

FRIDAY MARCH 21, 1879.

Louis Bass is visiting his parents.

After an absence of a few weeks we are again at our post.

Dr. Ira C. Kelley left for New Mexico last Saturday evening.

Sile Swain is going west to grow up with the country.

Gen. R. H. Milroy spent a few days with his old friends in Delphi last week.

The M. E. Church Social will be held at the Parsonage Friday evening of next week.

Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, was re-elected Speaker at the opening of the extra session of Congress.

A new mail route has been established from Morocco, Newton county, via Beaver, Timber and Pilot Grove, to Rensselaer.

Marriage licenses issued during the week to James Williams and Martha A. Price, and Charles E. Bastion and Anna B. Young.

Mr. Wilmer, photographer, Lewis-town, Pa., presented us with a number of scenes on the "Blue Juniata," for which we return thanks.

A petition circulated for Mr. Orwin, and the appointment secured by the consul! "Political honor!" Civil service reform! Was it a clandestine trick? Ugh!

The CLEVELAND FARM, near Rensselaer, is for rent. A couple of young single men, with teams, might be well suited to this. Apply personally or by letter to Mr. Cleveland.

During our absence a number of articles appeared in the SENTINEL of a "character contrary to our wishes, and in violation of our positive orders. We trust this explanation will be sufficient.

The rebel yell was distinctly audible upon the reassembling of Congress Tuesday.—Monticello Herald.

Yes, it proceeded from the bawling threats of old Zach. Chandler in the Senate, and Garfield in the House.

The consul is an Ohioan—according to his frequent arguments a carpet-bagger in Jasper county—and is therefore a fit subject for charitable favor at the hands of the Ohio Fraud who occupies the White House.

No mileage will be allowed members of the Legislature on account of the extra session. In calling the body together immediately upon the adjournment of the regular session, the Governor sat down upon it and saved the taxpayers more than $9,000.

Zea proposes to cut wood at the following rates: Per cord, once in two, 50c; " " twice " and split, 75c; " " " " and split, 100c. Give him a nail.

The water being too muddy for angling, father Washburn went coon hunting, and succeeded in treeing a couple of old zips, one of which he made captive, while the other escaped.—Monticello Herald.

The one that escaped must have been "An Artful Dodger."

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's parents, near Bradford, White county, Ind., Sunday, March 16, '79, by Eld. Hope B. Miller, Mr. Charles McFee and Miss Susie Day.

Eld. Miller remained in Bradford over Sabbath, and filled the pulpit at that place.

The "laurel" emblem of victory, does not grow in these parts. On the mountains and hills of Pennsylvania, however it grows wild and in abundance. We are indebted to our old-time friend, Noah Penepacker, for a substantial case of this wood.—Sentinel.

We notice a bill has passed the House at Indianapolis reducing the price for publication of the delinquent list to 20 cents per description. Now, in keeping with this, let penalty and interest be wiped out, and the collection of delinquent taxes will be made a light, pleasant duty for county treasurers?

Old "blood-eting" Chandler's last speech before his latest retirement from politics, a reference to the present incumbent of the White House: "Why, the damned fool wouldn't have been President at all if it hadn't been for me; it was I that gave him the States of South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana." Yes, and he connived civil war rather than concede to the voice of the people.

The radicals in Congress, with Garfield in the lead, are begging the Democracy not to follow the precedents established by them in the recent past. A faint echo is also heard from the Fraud appealing for mercy. And above the din comes the expostulating voice of the consul to Turk Island demanding of them that they exercise a spirit of "political honor!" as he understands it, but fails to put in practice.

We visited recently the justly celebrated Mann Ax Factory, imbedded among the mountains about 34 miles from Lewis-town, Pa. The manufactures of this establishment are sold wherever there is a market on the habitable globe. Just before leaving, our old friend, Jacob McDannel, a skilled workman, and employed in the works for the past thirty years, manufactured and presented us a couple handsome, complete and perfect miniature double-axe axes, which we shall keep as mementoes.

WANT A CHANGE.—A petition is being circulated for signatures asking the removal of George Sigler and the appointment of W. S. Orwin, as postmaster at Rensselaer.—Union, March 16.

The petition for Orwin, it seems, secured the appointment of the consul. How was it done? Some radicals are inclined to think that while "political honor" was left lying around loose, a "shabby trick" was perpetrated upon them.

The Michigan sot, old Zach. Chandler now stands up and boasts of his loyalty, away from danger, during the war. He is bitter on Jeff. Davis—at a safe distance. If there had been a few first class hangings of such blattens as Chandler and Davis before the war, it might have been avoided and the Union maintained in peace and harmony. The country is gradually settling down to this view of the case, and unbiased history hereafter will associate the names of these men with having rushed the country into civil war. The great "blood-letter" should take a back seat. His presence in the Senate, once occupied by the illustrious patriot and statesman Cass, is a lasting disgrace to Michigan.

POLITICAL HONOR.—"Last year" immediately preceding election day the Democracy of Jasper county clandestinely substituted upon their tickets the name of the national candidate for prosecutor, for that of their regular nominee, and every Democrat in the county, save D. B. Miller alone, endorsed the shabby trick.—Consul to Turk Island.

The statement that the Democracy of Jasper county clandestinely substituted the name of the national candidate for prosecutor upon their ticket last fall, has more the ring of a political lie than that of "political honor." The name of the national candidate was substituted upon what was supposed to be correct information received that the Democratic nominee had withdrawn. "Political honor!" Bah!

Our late visit to "home and friends" in Pennsylvania, after an absence of twenty years, was very pleasing to us. During our stay, we witnessed considerable improvement in the health of our aged mother, to whose bedside we had been called, received a warm welcome from many old and cherished friends, and visited haunts and scenes of our early years on the banks of the beautiful Juniata. The hills, mountains and the town we easily recognized. Time has not worked changes on these to the same extent as upon the people, and yet in this particular it was gratifying to us to note the change not near so great as we had anticipated. Time, too, seems to have dealt gently with them, and in most instances the ravages of twenty years are scarcely perceptible.

S. Bass has just received a beautiful line of children's shoes.

Report of school number 2, Barkley township, for the month ending March 8, 1879: Enrollment 15; average attendance 13.7.

Those perfect in attendance and punctuality were Agnes Brown, Ollie Reed, Charlie Reed, Laura Parkison and Add. Parkison.

Stella Parkison lost one day on account of sickness.

All the pupils deserve credit for industry and good conduct during the entire term. CLARA COEN, Teacher.

Go to the exclusive boot and shoe store of S. Bass' for big bargains.

Report for school number 3, Marion township, for the month ending 8th March, is as follows: Number of pupils perfect in punctuality, attendance and deportment eleven, viz: Stella Johnson, Vance Collins, Ernest Mayhew, Lucy Marion, David Marion, Minnie McDonald, Alice McDonald, Emma Gwinn, Josie Parkison, Maggie Parkison and Joley Parkison.

Pupils who missed no time during the entire term—Emma Gwinn, Josie Parkison, Maggie Parkison, Joley Parkison and Stella Johnson. ENA HALSTEAD.

New styles in mens' shoes at S. Bass' boot and shoe emporium.

A. M. Munden, teacher, reports for Brushwood school, for the term ending March 11, 1879, as follows: Enrollment, 28; average daily attendance for the first month, 18.7; second, 17.1; third 18.0; fourth, 18.0; entire term, 17.2. Willie Rowen, Alex. Rowen, Arthur Anderson, Ella Rowen, Minnie Martin, Eddie McColl, Charles McColl, Alice Anderson and Fernanda Miller for the first month, Arthur Anderson and Alice Anderson, for the second month, and Arthur Anderson and Willie Rowen for the fourth month, were perfect in attendance and punctuality. None perfect the entire term. Arthur Anderson missed but one day and then only on account of severe illness. Cases of tardiness, 134.

I warrant every boot or shoe sold at my store. S. BASS.

The Record.—The Democratic party, through its representatives in Congress, stand before the country in a splendid attitude. Fair trial by jury, no Federal patronage at the polls, local elections free from Federal interference and bribery—this was its valdictory as the Forty-fifth Congress died. It was in defense of these principles that Mr. Southard tossed defiance back to Hale when the latter threatened an extra session in the name and for the sake of packed juries, government muskets at the ballot-boxes, and unlimited Republican electioneers paid from the public treasury. Which attitude in a free government is a revolutionary one?

The appropriation for the harbor at Michigan City, which was announced as $200,000, was eventually made $40,000. The hands of Major Calkins can doubtless be seen in this increase.—LaPort Herald.

If the Herald knows what it is talking about, which it rarely does, it would understand that the Senate's crease was entirely made in the Senate through the influence of Senators McDonald and Voorhees.—LaPorte Argus.

James W. McEwen, of Rensselaer, Jasper county, Indiana, who has been absent for more than 20 years, pays our town a visit. He has been greeted by a great number of old friends and acquaintances, who are glad to see him looking well. We believe he is now in charge of a paper at the above named place but still retains the largest interest in the old Monticello Democrat, which he edited for so many years.—Lewistown (Pa.) Gazette.

We understand that Burlington township offers $100,000 to have the Indianapolis, Delphi & Chicago railway pass through Burlington Tp., and that Flora offers to do as well proportionately. That is the kind of talk that the railroad men like to hear, and it may cut Rosville and Frankfort out, as well as straighten the line somewhat between this point and Indianapolis. The Burlingtonians, being isolated, want a direct outlet to the world at large.—Delphi Sun.

The Commissioners of Carroll county refused last week to guarantee the payment of tax voted to the new road on its completion to Delphi. One member of the board was absent when the decision was made, and the Times thinks that when the board meets with all the members present the request of the railroad company will be granted, as the people interested are strongly in favor of it.—Monticello Herald.

In our frequent foraging expeditions for items through the legislative chambers we are brought in contact with a variety of forms of human nature. One of the pleasantest and most accommodating is the chief clerk of the Senate, Daniel D. Dale, Esq. He is one of the most efficient office men that it has been our good fortune to meet. Ask him for a bill or a resolution or a paper and he can put his hands right upon it, and he does it in such a pleasant, genteel sort of way that you feel like asking him again? He is only 42, and it is not every public man who develops into a thorough gentleman, even at that age. He has been clerk of White county, Indiana, two terms and practices law at Monticello. His face is familiar on State convention occasions, as he has been a regular attendant upon them for the past fifteen years. All men occupying positions where the great public go constantly for business and information, should cultivate the art of being as courteous and obliging as Secretary Davis.—Monticello Sentinel.

Closed Up.—Considerable excitement was created in business circles last Monday morning by the announcement that the well known dry goods store of Purcell & Son had suddenly closed doors and suspended business. The announcement was true and the cause assigned was embarrassment by creditors who became restless and proposed to press their claims. The assignment was voluntary on the part of the firm for it was made for the benefit of all their creditors. M. W. H. Dague, the assignee, informs us that the assets of the firm will approximate $7,000, with liabilities amounting to about $4,000, and that an effort will likely be made to adjust the claims of creditors without litigation. The Messrs. Purcell have shown an honorable disposition in thus favoring all their creditors alike. Had they been otherwise disposed, or indifferent to the interests of their creditors, a few claimants might have been satisfied to the exclusion of all others. It is to be hoped that their business troubles, thus suddenly thrust upon them, may be satisfactorily settled and in a manner that will permit them to resume business at an early day.—Monticello Herald.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION.—To Parties in need of Employment.—In a communication to us the Patentes and Proprietors of the Centennial Cake and Baking Pan ask us to refer them to a party who would make them a good agent to sell the above named pan to the people of our own and adjoining counties, and as the best means of bringing the matter to the notice of parties in this vicinity who are in want of a business that is light and easy to perform, and one that there is certainly considerable money to be made at, we insert this notice.

The following is a description of the pan: It is made of Russia Iron, and will bake a cake, a beautiful brown, much nicer and more evenly than it can be baked in the old fashioned tin cake pan, and being provided with a detachable rim, you can, by simply raising a hook, remove the rim of the pan from the sides of the cake without breaking or injuring it in the least, thus leaving the cake on the bottom of the pan, very convenient for icing or frosting, the bottom of the pan being raised prevents the cake from being burnt on the bottom; the tube in the center can be removed by inserting a common cake knife in the slot in the top and turning it half round when it will drop out; there is also a slide on the bottom by which you can close the hole after removing the tube, making a plain bottom plan for baking fruit cake, bread, biscuits, &c., thus practically giving you two pans for the price of one. With all these advantages over all other pans, an agent has no trouble at all in selling from ten to twenty-five of them per day. One agent has sold over one thousand of these pans in one county, and reports that he has not gone over one half of it yet, and we would advise any one out of E. Bowman & Co. to write at once to L. E. Bowman & Co., 125 and 127 Central Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, mentioning that they read this notice in our paper, and they will send you a descriptive circular and terms to agents and full particulars as to territory, &c.

I sell boots and shoes cheaper than any house in Rensselaer, or Jasper County. Please call. S. BASS.

Excursion to Monticello on March 29th, '79.—The Rensselaer Dramatic Troupe will perform their highly entertaining drama "Nick of the Woods," followed by the exciting farce "Hire a Horse," at Monticello, Saturday evening of next week, March 29th.—Round tickets and pass into entertainment, per couple, $1 50; from Bradford, $1 00. Tickets for sale at Starr's, Orwin's, Ames' and Kauff's. Rensselaer; James Watson's, Bradford; and McConnell's, Monticello.—A rare treat is promised the people of Monticello. Entirely new scenery painted expressly for this play. The train will leave Rensselaer 6:15 p. m., and return at close of performance.

Bread and Butter.—Hall in his Journal of Health, gives the following bit of wisdom: "Bread and butter are the only articles of food of which we never tire from early childhood to extreme old age. A pound of fine flour or Indian meal contains three times as much nutriment as one pound of butter's roast beef; and if the whole product of the grain, brass and all, were made into bread, fifteen per cent. more of nutriment would be added. Unfortunately the brain, the coarsest part of which gives soundness to the teeth and strength to the brain, is generally excluded. Five hundred pounds of flour give to the body thirty pounds of the bony aliment, while the same quantity of bran gives more than 125 pounds.

This bone is lime, the phosphate of lime, the indispensable aliment of health to the whole human body, from the want of which multitudes of persons go into a general decline.

What Women Can Do.—Our attention has been called to a new article for the use of ladies, the invention of which has conferred an everlasting blessing upon every lady. We refer to the Queen City Skirt Suspenders, for supporting ladies skirts, the most desirable and beneficial article ever invented for the relief of women, many of whom have suffered years of miserable health caused solely by carrying the weight of a number of heavy skirts completely down. Something to support ladies' clothing is absolutely necessary. These suspenders are recommended by our leading physicians to ladies and young girls. Every lady should have them. Thousands will testify to their excellence and the advantages to be derived from wearing them. They are sold only through the Queen City Skirt Suspenders Co., 125 and 127 Central Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Grafting Wax.—There are always a number of people who wait grafting wax at a time when it ought to be ready without having to look after it. A correspondent of the New York Tribune recommends a mixture which is always ready if a little good alcohol is on hand to dilute it occasionally. It spreads like honey or butter with a spatula or brush. A film hardens on the surface which prevents the wax from becoming rancid, and keeps it soft and adherent for a long time. Melt slowly one pound of good pale rosin, then take it off the stove and add one ounce of beef tallow, and stir well. Then add turpentine (or less will do if the rosin contains much) stir, cool a little, then gradually add five ounces of strong alcohol. Keep in corked bottle.

Worth Twice the Sum.—We are just in receipt of the Chicago Ledger, the leading family paper of the West, which is now entering upon its seventh volume. The Ledger is a large forty-eight column weekly paper, printed upon bold, plain type, which can be read with ease by either the old or young, and is filled with interesting stories and matter of particular interest to every household. This excellent journal is supplied to subscribers, postage paid, for the extremely low price of one dollar and fifty cents per year. In order to more rapidly increase its present large list of readers, the publishers of this paper, the publishers of this paper have just made a new contract for the manufacture of several thousand fine nickel plated English steel barrel-and-cylinder seven shot revolvers 22 caliber—which they propose to distribute among their subscribers at cost, and therefore offer one of these elegant weapons of defense and the Ledger one year for three dollars. The revolver will be sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of the price. They have already distributed $3,000 of revolvers and are mailing hundreds daily. Now is your time to get a first class revolver and the best paper in the country or less than half the actual worth at a low price. Sample copies of the Ledger will be sent to any address for ten cents. Address the Ledger, Chicago, Ill.

Indiscriminate Children-Kissing.—Everybody is expected to kiss the baby. The timid little girl who shrinks from the proffered osculation is ordered by her parents to kiss the visitor. The visitor has a slight or a severe sore throat. The diphtheric germs are conveyed to the lips of the reluctant child, and lodgment in the throat. A violent attack of diphtheria results and spreads through the family, usually by the same direct infection. The heart broken mother pours a head to the inscrutable dispensations of Providence, and wonders why her darling should be taken—her darling, whom she had kept at home safely guarded against all exposure. The doctor tells learnedly about acid, lemon juice, water—and these may be the vehicle, but never the origin, of the contagion—but the fatal disease was imparted through the lips of that thoughtless visitor. Many wise mothers will not permit strangers or friends to kiss their children. Their example should be followed. Under the motto, "God Bless Our Home," should be suspended another, "Don't kiss our Children." If indiscriminate kissing were only nasty it might be tolerated; but, as it may be, and often is, deadly, it should be abolished.—Syracuse Journal.

Tongue cannot tell the words or express the astonishment of the terrified soldier in Connecticut who woke to find his wife using his wooden leg to pound the breakfast for breakfast.—Donnelsville Sentinel.

Subsidy Calkins.—It was with sad eyes that the Argus looked over the names of the Congressmen who voted on the John Roach Brazilian Steamship Subsidy Steel and discovered that Maj. Calkins' name was not among the noble fellows who sat down on the swindle.—LaPorte Argus.

An Alabama darkey, for a wager, recently exposed his head to the furious assaults of a tame goat. His confidence was rewarded by his winning the money, for, after half an hour's vigorous butting, the goat drew off utterly discouraged.

The New York Sun publishes a complete list of the names of the given office to for being connected with the Louisiana and Florida election frauds. They number ninety-seven, and the fees and salaries they draw amount to about two hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars a year.

Gideon Cook, a Calvin Baptist preacher, well known in this vicinity a quarter of a century ago, was a man very eccentric in speech even to his last earthly moments. A few hours previous to his death, his brother, also a preacher, came to his bedside and inquired, "Do you think you are dying, Gideon?" And the reply, sharp and quick, came, "Don't know—can't tell—never died yet!"—Biddford.

Quarterly meeting at the M. E. church Saturday and Sunday, March 22 and 23. First service on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Quarterly conference at 3:30 p. m. Rev. C. S. Burnett, of Monticello, will supply the place of Rev. Dr. Godfrey.

All Pensioners of the Government (except Jeff Davis) will do well to call on Mordecai F. Chilcote, Attorney-at-Law of Rensselaer, Indiana, and ascertain whether it is $500 or $1,000 due them under the provision of the arrears of Pension act approved January 25th, 1879. He can tell.

House to Rent.—The house of Mrs. Rosannah Mcintosh, recently occupied by Peter Youngberg is now for rent. Any person desiring a good dwelling house large enough for a small family, can procure the same by calling on Mordecai F. Chilcote, Attorney-at-Law, Rensselaer, Ind.

The attention of the public is invited to the Adamantine Pavement, as an article deserving special consideration. This pavement is a Portland Cement Beton, which, though soft and plastic when laid, solidifies into a stone of great hardness, surpassing many of the best natural stones, in strength, density and durability. It is moulded in the walks in blocks of any form, size and thickness, which do not combine and interlock, and may, if desired, be taken up and relaid like ordinary flagstone. From its plastic nature it may be laid on curved and irregular walks, with the same facility as on straight ones, and without that waste of material and extra expense that pertains to the fitting of stone. It may be made almost as white as marble, or tinted to imitate blue, brown and other sand stone. It is rich, elegant, durable and cheap. The most desirable pavement yet introduced for either private grounds or public sidewalks. It has a wide and varied application, and numerous testimonials can be furnished from those who have practically tested its merits. Walks that have been in use five years are as level, sound and perfect to-day as when just finished, and to all appearance will last a century. Inquiries and orders respectfully solicited. Address, I. S. KINGSBURY, Monticello Ind.
