

Democratic Sentinel.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1879.

The majority of the Governor-elect of Kentucky, Dr. Blackburn, is about 41,000.

The election in California comes off on Wednesday of next week, September 3d.

The Carroll county Fair will begin Sept. 9th. $3,000 in premiums are offered.

James H. Snoddy, ex-Superintendent of Jasper County, has been elected Principal of the Earl Park, Benton county, school.

The average radical is almost as furious over Dixon as he was over Lize Pinkston. Lize was a swamp angel, and Dixon was a thief, a murderer, a liar, and a mad man generally.

The Republican State Central Committee of Maine is demanding of the Radical National Committee more funds, even if it requires another assessment of the Government employees.

Dr. Blackburn, governor-elect of Kentucky, in answer to the charges of the Republican press in relation to his spreading the yellow fever in the Northern cities during the war, says: "The statements are lies, and I don't care a damn for all the Republican comments in Christendom."

Casimere, a saddle-colored member of the perfidious returning board of Louisiana, was recently in Washington demanding financial relief. To prevent a "sneak," which he threatened, the fraud contributed $50, while John Sherman and other radicals also responded liberally.

Dixon, after firing five shots at Barksdale, at Yazoo, Mississippi, was killed by a shot from the pistol of his antagonist. And now the radicals say the Democratic party did it. Bah! Suppose the radical party held responsible for the Beecher-Tilton, Conkling-Sprague, and DeYoung-Kalcho escapades and farces, what a howl would come up from Africa.

THE PROPER WAY.—If you wish the copy of any paper sent to your address discontinued, do not direct the postmaster to return it. And do not refuse it, nor leave it uncalled for. Neither of these plans will release you from the obligation to pay for it. But write to the publisher, requesting a statement of the amount of arrears, square it up, and the desire to have it discontinued can be complied with.

OLD SETTLERS' MEETING.—By an announcement in to-day's paper, it will be seen that the Old Settlers' Meeting will not be held at Mr. Benjamin's grove as previously announced. Owing to the fact that water can not be obtained in the vicinity of the grove it has been thought best to change the place of holding it to Rensselaer, where water, shelter, and every other convenience can be provided. Every pains will be taken to make the occasion pleasant and profitable to those who shall attend.

The additional distance from the former place of holding the meeting to this place is inconsiderable, and it is hoped that our Newton county friends will avail themselves of the occasion to visit our town where they will meet with a most cordial reception and enjoy the hospitalities of our citizens.

Here is an indication of the respect in which a brave Union soldier, who dares to think for himself, is held by a stay-at-home editor of a stalwart Radical sheet. It is an extract from an article in the Dayton Journal concerning Gen. Rice:

"Gen. Rice lost a leg under circumstances, that it is fair to presume, notwithstanding the present attitude of the general toward those that shot it off, that it was a Union leg. The enemies of the country shot it off in battle, and it is entitled to the profoundest respect and regard of all Union soldiers, for it lies mouldering in a Union grave, but Gen. Rice has abandoned the cause for which it was lost, and is now assisting those who shot it off in obtaining control of the Government. We must make a distinction between Rice and his lost leg. He having gone back on his Union leg, Union soldiers will go back on him. If it be true that there is a mysterious connection between a man and his lost limb, by which sensations are communicated to the brain, we have no doubt but that Union leg of Gen. Rice is doing some vigorous kicking about this time, at the general's recalcitancy to the cause for which it was lost. It will be the perfect of soldiers that the leg is justifiable in kicking under the circumstances."

FORMAL OPENING OF THE ROAD TO DELPHI, THURSDAY, SEPT. 4TH.

The following letters explain themselves:

DELPHI, IND., Aug. 25, 1879.
A. McCoy, Esq., Rensselaer, Ind.

Dear Sir:—The committee on invitation take pleasure in inviting through you the town officials of your town to be present at a formal opening of the I. D. & C. R. R. at this city on the 4th of September prox.

Hoping this may be sufficient to elicit a large interest and full representation, I am respectfully yours,

B. WALKER, Mayor.

DELPHI, IND., Aug. 27, 1879.
To the Board of Trustees of the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana.

Gentlemen:—The committee of general arrangements for the celebration of the formal opening for business of the

I. D. & C. R. R. on the 4th day of September, 1879, from Rensselaer to the city of Delphi, have directed me to extend to you, and through you to the citizens of your town, a cordial invitation to be present upon that occasion and join in the celebration of that long looked for event which we regard as being not only of importance to us alone, but to all citizens along the line, as the completion of this last division, now about to be celebrated, will add much to the more rapid construction of the contemplated route to Indianapolis and Chicago.

Please be kind enough to extend to your citizens generally a cordial invitation to be present on the occasion above referred to.

I am, gentlemen, with respect, your humble servant,

J. T. RICHARDSON,

Ch'n Com. Gen. Arrangements.

The Board of Trustees and other officials of our town have accepted the above kind invitations to be present at the formal opening of the I. D. & C. R. R. to Delphi, and extend a cordial invitation to the citizens of Rensselaer and the county generally to join in the celebration of the important event.

DELPHI'S JUBILEE.

September 4 the Day Designated.

Celebrating the Completion of the I. D. & C. to this City.

Delphi Times.

The following letter will fall as a soothing balm upon the lacerated patience of the citizens of Delphi. For years we have worked, waited and dreamed for the event now definitely announced for next Thursday week. The shrill whistle of the "Rowland Hughes," reverberating through the Walash bottoms, will be the sweetest music that has fallen upon the ears of the people for many years:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Delphi:

I have the honor of presenting the compliments of the Board of Directors of the I. D. & C. R. R. to you, and through you to the citizens of the City of Delphi and Deerpark and Tippecanoe townships for the honest and steadfast financial and moral support given by them to the enterprise, and also am instructed to inform, through you, the citizens of Delphi, Deerpark and Tippecanoe townships, and other localities who have aided and fostered the enterprise, that the Board of Directors have ordered that the Delphi division of the road, between the city of Delphi and Monticello, be formally opened for business to the city of Delphi on the 4th of September, 1879, and am further directed by said board to co-operate with your honorable body and the citizens of Delphi in any programme that you and they may see proper to adopt for the celebration of this important event in the history of the city and Carroll county. Very truly yours,

S. N. YEOMAN,
General Manager I. D. & C. R. R.
Mayor Walker at once called a special meeting of the Council for Wednesday evening. Pursuant to the call, that body assembled at the Council Chamber, and after a brief interchange of congratulations, adopted the following resolution by a unanimous vote:

Resolved, That the Mayor be instructed to call a mass meeting of the citizens of Delphi at the Court House on Thursday the 21st inst., at seven o'clock p. m., to take action on the communication of Col. S. N. Yeoman, General Manager of the Indianapolis, Delphi and Chicago railroad, relative to the opening of the division of the road, on the 4th of September, between the city of Delphi and Monticello.

On motion of Mr. Fisher, the Mayor was requested to have printed and circulated posters announcing the meeting.

So often has the Times congratulated the citizens of Delphi and Carroll county upon the progress of this road that anything further which we might say would almost of necessity be in the nature of repetition. As Colonel Yeoman fitly says, the people of Delphi have given the enterprise honest and steadfast financial and moral support. So earnest and unwavering has been this support on the part of our citizens that the Indianapolis, Delphi and Chicago railroad has come to be considered distinctively a Delphi enterprise. Long and patiently have our people waited, earnestly have they labored, to secure the building of this road, and now, when it has been completed to our city, we may be excused for the indulgence in what might be termed a delirium of enthusiasm. We hope every citizen of the county will heartily endorse the action of the meeting last night, and, by united effort, make the forthcoming celebration a jubilee to be remembered for years, and made a part of the history of our beautiful city.

DELPHI AND INDIANAPOLIS.

Two Townships in Clinton County Vote the Tax.

The Early Construction of the Line an Assured Fact.

Delphi Times.

On Wednesday morning a dispatch was received by W. F. Lytle, President of the Delphi and Indianapolis railroad containing the gratifying intelligence that two townships in Clinton county had voted a tax in aid of the construction of the road. These two townships are Warren and Michigan. The projectors of the enterprise have felt assured that they would carry the former, and they were equally certain that the opposition in the latter was too great to be overcome. The result is consequently an agreeable surprise. The managers think that after their success in Michigan township they will experience but little trouble throughout the line. The election in Burlington township, this evening, takes place on Monday, September 1, and there is not a shadow of doubt that the tax will be voted. The prospects of the Delphi and Indianapolis railroad have assumed a rosy tinge which every citizen of Carroll county will hope may continue until the last rail is laid and the last spike driven.

AN APPEAL FOR AID.

To the ex-Federal Soldiers:

Comrades—During our present calamity of a yellow fever epidemic, we appeal to you, comrades, to extend to us a ready and helping hand. Our families are suffering, either languishing with fever, or starving for the want of bread. We have formed our own relief association, known as the ex-Federal Relief Association, of Memphis. Every one of us applicants has had the yellow fever. Do you desire us to camp, aged and infirm, as the most of us are? Men who have fought on the plains of Mexico, we appeal to you. We do not inordinate the way and manner in which charitable contributions sent to this blighted city are expended. Forward your contributions to our treasurer, Captain I. B. Sloan, 35th Iowa Vol., office, 42 North Court street, Memphis, Tennessee.

INTERESTING TO MARRIED WOMEN.

A question of considerable interest to married women throughout the State is pending in the United States court, involving their rights in real estate owned by their husbands who have gone into bankruptcy, and held at the time of filing the petition. Until the law of 1875, a married woman was compelled to await the death before she could receive her share in his real estate. As the law now stands she takes an undivided one-third of his real estate in fee simple immediately upon a "judicial sale" of her husband's interest being made, and may have partition as though he were dead. The question raised is whether the bankruptcy of the husband and the sale made by the assignee as a "judicial sale" within the meaning of the law. It has been held by Judge Elliot, of the Superior Court, that the sale of the real estate by the assignee is a judicial sale, and entitles a wife to partition. Under the bankruptcy law a deed executed by the judge or register in the court, of the bankrupt's property to the assignee. It is claimed that this alone entitles the wife to partition, and it is this particular question that is under consideration by Judge Greenham.—[Indianapolis Journal.]

The Chicago Tribune says: The appointment of persons from civil life to vacant second lieutenantcies in the army has caused much criticism. The law provides for the promotion of meritorious non-commissioned officers, and contemplates the appointment of civilians only in case of the failure of candidates from the former class. Yet it seems to be the practice of the War Department to ignore the non-commissioned officers altogether, and look out for young men of good families in search of a career in the army. In a republican army there ought to be some chance for merit in the ranks to be rewarded. The regular general of modern times—Napoleon Bonaparte—believed in this principle thoroughly, and it was well known in his army that there was no place to which a brave man and a good soldier might not aspire.

The Maine farmers do not quite understand John Sherman's financial conclusions. The Boston Globe tells the farmers all about it when it says "the undeveloped farmer is quite as rich now, with a farm valued at $2,500, as he was ten or twelve years ago, when his farm was valued at $500, and mortgaged for $250, as to the worth a cent. Not that his farm has shrunk in real value till it cannot pay the debt, but that the debt has expanded in value till it absorbs the farm. It is just this for which we thank John Sherman and his party. Tell not your secrets in a corn-field; it has a thousand ears."

A judge, sentencing a man to death, observed: "Prisoner at the bar you will soon have to appear before another and a better judge."

Congressman De La Matry, of this State, is delivering Greenback speeches in Maine. As he is a Methodist clergyman in good standing he was invited to preach in the First Methodist Church in Bangor last Sunday week. Republican managers, at the instigation of Senator Blaine, had the invitation revoked. There was much indignation at this action, and in response to a circulation by citizens, De La Matry preached in Norumbega Hall at night. It is the largest hall in the city, and was filled to overflowing, notwithstanding a heavy rain storm was raging.

Taking Time by the Forelock.

Coming events cast their shadows before, and already, through the mists of months, the gladdest Holiday season of the year is being prepared. The youthful mind with pleasing speculation, and causing matterfamilies to consider in what direction she can exercise a little additional economy, whereby the money for presents may be forthcoming when required. And just in the nick of time there comes to hand a suggestion of how Johnny, and Mamie, and Flossie, and Charley may secure for themselves and by their own exertions, the jack knives and work boxes, and writing cases, and tool chests, for which their souls are longing; of how mamma may get that book or parlor ornament she has talked about so often; and of how, by their united exertions they may obtain a present herewith to surprise and gladden the soul of papa.

For the publishers of EMMA'S FASHION QUARTERLY are in the field with the new premium list of their magazine and all that mamma or children (or papa, should that matter) need, do to send name and address on a postal card to Messrs. Ehrlich & Co., of 287 Eighth Avenue, New York, when a copy of the list will be mailed them free, and they can appreciate for themselves the advantages offered.

The FASHION QUARTERLY so exactly fills its place as a guide to economy in the household, and its subscription price, only 50 cents a year, is so very trifling, that little difficulty should be experienced in securing subscriptions; and we have no doubt that thousands will gladly avail themselves of the opportunity thus presented of securing some useful article at a very moderate expense of time and trouble.
