

FRIDAY DECEMBER 27, 1878.

The School Entertainment passed off creditably.

Fresh Cranberries at Carr & Smoot's.

Goods, well suited for New Year gifts, at Willis J. Innes' and don't you forget it.

Dried and Canned Fruits at Carr & Smoot's.

We understand a third child of Mr. John G. Culp, of Barkley township, has died, a victim to that terrible scourge—Diphtheria.

Tobacco and Cigars of the best brands at Carr & Smoot's.

Hon. Geo. H. Brown, representative elect, called in to see us this morning. His daughter, afflicted with diphtheria, he reports improving.

Don't forget that wood—those who have promised it in payment of subscriptions.

On Christmas Eve, at the Methodist and Christian churches, the trees were laden with gifts, and the hearts of givers and recipients alike made glad.

Fresh candies, nuts, oranges, lemons, etc., for the holidays, at Carr & Smoot's.

Rev. S. R. Seawright, of Monticello, is expected to preach at the Presbyterian church, Rensselaer, next Sunday. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

The most acceptable Holiday Presents are always such as combine Beauty and Utility. These can be procured at the Furniture Rooms of Loughrey & Co., Monticello, Ind.

Dear reader, before another issue of the SENTINEL the new year of 1879 will have entered upon its journey, and we therefore take occasion now to "Wish You a Happy New Year."

Iroquois Lodge No. 143 I. O. O. F. will elect officers for the ensuing term at their next regular meeting, Tuesday evening, December 31, 1878.

PANEL FLOWERS are something new which lovers of the beautiful, who may have an opportunity, will not fail to see. Call at the Furniture Rooms of Loughrey & Co., Monticello, Ind.

The "Narrow Gauge" is no more proof against sudden cold snaps and snow storms than other roads, consequently the running arrangements were somewhat interrupted during the present week.

Willow Rockers, Patent Rockers, Reading Chairs, Folding Chairs, Foot Rests, Ottomans, Parlor sets, Chamber sets, Mirrors, Mirror Plates, in fact FURNITURE in great variety of styles and prices, at Loughrey & Co., in Reynolds' Block, Monticello, Ind., where every body is invited to call.

Carr & Smoot wish to ask a favor of those owing them. They desire all such to be kind enough to call between now and the first of next January and settle their accounts, as after that date all unsettled bills will be placed in proper hands for collection. Call and settle with cash, or by note with good security.

Vic. Loughrey and Woodlwin are spending vacation at Dayton, O. W. Ed. Reynolds and Walter Spencer, of Monticello, arrived in Rensselaer last evening.

"Billy" Montague, the blind violinist, is in town.

G. W. Hascall, of Remington, called at the SENTINEL office this forenoon. Dan. B. Miller, Esq., and family, are visiting relatives and friends at Rochester, Ind.

At a regular meeting of Prairie Lodge No. 125 F. & A. M., held at their Hall on Saturday evening, December 21st, 1878, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year:

Worshipful Master—Harvey W. Wood.

Senior Warden—David J. Thompson.

Junior Warden—Charles H. Price.

Treasurer—Ralph Fendig.

Secretary—Louis Kern.

Installation will take place this evening.

The Knights of Pythias, at their meeting last night, elected the following officers, to-wit:

Chancellor—Commander—M. F. Chilcote.

Vice Chancellor—Benjamin Teuter.

Prelate—Robert B. Patton.

Keeper of Records and Seal—Frank B. Meyer.

Master of Finance—Geo. M. Robinson.

Master of Exchequer—Leslie C. Grant.

N. W. Reeve was elected Representative to the Grand Lodge.

Remington Items.

Prosecuting Attorney Bibcock stirred up the tigers in Remington this week, but save a ferocious growl or two it was barren of results.

From all indications the rabbit crop of next year will be rather short. Besides being the principal article of diet for many people, the fun furnished to boys in hunting them is equal to a horse race. The snow interferes materially with their locomotion.

The grain houses at Remington are full and no oats to be had. In consequence the grain business is not very lively.

The young people from Remington who attended the dance in Rensselaer, Christmas night, missed the track on the way home and landed in the creek. No damage done.

Remington is undergoing a coal famine just now. The railroad company think they have the dead wood on the city and supply cars just as they see fit.

At a regular meeting of Remington Lodge F. & A. M., No. 351, held in their Lodge Room on Saturday evening, December 14th, 1878, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year:

W. M.—B. H. Patton.

S. W.—W. R. Love.

J. W.—N. S. Bates.

Treasurer—B. B. Jeffries.

Secretary—P. H. Lally.

Tyler—W. S. Moffet.

December 13, 1878.

The Rensselaer Dramatic Company are still in active preparation for the coming plays on New Year's Eve and New Year's night, and under the supervision of Mr. Bean, who is an experienced actor, we expect a treat.

Change of programme each night.—Admission, 25 cents. Reserved seats, 50 cents. Music by the Rensselaer Cornet Band.

PANEL FLOWERS!—SOMETHING NEW, HANDSOME AND CHEAP!! Also, a large assortment of CHROMOS and MORTUOS, just received at the Furniture Rooms of Loughrey & Co., in Reynolds' Block, Monticello, Ind. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to call and see for themselves. It is a pleasure and pride to show these goods.

DIED, of Diphtheria, Dec. 14, 1878, IDA MAY CULP, aged 15 years, and Dec. 15, 1878, CLARA ETNA CULP, aged 11 years, daughters of John G. and Mary Culp, residents of Barkley township, Jasper county, Indiana. No pains were spared for their comfort and relief, yet the suffering was most intense and the disease baffled all medical skill.

This disease has been raging in that neighborhood since the latter part of October, and because of it the school has been vacated. Many friends sympathize with the bereaved family, and the school has lost two pupils who were obedient and promising, and dearly beloved by their teachers.

KANKAKEE TOWNSHIP, Dec. 23, 1878. Editor Rensselaer Sentinel:

If Kankakee is in the "fur her corner" of the county, and one half the territory is marsh and the other half sand ridge, yet she is by no means behind other sections in many respects, as was shown Saturday night in an entertainment given by the South Grade School. Rarely do we find in a district school find such advancement in elocution and composition as was shown in this entertainment. We would not say Mr. Pierce injustice did we state that it was principally owing to his efforts that our citizens were favored with such a rare treat as this exhibition proved to be. To avoid taking the pupils' minds from their studies, they were allowed but one week to prepare.

It was a common remark among the audience, "How could they accomplish so much in so short a time?"—The secret of this Mr. Pierce makes of elocution and composition a part of the regular school work. Now we think if these subjects received proper attention in our schools, such treats as our people received Saturday night would become a frequent occurrence, and the school work would be more perfect. L. A. J.

E. R. Pierce, Teacher of South Grade School, Kankakee township, makes the following report for the month ending Dec. 20th:

Number of pupils enrolled, 40. Average daily attendance, 30-65. The following pupils were perfect in attendance: Emory Jones, Homer Jones, Grant B. Howell, May Jones, Trent Jones, Nellie Bence, Rose Jones, Fannie Bentley, Johnnie Cooper and Robert Mannan.

Trent Jones, Isaac B. Jones, Rose Jones, Robert Mannan, Emory Jones, John Jones, Joe Cooper, Amos Caldwell and W. S. Bentley were marked "perfect in conduct."

The Fifth Reader Grade achieved the following average in the eight branches: Reading, 71; writing, 77; spelling, 81; geography, 83; arithmetic, 81; grammar, 75; history, 83; physiology, 71.

There were eleven members of the Fifth Reader Grade in most of the above eight branches.

H. B. Murray, teacher of Barkley township school No. 4, reports for the month ending December 13th: Enrollment 18, average attendance 9.5. Eugene Ball, Ida Coons, Rosa Coons, Eva Coons and Ida Bull missed no time. Two cases of tardiness during the month.

New York Post, 21st: To-day is, in the language of the almanacs, the shortest day of the year, the sun rising at 7:21 in the morning and setting at 4:36 in the afternoon, giving us only nine hours and fifteen minutes of daylight. In fact, however, however, this day is no shorter than several of its successors will be, for while the sun will set later after-to-day it will also continue to rise later until the middle of the first week in January, the gain in the evening being offset by the loss in the morning. By the 1st of February the day will lengthen to ten hours and eight minutes, and the change will then be noticeable.—It is an old saying that "when the days begin to lengthen the cold begins to strengthen," and it certainly looks to-day as if winter had set in earnest, there being every prospect that we shall have our share of the snow that has recently been so abundant in the west. Our first snow last year came on the 9th of December, but it soon turned to rain.

JOHN F. BOROUGHS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Notary Public, Real Estate and Insurance, Office with M. F. Chilcote, Rensselaer, Ind.

ATTENTION!! To my many friends and patrons I wish to say that, contemplating a change in my business near the middle of January, 1879, I will from this date to that time sell goods of every description at cost, and what I say I mean.

In addition to above would also add that those indebted to me on either note or book must come in and settle. As I have got to straighten my accounts at the beginning of the New Year. I wish your attention to be particularly drawn to this, by attending to which you will greatly oblige Yours, Truly, R. FENDIG.

REMEMBER

WINTER IS UPON US

WINTER IS UPON US

Long after it has passed away—that is if the prophecies of our weather prognosticators prove to be correct. And as the cold Northern winds strike your thinly clad bodies you will then also have cause to remember that to change them for garments of a coarser texture would be far more comfortable. Whenever you get in that fix come to us, it will give us great pleasure to accommodate you. We keep all those articles that will be most likely to suit, having just received a large and varied stock of MEN'S UNDERWEAR.

Boots, Shoes, Hats, Gloves, CLOTHING, &c.

I would also cordially invite inspection by the Ladies of our

CHEAP DRESS GOODS, of beautiful designs. Also a large supply of nice
