NEWS OF THE WEEK.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Information comes from the American Minister at Berlin that Bismarck has been converted to M-metalism, and is determined to use his influence and authority toward the restoration of the double standard in the German empire.

The Egyptian steamer Samanook, bound from the Mauritius to Alexandria, was recently lost at sea; twenty-five lives were lost.

Diphtheria is now raging as a terrible epidemic in Russia, and a steamer from Berlin announces that the Asiatic cholera has made its appearance in Smolensk; so that what with the diphtheria and the cholera, Russia is having more than her share of afflictions.

The question of the emancipation of the Jews in Roumania has reached its crisis through the resignation of the Ministers, who state that they cannot obtain a majority in favor of the measure demanded by the powers. It is intimated that unless the Roumanians recede from their position on this matter the nations which have already recognized the independence of the country will recall their Ambassadors.

Several disturbances have occurred at Lyons, France, caused by the Bonapartists. A number of officers are implicated, and will be punished.

Advices from South Africa state that the King of the Zulus had made fresh overtures for peace, which the British military authorities had met half way.

The purser of the steamer Etna, which arrived at New York the other day from Port au Prince, Haiti, reports as follows: At Port au Prince, Monday, June 30, P. M. A Moscow journal has just been suppressed for arguing in favor of larger liberty for the press.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

Postmaster General Key and family are on a pleasure tour through New England. Several Tennessee colonies are being formed in the region of Lowell, Mass. They will settle in East Tennessee.

The Duke of Argyll and his two daughters arrived at New York last week, and were privately entertained at a dinner party by Cyrus W. Field. Among those present were Secretary Evans, Peter Cooper, James G. Blaine, and Mayor Cooper.

A furious tornado visited Boston, a few days ago, causing the destruction of vast amounts of property and considerable life. A yacht was upset in the bay, and five of its occupants found a watery grave. Several smaller craft were wrecked and the occupants drowned.

In the city, many of the houses were unroofed, chimneys and signs blown down, and thousands of dollars' worth of window-glass broken. The storm swept over Pittsburg, Springfield, Pittsford, Worcester and other towns in the interior, playing havoc wherever it struck. It was the most destructive and destructive visitation of the kind ever experienced in New England.

Pitts Agricultural Works, at Buffalo, one of the oldest and largest manufacturing establishments in Western New York, has been destroyed by fire.

Cox, the negro who murdered Mrs. Hull, in New York, has been found guilty and sentenced to be hanged on the 29th of August.

Gov. McClellan, of New Jersey, granted a reprieve in the case of Court Bonnett and Mrs. Smith, for the murder of Police Officer Smith, until Aug. 15.

The storm in New England, heretofore mentioned, was more widespread in extent and destructive in its effects than first reports indicated. A yacht capsized off Nantuxet beach, and four persons were drowned. One man, two women and two children were lost off Governor's island. The rain-fall was very heavy in various places, and some of the hailstones measured seven inches in circumference. Lightning caused the loss of a few lives. Two boats capsized off Scituate, and three persons were drowned. Near Montreal, the bonds were blown down, and thousands of dollars' worth of window-glass broken. The storm swept over Pittsburg, Springfield, Pittsford, Worcester and other towns in the interior, playing havoc wherever it struck. It was the most destructive and destructive visitation of the kind ever experienced in New England.

"A Firm Adherence to Correct Principles."

John Charles Adrien Hamilton, grandson of Alexander Hamilton, died at Merced, Cal., a few days ago.

Arthur Townsend was murdered by Indians in Tulare county, Cal., last week. The Indians were lynched by white settlers.

It is currently reported in Milwaukee that Alexander Mitchell, President of the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, has gone to Europe to negotiate for the control of the Northern Pacific road.

Advices from the West report that "Gen. Miles is in the neighborhood of the Bear-Paw mountains, where he expected to find a large party of Sioux. The General's fighting force does not exceed 600 men. The wood-choppers and hairdresser-escape fellows along the river say that it will be cleared out if he strikes the main body of Sitting Bull's followers. Old officers on the frontier who fought the Indians before Miles entered the army say he will get caught. They predict for him the same fate that befell Custer."

South.

In one day last week there were fifteen deaths from sunstroke in the city of Charleston, S. C.

Southern lynching: John Breckenridge, a young mulatto, who committed an assault upon a respectable young woman near Camden, Ky., was taken out of jail at a late hour of the night, carried by a mob beyond the city limits, and hung to a tree. A negro named Lucius Weaver, charged with a similar offense upon a married lady at Strawberry Plains, Tenn., was taken from the guards by a mob, carried into the woods and shot to death.

A party of Indians have been murdering and robbing near Fort Davis, Texas. The major accounts of the outrage do not indicate whether the Indians were across the border, although the nearness of the locality to the lurking ground of the Mexican out-throats make it likely that this is the case.

Five new cases of yellow fever were reported to the Memphis Board of Health on the 17th. The cases occurred under one roof in the southern part of the city. A general panic ensued, and citizens began to flee from the pestilence as fast as they could get away.

Five new cases of yellow fever and one death were reported at Memphis on the 18th inst. There was great excitement in the city, and everybody was leaving that could get away.

The relatives of the late Mrs. Dorsey, who bequeathed $250,000 worth of property to Jeff Davis, will contest the will. Davis was the guest of the lady before her death, and the contest will doubtless be based on the ground of undue influence or the insanity of the testatrix.

There were five new cases of yellow fever, and one death, in Memphis on the 19th of July, and on the 20th new cases and four deaths were reported to the Board of Health. A Memphis dispatch of the 21st says: "Business is dead. The wholesale merchants have nearly all made their arrangements to continue business at other points. Many retailers have closed their stores and left the city. The city authorities recommend the immediate evacuation of the city, and many of prominent citizens have fled. It is estimated that the health authorities are still confident that there is no yellow fever in the place."

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue

Rum has sent a circular to all Collectors of Internal Revenue in the United States, informing them that, although the usual appropriation for the fees of the United States Marshals has not been made by Congress, his office will not relax the efforts to suppress fraud by the seizure of illicit distilleries, and the prosecution of offenders.

The United States Marshal at New Orleans has been ordered to get half-rate fare for the employees of the Association to-day distributed about $5,000 to 100 poor Jewish families, thus furnishing them the means to leave this ill-fated city.
