes, in this county, for President of the United States. At the recent election we cast 509 votes for the National candidate for Secretary of State, and 493 for Mr. Skinner, our nominee for Congress—a gain of over 600 per cent.

We elected our candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court, Charles H. Price, by 99 majority. In his own township, Carpenter, the home of his competitor, he received 41 votes over his opponent, Mr. James F. Irwin.

We elected our candidate for Auditor, Ezra C. Nowels by a majority of 62 votes; and he has a majority of 20 votes in Gilliam township, the home of B. F. Farls, his opponent.

We elected E. E. Rockwood Commissioner for the 3d district. In Carpenter township, the home of himself and competitor, Hon. Wm. B. Price, he received 52 more votes, and his majority in the county is 52.

James M. Nickel, our candidate for Sheriff, has a majority of 71 out of 111 votes cast in his own township, Hanging Grove; and is defeated by only 170 by his competitor, the present incumbent, who boasted of his ability to carry the county by 500.

Wm. E. Moore, our candidate for Treasurer, has a majority of 25 votes in his own, Hanging Grove, township, and of 5 in John, the home of his competitor, but is defeated by 129 in the county.

Hope B. Miller, our candidate for Recorder has a majority of 8 votes in Barkley township, where his competitor, James T. Abbott, claims residence, and leads but 18 votes of being elected.

Brunson W. Harrington, our candidate for Commissioner for the 1st district, carries the township by a majority of 32, and is defeated in the county by only 10 votes.

Charles P. Hopkins, our candidate for Surveyor is defeated by only 9 votes. He made a gallant fight for the whole ticket, and has the sincere thanks of the committee.

Samson Erwin, our candidate for Coroner, made a vigorous race against Norman Warner, the old republican war-horse, for the same position, and Jacks but 18 votes of an election.

When we consider the boasted claim by the republicans of 400 reliable majority, these results are really encouraging.

We have, too, elected Hon. George Major to the State Senate by 591 majority.

And Hon. Geo. H. Brown Representative by a majority of 481.

In States where elections have been held we have secured seven Congressmen, as follows: Maine, 2; Vermont, 1; Iowa, 2; Indiana, 1; West Virginia, 1, which is a large gain in the interest of the people and opposed to the policy of the money sharks.

After the smoke of the battle has cleared away, on carefully scanning the result, we have much to rejoice over. In this State we are agitating our voters to two years from 13,000 to about 40,000, and a corresponding increase in the other States.

The Committee send greeting to Hanging Grove, Jordan, Carpenter, Wheatfield, Kankakee and Gilliam townships, for the share they had in the noble work; and to the Nationals throughout the county for their efficient and vigorous work in making the campaign an aggressive one.

To the Democratic Sentinel, and the Democracy of the county many thanks are due for their efficient aid in the canvass.

And right here, too, we take advantage of the opportunity afforded and return thanks to James A. Burnham and James Welsh for their unceasing and efficient labors.

The mission of the National Party is to educate the people on the great financial questions that are agitating the minds of the people. For this purpose we urge Nationals to keep their armor on and not stop work, for there is a great struggle in the near future—the election of a President of the United States in 1880. Up, and continue at work! We look ahead to a day of complete triumph. Having put our hands to the plow we cannot look back. In the National lexicon there is no such word as fail. We must work! We are enlisted for the war. Every National should be at his post ready for duty so long as there is an enemy to fight. Be vigilant and positive—be kind and generous to opponents—and always be ready to give a reason for the faith which you possess. Circulate National documents—a sure way to make votes. A vote for the National party is a vote for the people.

THOMAS BOROUGHS,
Chairman.

Work upon the Indianapolis Delphi & Chicago railroad is progressing rapidly. The piers for the bridge across the Tippecanoe are completed, and the timbers for the superstructure are being placed upon the ground. The grading is about finished between Monticello and Pittsburg, and we have the word of Colonel Uoyman that track laying will commence at Monticello on the 5th of next month. Should the weather continue favorable, they expect to have the track complete to the west bank of Waabash by the 15th or 20th. The piers for the bridge across the Waabash are ready to receive the superstructure, and the approaches in an unfinished condition, so it will require but a short time to place the bridge in position. The grading from the city to the river is of but small moment, and we may confidently predict that our preparations for celebrating the completion of the narrow gauge to Delphi will be made before Christmas—Delphi Times.

Thomas A. Hendricks

(Franklin Herald "Democrat.")

To-day we have placed the name of this gentleman at the head of our columns as our candidate for no nomination by the next democratic national convention for president. In doing so we do not only announce our own choice, but we believe he is the choice of a large majority of the people of the United States. In Indiana a democratic party is for him to a man.—Mr. Hendricks is peculiarly well suited for the democratic candidate for president in 1880. His public record is without a blemish; his private character is without a stain. He lives in the bosom of the great west, the future seat of political power in this country. He is a citizen of Indiana, the most reliable democratic state in the Union. His position upon public questions is sound, and the country would have confidence in his wisdom and discretion. His enemies have sought to make the impression that he was non-committal on public questions; but those who have watched his course have seen that he has only been cautious in taking his positions and consistent in maintaining them. He does not embrace an idea to-day and reject it to-morrow. If the position which Mr. Hendricks announced on the financial question had been pursued by the government, thousands of victims of the unwise policy of Mr. Sherman would have been spared. Assuming that the time-honored principles of our fathers were correct, that gold and silver were the true measures of value, Mr. Hendricks could see that forced repudiation must strike hard at the labor and industry of the country, and he was opposed to it. While he desired to reach specie resumption in time as being the normal condition of all prosperous and enlightened nations, still he wanted to reach it in a way that would not destroy the debtor classes and impoverish labor. Instead of having it come as the storm or hurricane, leaving destruction and ruin in its train, he wanted to see it come as the gentle shower that should bring healing on its wings.

One of the best tests of capacity that can be applied to any man is whether he fills the position to which he may be called with ability and credit. No public man ever passed this ordeal better than Mr. Hendricks. In all positions he has ever filled, including his terms as senator and governor of Indiana, he has retired with the verdict on the part of the people that he had discharged his duties ably and well.

Such a man we present to the country as our candidate for president in 1880.

H. B. Miller, one of the workmen engaged in rebuilding the Pan Handle bridge over the river at this point, fell from the top of the bridge last Tuesday afternoon and was instantly killed. No one witnessed the accident, but it is supposed that in climbing the ladder over a pier, about the center of the bridge, one of the rungs gave way near the top and precipitated him below, when he first struck the pier and then the ground, a distance of perhaps fifty feet. His neck was broken and his body badly bruised. The missing piece from the ladder and the workman's hammer lay beside him when found. A coroner's jury was empaneled and rendered a verdict in accordance with the foregoing. The home of deceased was at Richmond, Ind., and he leaves a family to mourn his untimely death. —Monticello Herald.

NONE NOVEMBER FAIR. The great market of the eastern world has been held at this junction of the Volga and Olga Rivers, in Russia, every summer for hundreds of years. Here the nations of Europe and Asia meet with their products for trade. Cossack, Chinese Turk, and Persian meet the German and the Greek with every variety of merchandise that mankind employs, from sapphires to grainstones, tea, opium, fur, food, tools and fabrics, and last but not least, medicines. J. C. Ayer & Co.'s celebrated remedies from America were displayed in an elegant Bazaar, where the Doctor himself might sometimes be seen. They are known and taken on steppes of Asia as well as the prairies of the West, and are an effective antidote for the diseases that prevail in the youths of the North as well as the huts and cabins of the Western continent.—Lincoln (I. L.) Times.

To those who are so unfortunate as to become prematurely gray, or whose hair exhibits a tendency to fall off, we recommend a trial of Hall's Hair Renewer. We do so with the utmost confidence because it is every-where received with marked favor, and has built upon its own merits such a sure foundation that it is known and used in all civilized countries.—Addison (N. Y.) Advertiser.
