No store in town can sell good Goods cheaper, and we argue not as cheap. I have been with you fourteen years, at the old "Hopkins Corner." Where is the store run at less expense? -No fancy rents, no fancy clerks, and no extra style put on. Our ambition is, by strict integrity and faithful performance of our promises to control a trade in just proportion to our merits. We make "cash" out in buying and selling.

CLOSE OF SCHOOL. Friday afternoon; Friday and Saturday nights, April 25th and 26th. Public exercises, consisting of class drills, declamations, papers, speeches, debates and singing, and to which all departments of the school will contribute, will be given in Starr's Hall, Friday afternoon, April 25th.

On Friday night, pupils of the Grammar School, and Junior class, High School, will give an entertainment, consisting of declamations, debates, essays and speeches.

Besides, it is expected that other interesting features will be added to the entertainment on this evening.

On Saturday night the senior class, High School, will deliver their term finals. The orations have a special bearing on some feature or department of United States History, and for this reason are expected to be very interesting and instructive.

Good music, good speeches, and a good time. Entertainments free. Come out and encourage the young people.
