

Democrat Sentinel.

FRIDAY DECEMBER 13 1878.

Considerable snow is falling to-day.

Fresh Cranberries at Carr & Smoot's.

Clark Price went to Goodland yesterday.

Col. Lee was in town Thursday morning.

Dried and Canned Fruits at Carr & Smoot's.

Jennie June says that women like newspaper men. Jennie knows.

Tobacco and Cigars of the best brands at Carr & Smoot's.

The first man who enters our sanctum and says "beautiful snow." Well, —

Don't forget that wood—those who have promised it in payment of subscriptions.

Fresh candies, nuts, oranges, lemons, etc., for the holidays, at Carr & Smoot's.

Ezra C. Nowels, Auditor elect, is attending a meeting of the State Grange, at Lafayette.

On and after Monday next trains will leave Rensselaer at 11:15, the morning train will be withdrawn.

Misses May Kendall, Katie Millikan and Ida Murray, of Monticello, visited Rensselaer the preceed week. Guests of Ana McEwen.

Misses Ora Orton and May Spencer, of Monticello, and Emma Wigmore, of Rensselaer, called in to see us this forenoon.

The most acceptable Holiday Presents are always such as combine Beauty and Utility. These can be procured at the Furniture Rooms of Loomis & Co., Monticello, Ind.

The appointment of Rev. S. R. Seawright, of Monticello, to preach in the Presbyterian church, at this place, next Sabbath, has been postponed to the fifth Sunday of the month. No services till that date.

PANEL FLOWERS are something new which lovers of the beautiful, who may have an opportunity, will not fail to see. Call at the Furniture Rooms of Loomis & Co., Monticello, Ind.

In a running debate in the U. S. Senate, a few days since, between Messrs. Blaine, of Maine, Edmunds, of Vermont, and Lamar, of Mississippi, the "silver-tongued" Mississippian got away with the great "sun-struck," and his tricky backer from Vermont.

Willow Rockers, Patent Rockers, Reading Chairs, Folding Chairs, Foot Rests, Ottomans, Parlor seats, Chamber sets, Mirrors, Mirror Plates, in fact, FURNITURE in great variety of styles and prices, at Loomis & Co., in Reynolds' Block, Monticello, Ind., where every body is invited to call.

Some of the radical papers complain because southern Democrats do not elect negroes to congress. Northern radicals do not elect any negroes to congress. Northern negroes are quite as intelligent as their southern brethren. There will be no negroes in the next House of Representatives.

Mrs. Dau. B. Miller is on a visit to Remington. In consequence Dan has been "bitching" it for a week. Last evening his supply of bread run out, this morning he tried his hand at preparing and baking buckwheat cakes, and at noon, to-day, he streaked it past our office in the direction of father Cotton's boarding house, the bluest looking chap in Rensselaer.

This is the way the Thomaston (Mr.) Herald refers to event of considerable interest to Mr. and Mrs. Gleason: "The angel of mercy has filled the cradle of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Gleason this week."

Which reminds us that this same "angel of mercy" has gladdened the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin O. Cissell this week with a ten pound girl. Merv is already engaged in training his "bangers."

John Sherman, who is evidently under the impression that he is the government, has notified Mr. Glover, that hereafter he will not be permitted to continue his search in the Treasury Department for the purpose of trapping radical rascals who have robbed the people. Sherman evidently knows of Glover's shoddy and is determined that Glover shall not find it out. It is on record that radical officials stole to the amount of $100,000,000 annually for thirteen consecutive years, and this amount, as large as it is, does not in all probability represent the half of radical robberies. Congress will have to discipline John Sherman.

The display of Holiday Goods at the store of Willis J. Imes, consisting of Books, Albums, Vases, China ware, Dolls, Toys in great variety, etc., etc., is more extensive and beautiful than has ever heretofore been exhibited in this place. In fact, it excels anything of the kind we have seen here or elsewhere. All, too, can be suited, the prices ranging to suit the means of the buyer. Purchases should be made early, in order that a further supply of goods may be procured if necessary to meet the demands. Selections made now will be carefully placed away by the gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. Imes, or his accommodating assistant, Frank Meyer, until wanted. Call, inspect goods and make your choice.

All persons owing Carr & Smoot are requested to call between now and the 1st of January, 1879, and settle in cash (or note with good surety) and save costs. After the 1st of January all open accounts will be left in proper hands for collection.

CARR & SMOOT.

December 13, 1878.

Marion township school No. 4. Amanda Osborne, teacher, reports for the month ending November 29th: Enrolment, 36; average attendance, 31.1. Allie Brown, Lena Malchow, Bertie Daugherty, Gracie Daugherty, Nellie Wasson, Cora Wasson, Emma Tapp, Mary Tapp, Sarah Williams, Belle Williams, Charles Williams, Lola McCurt and Lizzie Huston, perfect in conduct, attendance and punctuality. Ora Daugherty and Myria Daugherty perfect in attendance and conduct.

PANEL FLOWERS!—SOMETHING NEW, HANDSOME AND CHEAP! Also, a large assortment of CHROMOS and MOTTOES, just received at the Furniture Rooms of Loomis & Co., in Reynolds' Block, Monticello, Ind. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to call and see for themselves. It is a pleasure and pride to show these goods.

A. Leopold, of Rensselaer, is the boss advertiser of the West. His advertisement in the Sentinel of that place covers three columns. Great is advertising, and printer's ink is Leopold's profit. Winamac Green-back Journal.

Yes, and his advertisement covers near the same space in the Union. There are some merchants who declare that times are hard, and advertising don't pay. Such liberal advertisers as Leopold, Fendig, Imes, Lowman (the Narrow Gauge), and others who use our columns, do not complain so of hard times, and laugh at those who think they save money by refusing to advertise.

ATTENTION!! To my many friends and patrons I wish to say that, contemplating a change in my business near the middle of January, 1879, I will from this date to that time all goods of every description at cost, and what I say I mean.

In addition to above would also add that those indebted to me on either note or book must come in and settle, as I have got to straighten my accounts at the beginning of the New Year. I wish your attention to be particularly drawn to this, by attending to which you will be greatly obliged.

Yours, Truly,
R. FENDIG.

A Reminiscence.

Levi (town) Pa.) Democratic Sentinel. A recent Altoona Tribune revives a reminiscence of old stage-coach times, beyond the memory of not a few of our present readers, thusly: "The heaviest load of humanity ever toted up the Juniata from Harrisburg to Lewistown, in a stage coach, consisted of Benjamin Bennett, of Bellefonte, Isaac Fisher, Esq., Adam Greer, and General James Burns, all of Lewistown. The quartette then weighed over one thousand pounds. These, with other passengers and baggage, made a huge load for four horses." All of these heavy weights but Gen Burns have passed to the other shore. The latter survives only as an invalid, for whose recovery most regretfully we say it, there is little or no hope.

Quite a number of the citizens of this district, we know were acquainted with the parties named above.

School Entertainment!

The public exercise of the Rhetoric Class for the First Term of School will consist of Orations delivered by the members. The names of the subjects and speakers are as follow:

Rome was not built in a day. Miss Lola Moss.

Every life has its shadow. Miss Madge Hemphill.

The position of women, past and present. Miss Mattie Coen.

Brit. Louis Hollingsworth.

The journey and day of America. Miss Anna Thompson.

The education of our girls. Miss Ollie Alter.

Why study the mathematics? Miss Anna Thompson.

The end not yet. Miss Ella Osborne.

Life's Battle Field. Miss Blanche Bourgeois.

Wrongs of the Indians. Delos Thompson.

Music—It's influence. Miss Belle Alter.

Failure or success in life. T. C. Price.

Silent Cities. Miss Hulda Miller.

The Magna Charta. Wm. E. Moss.

Should woman be idle? Miss Mattie McCoy.

Is coal of greater value to the world than gold? Affirmative—Vic Loughridge. Negative—Elmer Dwigwigs.

Life compared with the ocean.—Miss Emma Rhoads.

Entertainment to be given in Starr's Hall, Friday evening, December 20th, 1878. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Exercises to begin at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Louis A. Godey, the founder of Godey's Lady's Book, and who continued its publisher and proprietor until within two years died suddenly in Philadelphia Friday night, Nov. 29th, aged 75 years. He had been confined to his house through a complication of diseases, but his death was not expected.

Second-crop strawberries grew so plentifully on the vicinity of William Sloan, of Montgomery township, Montgomery county, Pa., that he regularly sold ten to twelve quarts a day through September and October, ending the crop about the middle of November. Prices were about eighty cents a quart.
