

FRIDAY JANUARY 24, 1879.

Mrs. W. J. Imes, we regret to state, is very ill.

James W. Douthitt, Esq., is off on a visit among friends.

Charley Jouvenat, of the Crown Point Star, is in town to day.

We acknowledge obligations to the Union for favors this week.

The prospectus of the I. D. & C. RR., we publish to day in supplement.

Thos. Burroughs, Esq., remained over Sunday with his family at this place. He left for Indianapolis on Monday.

Eld. Hope B. Miller has returned home from White county, where he had been engaged in holding a series of meetings.

The Consul takes a more philosophical view of the course of Mr. Major than does the New Albany Ledger Standard.

The Nationals of Jasper county endorse the course of Messrs. Major and Brown and repudiate the presumption of the Buchanan.

Eliza I. Phillips Esq., has been appointed agent of the Sioux City, Iowa, Land Company, for Jasper county. Western lands traded for Eastern farms, and encumbrances assumed.

"The Plan" and his brother, T. B., who claim to hold a proprietary right in fee simple to the National Party, should now communicate all but three of the National representation in the Legislature for refusing to come up to their help in their last extremity.

GRACE B., the very interesting little daughter of Charles H. and Lizzie A. Price, died last night, aged 4 years, 4 months and a few days. We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved parents in the sorrowful affliction which shadows their home. Funeral services will be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Hon. D. W. Voorhees was elected by handsome majorities, Tuesday last, to the United States Senate for the unexpired and full terms. Below we give the result of the balloting:

FOR THE UNEXPIRED TERM.
Voorhees,	83
Orth,	59
Buchanan,	3
Shackelford,	1
Voorhees' majority,	20
FOR FULL TERM.
Voorhees,	83
Harrison,	60
Buchanan,	3
Voorhees' majority,	20

Rev. Hope Miller of Jasper county held meeting last Sabbath at Pine Grove and we have been informed that his meetings have been continued for the few days since with good success. Several have professed the Christian faith and the prospect is good for an extensive ingathering. Rev. Miller has performed much hard labor in that locality, for which he is entitled to great gratitude from the Christian world. Since his advent in Jasper county, he has explored and occupied several other desolate fields with similar success. He has proved himself to be a faithful and successful worker. Should the State succeed in securing his services in the North-western prison as Chaplain, we feel confident that the choice will be well placed and the many convicts will be graciously benefited by such an appointment. Furthermore, his many friends will appreciate the good judgment of the directors in the choice.—Brookston Reporter.

The following "pen portrait" of our Senator, as drawn by "Jefferson" for the Indianapolis Sentinel, will be recognized as very correct:

HON. GEORGE MAJOR.
Hailing from Remington, as the Senator from the counties of Benton, Jasper, Newton and White, nominated by the Nationals and endorsed by the Democracy, Senator Major appears in his seat as a venerable prince in Israel.

He was born in Hamilton County, O., in 1819. When 11 years old he was brought by his father to Clinton County, Ind., where he lived until 1854, when he moved to Jasper County. He now resides in Benton county. In 1874 he was elected from his present district to the Senate as an Independent, and in 1878 he was re-elected as a National and Democrat. Senator Major is a gentleman of the tenderest sensibilities. His manner in the midst of the clamors of a court, without any of its display or pretensions. His sterling honesty has given him the confidence of four counties, and he sits here in the Senate as one who knows his duty and dares to perform it.

This tone of misrepresentation cannot disturb his present equilibrium, and the eye of envy can not from him down.

HON. DANIEL W. VOORHEES, SENATOR ELECT.

The Legislature of Indiana yesterday responded magnificently to the will of the majority of the people of Indiana. In making Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees United States Senator for the short and long term. The Legislature, while adorning Mr. Voorhees with senatorial robes, covered itself with glory, all the more notable from the fact that the honors were conferred on the first ballot, and without resort to a joint session. We congratulate the men who voted for Mr. Voorhees; we congratulate the people of Indiana, whose representatives exhibited unwavering fidelity to the choice, and we congratulate Mr. Voorhees upon a triumph which was won by his unflinching devotion to the right, and which, in its far-reaching consequences will be hailed with rejoicings by a vast majority of the people of the United States. The work was well done, quickly done, grandly done. Every patriotic pulse-beat was in unison; the friends of the right stood shoulder to shoulder; every word was confidence and every vote victory. The campaign of 1878 eliminated in the vote for senator. The mud batteries of opposition were silenced. The streams of vituperation may run high or low hereafter, partisan malignity has done its most and its worst. The furnace of partisan hate has been heated seven times hotter for Mr. Voorhees than for almost any other man whom the people have delighted to honor, but through all of these ordeals he has come forth with a character untarnished and a statesmanship brighter for the trials through which it has passed. The great state of Indiana has placed itself between him and those who so to defame him she has placed the civic crown upon his brow and enthroned him as the champion of the right of the people, and given his magnificent abilities to the country. Mr. Voorhees entered the Senate of the United States under embarrassing circumstances; he succeeded Senator Morton, the recognized leader of the Republican party in the Senate and in the country, and it was thought by his opponents that the renown of the State, and its influence in the councils of the Government would suffer irreparable loss by the change. Such, however, has not been the case. Senator Voorhees has not only filled the position made vacant by the death of Senator Morton, but has given the State additional importance by his heroic advocacy of measures calculated to repair the damage consequent upon the vicious legislation which his predecessor advocated. Senator Voorhees is now in the matured prime of life, and for the next six years will devote his great intellectual resources to the advancement of the prosperity of the country. Again we congratulate the senator elect, the people of the State and the Legislature upon yesterday's great work.

SALEM ITEMS.

Sleighing, the best we've had for years. Farmers are improving it by hauling off corn, getting up wood, &c.

Mr. J. Dunlap, our enterprising merchant is still alive, as you may see any day by calling at his store and see the way he is selling goods.

The present sleighing is being put to good use by the young folks of this neighborhood in the way of oyster suppers and parties.

The most enjoyable occasion of the season was an oyster supper at the residence of Mr. W. L. Bringle on Tuesday evening last, which was well attended by the beauty and strength of this community, who went to their homes feeling that they had enjoyed themselves hugely.

OCCASIONAL.

Salem, January 9th, 1879.

Reorganization of the Jasper County Agricultural Society.

On last Saturday afternoon an adjourned or supplemental meeting of persons interested in maintaining a county agricultural society whose annual fairs shall be held on the grounds at Rensselaer, was held at the court house. The meeting was called to order by Judge E. P. Hammond, upon whose motion Hon. Wm. K. Parkison was elected chairman, and Horace E. James secretary. It was announced that the indebtedness of the Jasper County Agricultural and Mechanical Association was about $2,200; that its assets consist of 20 acres of land, improved for a fair ground, valued at $1,000 or $1,200; that extensive repairs would be necessary before another fair was held; that the annual receipts of the society since its organization, seven years ago, has averaged enough, taking one year with another, to pay the premiums offered and current expenses incurred in holding the fairs.

For the purpose of clearing the society of its indebtedness and placing the local fairs upon a safe and permanent basis it had been proposed to reorganize the society in the manner indicated in the following constitution and articles of association.

CONSTITUTION AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE JASPER COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This association shall be known as the "Jasper County Agricultural Society," and its objects shall be the improvement of agriculture and the promotion and encouragement of the mechanical arts in Jasper county, Indiana.

ARTICLE II. The capital stock of this society shall be twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500), divided into one hundred (100) shares of twenty-five dollars ($25) each. The capital stock may be increased at any time by the board of directors.

ARTICLE III. A board of directors consisting of not less than twelve (12) members shall be elected annually on the third Saturday of January each year, who shall hold their offices until their successors are elected. A quorum of the board of directors shall consist of not less than seven members. The board of directors may adopt by-laws for the society. It may fill any vacancy occurring by reason of the death, resignation or removal from the county of any director or the officer of the society. The board of directors shall immediately after their election, elect from among their own number one president, one vice president, one general superintendent of the fair, one chief marshal, one secretary, and one treasurer, who shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are elected. Such officers shall perform the duties usually pertaining to such offices, and all such duties as the board of directors by their by-laws and orders may from time to time assign them.

ARTICLE V. The seal of this society shall be a stamp containing the words "Jasper County Agricultural Society."

ARTICLE VI. Each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to two tickets admitting the persons named in the tickets to the fair during its continuance each year.

PLEDGE OF SUBSCRIPTION.

We, the undersigned citizens of Jasper county, Indiana, do hereby subscribe our names to the foregoing constitution and articles of association of the Jasper County Agricultural Society, and take the number of shares of the capital stock of said society that are set opposite our respective names; and for each of the shares of stock so taken by us we agree to pay to Charles C. Starr, on or before the 18th day of January, 1879, for the use and benefit of said society, the sum of twenty-five dollars in money or in lawful claims against the Jasper County Agricultural and Mechanical Association. It is understood that each subscriber hereto binds himself only for the payment of the number of shares of stock taken by himself. On the full payment as aforesaid of the number of shares of stock subscribed for, and on the election of a president and secretary for this society, certificates of stock are to be issued to the members paying for such shares of stock.

It was reported by the committee having charge of the matter that in the neighborhood of forty shares of stock had been subscribed and pledged. As the result of discussion it was thought to be advisable to make a temporary or provisional organization by the election of a board of directors to have charge of the interests and business of the reorganized society. Preceding the selection of this board Judge Hammond offered the following resolution, which was adopted by the meeting of stock subscribers:

Resolved, That neither the board of directors this day to be elected nor their successors in office shall incur any debt whatever against this society until the one hundred shares of capital stock provided for in our articles of association shall have been subscribed.

On motion proceeded to the election of a board of directors, which resulted in the choice of the following named persons, to-wit: Wm. K. Parkison, A. Parkison, James Welsh, Horace E. James, Ira W. Yeoman, David H. Yeoman, Willis J. Imes, Moses B. Alter, Henry A. Barkley, Fleming Phillips, Marion L. Spitzer and Allen J. Yeoman.

Adjourned.

DIRECTORS' MEETING.

The board of directors elected Ira W. Yeoman chairman and Horace E. James secretary of their meeting. Proceeded to elect officers, which resulted as follows:

President.—Wm. K. Parkison.

Vice President.—M. L. Spitzer.

General Superintendent.—David H. Yeoman.

Chief Marshal.—James Welsh.

Secretary.—Horace E. James.

Treasurer.—Willis J. Imes.

Ordered, That the time for the payment of subscriptions to the capital stock of this society be extended until the 1st day of June, 1879, and that a further extension of time may then be given to any subscriber by his executing his note for the amount of his subscription, payable to this organization on January 1st, 1880, with ten per cent. interest after June 1st, 1879, waiving benefit of appraisement laws. Ordered, That upon failure to procure subscriptions for one hundred shares of the capital stock of this society on the 1st day of January, 1880, no collection shall be made for any of the capital stock, and if any of the same shall be paid the amount so paid shall be refunded to the persons paying the same.

A committee of stock subscribers consisting of David H. Yeoman, A. Parkison, George H. Brown, Fleming Phillips, James Welsh, Allen J. Yeoman, Ira W. Yeoman, Marion L. Spitzer, Moses B. Alter and C. C. Starr, was appointed to solicit other subscriptions, and Messrs. John J. Porter, John Waymire, C. J. Brown, Fritz Zard, S. R. Nichols, M. P. Comer, Lucius Strong and Wm. S. Coer were, by unanimous resolution, invited to assist said committee in its duty.

Board of directors adjourned to meet in Rensselaer on Saturday, April 5th, 1879.

"German Syrup."

No other medicine in the world was ever given such a test of its curative qualities as Bosche's German Syrup. In three years two million four hundred thousand small bottles of this medicine were distributed FREE OF CHARGE by Druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, severe Coughs, Pneumonia and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, giving the American people undeniable proof that "German Syrup" will cure them. The result has been that Druggists in every town and village in the United States are recommending it to their customers. Go to your Druggist, and ask what they know about it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case.

Wigmore will furnish you Silver, or Rogers' Plated Ware at lower prices than if kept in stock.

Don't forget that wood—those who have promised it in payment of subscriptions.

If you wish to buy a tract of land in Jasper county consult Thompson & Bro. They sell at owners' prices, and have a large list from which to select.
