

Democratic Sentinel.

FRIDAY DECEMBER 2, 1878.

Christmas—Next Wednesday.

Fresh Cranberries at Carr & Smoot's.

To our readers, one and all—We wish a Merry Christmas.

Dried and Canned Fruits at Carr & Smoot's.

The Supreme Court has refused the application of McCully for a new trial.

Tobacco and Cigars of the best brands at Carr & Smoot's.

The handsome Holiday Goods, at Willis J. Imes' are the objects of great interest just now.

Don't forget that wood—those who have promised it in payment of subscriptions.

It requires 45 pounds of paper each week for the Sentinel issue, and only 40 pounds is amply sufficient for the Union.

Fresh candied, nuts, oranges, lemons, etc., for the holidays, at Carr & Smoot's.

The Crown Point Star is now under the management of J. W. Clark, late of the Remington Times. We wish the gentlemen success in their new field of labor.

The most acceptable Holiday Presents are always such as combine Beauty and Utility. These can be procured at the Furniture Rooms of Loughrey & Co., Monticello, Ind.

The consul yesterday placed a revolver at the head of a "dorg," fired and the animal lit out, unharmed, as fast as his legs would carry him. Now send along your rifle teams, Jasper county boasts the crack shot.

PANEL FLOWERS are something new which lovers of the beautiful, who may have an opportunity, will not fail to see. Call at the Furniture Rooms of Loughrey & Co., Monticello, Ind.

Perhaps no physician has ever built up so large a practice in so short a time in this community as Dr. Washburn. His industry, and kindness to his patients, has his reward in success.

Willow Rockers. Patent Rockers, Reading Chairs, Folding Chairs, Foot Rests, Ottomans, Parlor sets, Chamber sets, Mirrors, Mirror Plates, in fact Furniture in great variety of styles and prices, at Loughrey & Co's, in Reynolds' Block, Monticello, Ind., where ever body is invited to call.

Yesterday morning about 1 o'clock the handsome and costly residence of Alfred Thompson, in this place, was destroyed by fire. Very little was saved. Partially insured. But few of our citizens knew of the occurrence until daylight.

George V. Coen, the gentlemanly Superintendent of Loughrey & Co's Furniture Rooms, Monticello, is a regular bred furniture man and will handle no goods but what he can recommend.

ATTENTION KNIGHTS!—A full attendance of the members of Rensselaer Lodge No. 82 K. of P., is desired at their Hall at the next regular meeting, Thursday evening, December 20th, 1878.

Chancellor's command.

E. L. PHILLIPS, K. of R. and S.

Persons wishing to place presents on the Union Christmas Tree of the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday Schools, at the M. E. Church, Christmas Eve, are requested to be on hand with their articles before 3 o'clock, p. m. Tuesday.

Everybody cordially invited to attend.

By Order of COMMITTEE.

McCullum & Turner have in store an extensive, handsome and best quality stock of Dress Goods, Cashmeres, Brocade Shawls, Cloaks, etc., and have made a great reduction in prices. They respectfully and cordially invite their many Jasper County friends, when calling Monticello, to give them a call, examine goods and ascertain prices before going elsewhere.

DRAMATIC. The Rensselaer Dramatic Company will give an opening at Starr's Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, December 31st and January 1st, on which occasion the elegant new drop and advertising curtains will be exhibited for the first time. The entertainment will combine humor and pathos, and new scenery is now being painted expressly for the pieces by Mr. E. G. Bean, thus giving promise to our citizens of a rare treat.

The Jasper County Temperance Union. The president, vice president and secretary of the Jasper County Temperance Union have decided not to announce a meeting of the society for the month of December, 1878, but postpone it one week. The reasons for this action are, first, that the regular time of meeting, (the last Monday of December) falls in the midst of the holiday festivities, when people are apt to be employed with other affairs; and, secondly, because at the time of the month these meetings have been held the nights are always without a moon; by changing over one week light evenings will be had the year round.

The programme prepared for the meeting that will be held in the M. E. church Monday night, January 6th, 1879, is as follows:
1. Opening song by M. E. church choir.
2. Prayer by Eld. Hope B. Miller.
3. Music by Ladies' Orchestra band.
4. Reading a selection from sacred Scripture by Miss Cora Wilkinson.
5. Reading minutes of previous meetings.
6. Music by Ladies' Orchestra band.

7. Address by S. P. Thompson, Esq.
8. Select solo by Miss Hattie Coen.
9. Declaration by Mr. Robert Parsons.
10. Select reading by H. E. James.
11. Duet by Misses Ross and Hattie Coen.
12. Essay by Prof. G. W. Allen.
13. Song by Master Willie Imes.
14. Declaration by Miss Ana B. McEwen.
15. Election of officers (if in order).
16. Music by Ladies' Orchestra band.
17. Benediction.
As the meeting will be held during circuit court session gentlemen of neighboring cities may be present who will add to the variety and interest of the occasion; but whether strangers are present or not it is earnestly hoped that each person who has been assigned a place on the programme will feel inspired to contribute toward making a complete success of the first meeting of the society in the new year.

All persons owing Carr & Smoot are requested to call between now and the 1st of January, 1879, and settle in cash (or note with good surety) and save costs. After the 1st of January all open accounts will be left in proper hands for collection.

CARR & SMOOT.

Fraudulent Tickets.
The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railway Company have issued the following circular to its conductors:

To Conductors:
From this date you will refuse to honor any of the old form of stop over checks that may be presented for passage, as large numbers, and probably all in circulation, are forged and fraudulently issued, the genuine issue of the old form having been withdrawn from use two years since. Explain this to passengers presenting the old form of stop-over checks; refer them to parties from whom the checks were obtained for redress, and state that the stop-over checks of the old form which prove, upon investigation, not to have been fraudulently issued, will be redeemed by the undersigned.

In issuing stop over checks now in use, be particular to call the attention of passengers to the fifteen-day limit.

W. L. O'Brien,
Gen'l Pass. and Ticket Agent.
Travelers are cautioned against purchasing tickets from irresponsible ticket speculators. The only protection against fraudulent issues, lost or stolen tickets, is always to purchase tickets from the authorized agents of the railroad company.

PANEL FLOWERS!—SOMETHING NEW, HANDSOME AND CHEAP!! Also, a large assortment of CHROMOS and MORTAR, just received at the Furniture Rooms of Loughrey & Co., in Reynolds' Block, Monticello, Ind. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to call and see for themselves. It is a pleasure and pride to show these goods.

"Sam Collier," the prize fighter, has been released from the New Jersey State Prison. Upon his return to New York he said to a friend: "I return home as Walter Jamison, wishing to forget the years I lived as Sam Collier. Governor McClellan and others have not only released me from prison; they have made a man of me. My past life I wish to forget."

DIPHTHERIA.

The Sulphur Cure in Another Form.

Sulphur for diphtheria. Mr. John S. Wiles, a surgeon of Thorncombe, Dorset, writes to the London Times that after two cases of malignant diphtheria out of some nine or ten he had been called to attend and proved fatal, the mother of a sick child showed him an extract from an American paper concerning a practitioner who used sulphur to cure the disease. Accordingly he used milk of sulphur for infants and four of sulphur for elder children and adults; dose, a tea spoonful or more, according to age, three or four times a day, swallowed slowly, and application of the same to the throat with a sponge. Result: he did not lose a case, these or elsewhere, and he succeeded in saving life when the affection had almost blocked the throat.

The World and Senator Voorhees.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)
The New York World, published on the Atlantic coast, is making a venomous attack upon Senator Voorhees, of Indiana. This means, of course, that the entire money power of the east is laboring to defeat the re-election of Mr. Voorhees to the senate. Few circumstances could more conclusively show the deep determination of the money power to contest every foot of battle ground in this great war upon the people with unremitting zeal. The New York World is assumed to speak for the leading democrats of New York. It is understood to represent their opinions. Of course, so much of the money power as is republican in politics is bitterly hostile to Mr. Voorhees. This means, of course, that is has gained complete possession of both parties in the east, and both unite in electing or defeating the election of United States senator in the states of the west.

This is an important and undenied interference with the affairs of Indiana, to begin with. Moneyed New Yorkers walk into a distant state and deprive the people of their true representation in the senate of the United States, one of the highest rights secured to a state. It is not only an outrage upon the state, but it is infamous conduct toward Senator Voorhees and the noble democracy he so nobly led to victory in the last election. The fight in Indiana, conducted against enormous odds, in the face of two infamous republican gerrymanders, legislative and congressional, was known to all the country to be the fight of Senator Voorhees. The republican organs and orators in and out of Indiana announced the election of Senator Voorhees to be the issue, and implored the people of the state to choose a legislature that would defeat him. This was the state issue, and Mr. Voorhees, managing his own campaign with high ability, after a glorious and splendid campaign, won the victory. It was his personal triumph as well as the triumph of his cause. It is nothing less than infamy to now attempt to tear the nobly earned fruits of victory from him. We can not but think that the democratic members of the legislature who should refuse to vote for Mr. Voorhees would not be cordially welcomed by his constituents on his return home. No honorable democrat in Indiana will appear as a candidate against him. The election is at hand. The matter needs attention.

ATTENTION!!
To my many friends and patrons I wish to say that, contemplating a change in my business near the middle of January, 1879, I will from this date to that time sell goods of every description at cost, and what I say I mean.
In addition to above would also add that those indebted to me on either note or book must come in and settle, as I have got to straighten my accounts at the beginning of the New Year. I wish your attention to be particularly drawn to this, by attending to which you will greatly oblige Yours, Truly,
R. FENDIG.
