

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1879.

Prison Director Hoover is in town to-day.

The infant daughter of John Zimmerman died to-day.

Prof. Pierce is progressing finely with his Institute of Penmanship.

The heaviest frost of the season was that of Wednesday night last.

Several of our citizens are at Chicago this week.

A child of Lewis Davison, of Barkley township, died last Wednesday of typhoid fever.

Commissioner Price and lady are visiting Clerk Charles H. Price, their eldest hopeful.

The Northern Prison will be turned over to the new management next Wednesday.

The self-supporting roof on Willey & Sigler's opera house is being erected by contractor Longshore.

F. R. Donnelly, of Remington, was in town last Saturday, and T. R. Barker, of Newton county, on yesterday.

The Jasper county Temperance Union will meet at the M. E. Church one week from next Monday evening.

Charles W. Lowman and Eliza J. Potts were married by Justice Marion on the 24th inst. All of Barkley township.

The Francesville Fair was well attended, and a success. The receipts were about $100 over and above expenditures.

Read an extract from the speech of Hon. D. W. Voorhees, delivered at Hamilton, Ohio. It will be found on the first page of this paper, and will well repay a careful perusal.

In accordance with the desire of a number of our patrons we today publish the list of premiums to be awarded by the Jasper County Agricultural Society at their Fair commencing the 7th of October next.

Eld. Hope B. Miller, of this place, was appointed Moral Instructor of the Northern Prison at a meeting of the new Board last Wednesday. Friend Miller is eminently fit for the position, and deserving of the appointment.

The wedding of Moses Tutter and Miss Rachel Bass, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Rensselaer, Wednesday morning, passed off very pleasantly. Presents and congratulations were the order of the day. We wish them much joy and happiness.

Radical papers are coming to hand with supplements containing what purports to be a page from the organ of the radical general committee, the Okolona "Southern States." Too gaudy, boys. If there is any pluck and honesty among members of your party they will resent the intended deception, and leave you away behind.

Will B. Hoover, editor of the Monticello Democrat, died at the residence of his father, Dr. Robert Hoover, in Burnettsville, White county, Ind., last Sunday evening. The Monticello Herald says "On Monday afternoon at 2 1/2 p. m., an autopsy was made upon the remains of Wm. Hoover, by Drs. Clark & Treacy, of Monticello, by request of Dr. Hoover, at the doctor's residence in Burnettsville. A thorough examination of all the organs of the thorax and abdomen was made. The heart and lungs were normal and presented a healthy appearance. The right kidney was enormously enlarged, and on cutting into it was found to be softened, and near the pelvis, (or body of kidney) several small abscesses were found containing pus. The left kidney was of nearly normal size; on the surface there were some 60 small ulcerated points, showing the existence of suppurative nephritis. On cutting into the bladder it was found very much distended with mucus membrane. At the fundus of the bladder was found an enormous stone weighing 2 ounces and 5 drachms, which was lying in a sac formed by the mucus coat of the bladder. Mr. Hoover was possessed of a very sensitive nervous organization, and on Sunday evening had a very severe spasm of pain, and having exerted himself more than his weakened constitution could stand, and died from the shock thus caused."

Will was about 28 years old. He entered our office, in Monticello, as an apprentice, in 1868, remaining but a few months, when he was induced to go to Frankfort, Clinton county, Ind. He was connected with the Logansport Journal for some time as solicitor and reporter, and about two years ago assumed management of the Monticello Democrat.

He was buried Tuesday forenoon at Burnettsville, by the Rev. River Lodge of I. O. O. F., of which he was a member at Logansport.
