

One hundred and thirty emigrants from Sheffield, England, with their families, arrived at New York last week, and left immediately for Bridgeport, Ct., under engagement with the Fray Cutlery Company. Homes have been provided for them, and the expense of passage is paid by the company. The movement is of considerable significance. It is practical the transfer of an old Sheffield factory, with its capital and labor, to this country. In October about 500 more English and German cutlers will be brought over to Bridgeport.

Considerable excitement has been caused in Montreal and other parts of Canada by the suspension of the Exchange Bank of Montreal, an institution started in 1872 with a paid-up capital of $1,000,000. The liabilities are about $1,000,000.

A Montreal dispatch of the 8th inst. announces the failure of the Ville Marie Bank, an institution with $1,000,000 capital, founded and closely surrounded by French business men. The liabilities of the bank are about $1,000,000. This suspension intensified the alarm which has been created by the failure of the Consolidated Bank of Canada and the Exchange Bank of Montreal, and other banks are of no means of knowing whether they were stolen property or not.

Everything bad that had happened on the Missouri he also charged up to the agency Indians. Gen. Miles said there would be such charges made if the British Indians would only keep their own side of the line and refuse to receive stock which they couldn't help know was stolen. Maj. Walsh said he brought with him the assurance of the Sioux leaders—Spotted Eagle, Broad Tail, Black Moon, and others—that they mediated no war against the United States. Although they were poor and starving they would remain on the other side, and move back beyond the Cypress hills if necessary. The said Indians had been seized by the Consolidated Bank of Canada and the Exchange Bank of Montreal, and other banks were at once besieged by alarmed depositors.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Indian Agent at the Flathead Agency, Montana Territory, reports the massacre of eight Nez Perce by a war party of supposed Gross Ventres.

A suit was brought for libel against J. S. Sweeny and Edward S. Scripps, comproprietors of the Cleveland (Ohio) Press, concerning the Nez Perce. The Press has been seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is one of A. B. Bischoff, of Basle, Switzerland.

The Indian Agent at the Flathead Agency, Montana Territory, reports the massacre of eight Nez Perce by a war party of supposed Gross Ventres.

The Indian Agent at the Flathead Agency, Montana Territory, reports the massacre of eight Nez Perce by a war party of supposed Gross Ventres.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.

The Sprague-Conkling Scandal.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Narragansett Pier gives the following particulars of the Sprague-Conkling unpleasantness: The affair occurred on Friday evening. Either on Wednesday night or Thursday morning Senator Conkling arrived at Narragansett Pier. With him, or after him, came a trunk and a large valise. These articles of baggage were taken to the Sprague mansion by the direction of Senator Conkling. He remained there as a visitor the next day, and was on a hotel piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies. During the afternoon Senator Gov. Sprague was received at the hotel. He was seated at a window of $100.00. The effects of the office were seized by the Sheriff. The complaint is a son of Henry Chisholm, President of the Cleveland Rolling-Mill Company. A reporter of the Press visited the office of the Rolling-Mill Company to effect a settlement, and was seized by some of the employees, stripped of his clothing, and decorated with marking-ink from the foot.