

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1879.

Circuit Court convenes next Monday.

Deputy p. m. Art. Cole, is rusticated in Chicago.

David J. Thompson, Esq. has returned after a pleasant visit to Ohio.

October term, Commissioners Court, to make settlement with Trustees, will commence Monday.

A steer belonging to Jake Eggleston died from overheating last Saturday evening.

John Lear and Doc Spencer, of Monticello, and Cal. Spencer, of Big Creek township, White county, called in during the week.

The performance of the operatic troupe was well received by a crowded house, Thursday evening of last week.

Full returns for the Ohio election have not been received. We suppose, however, the radical majority may be placed among between 5,000 and 10,000.

Monticello Herald: S. P. Thompson and J. F. Burroughs, Rensselaer attorneys, favored the HERALD with a call Tuesday.

Ex-commissioner George Kessler, of Barkley township, while sawing timber for a bridge, received severe injuries from the saw, on Wednesday last. Dr. Loughridge waited upon him and afforded all the relief possible.

Mrs. Orlando McIntire while riding on a wagon with her husband, last Friday evening, in White county, was thrown therefrom, by the horses taking fright, receiving such injuries as resulted in death a short time thereafter.

Indianapolis Journal: Friends of the Indianapolis, Delphi & Chicago road are much encouraged, visits to the towns on the proposed line between Delphi and Indianapolis showing a willingness on the part of the citizens to aid in the enterprise. Several townships have already voted financial aid to the project and other townships in Hamilton county hold elections next week.

Last Saturday evening a most gratifying and successful test of the newly invented audiphone was made at the State Institution for the Deaf and Dumb at Indianapolis. By its use the deaf were made to hear and the dumb to speak. The audiphone is a fan-shaped instrument of peculiar construction, which gathers the sounds (somewhat similar to a telephone diaphragm) and, being held in the teeth, these sounds are conveyed by their medium to the auditory nerve.

Literary.
At a recent meeting of the "Irving Literary Club," a resolution was adopted to secure the following talent for the lecture course during the coming season: Susan B. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Clark, Homer D. Cope, Abby Sage Richardson, Alfred J. Knight, Col. Nicholas Smith, Eli Perkins and the Juvenile Pinetone Company.

This list will bear close inspection. It is an expensive course, and is also characterized by the highest degree of art and true merit. Should any herein mentioned fail to respond, the place will be filled by another equally as good, so that those purchasing tickets will run no risk. This enterprise will cost the "Irving Club" nearly $500.00, for which sum the members hold themselves responsible. The establishment of a lecture course in our little town is a great undertaking, and all should be not only interested, but lend a helping hand toward the improvement of public tastes and morals in this community.

The subject chosen for Miss Anthony's lecture, is—"Woman wants bread" at the ballot"—and is considered by the public generally as her best.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark will appear in their new and original Costume Trasties, Character Sketches, Recitations, etc.

Cope, in the rendition of Bani's Grand Classical Drama of "Damon and Pythias," followed by Mark Twain's Humorous Masterpiece entitled "Uncle Daniel's Apparition."

Abby Sage Richardson will present a "Trio of Poets"—Longfellow, Whitier and Lowell.

Alfred J. Knight is expected to appear in his famous Historical Costume Impersonations.

Col. Nicholas Smith will talk on "Horace Greeley," or "The True Aspirations of American Youth."

Eli Perkins will give the "Philosophy of Fun," while the "Pinetone Company" will present the fun sent mentally and musically.

Single tickets will be sold at 50-cents. Season tickets, $3.00; Season tickets admitting two, $5.00.

When called upon to purchase tickets, do not complain of the hard times, and then, during the season, spend ten times the amount in tobacco, cigars, or liquid headache.

Gentlemen, buy a season ticket for two, and take your wife, sister, or some other fellow's sister.

Ladies, if no one asks you whom you care to go with, just be independent and buy a ticket for yourself. True, you could spend the money in adorning the person; but do you know that in the world's great mart, adornment of the mind far surpasses decoration of the form. Forego a few trifles, every body, and help to make your town esthetically, among the best of its size, in the State.
