Newspaper Decisions.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their paper, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and their papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible for the cost of postage.

5. The carriers have decided that "refusing to take the paper" from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held liable for its cost.

7. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscribers will be responsible for it as an express notice, with payment of all arrears is sent to the publisher.

Preservative of the Dead.

The United States Consul General at Berlin, Dr. Kriesmann, has communicated to the Department of State a new process patented in Germany for preservation of the dead. The liquid used is prepared as follows: In 5,000 grammes of boiling water are dissolved 100 grammes of alum; 35 grammes of cooking salt, 12 grammes of saltpetre, 60 grammes of potash, and 10 grammes of arsenic acid. When cool it is filtered. To 10 liters of this liquid 1 liter of glycerine and 1 liter of methyl alcohol are added. The process of embalming is by saturating and impregnating the bodies with it. From 14 to 5 liters of the liquid are used for a body.—Scientific American.

There are persons here from Pittsburg, Pa., making arrangements for starting a pickle factory.

They want to be assured that two hundred acres of cucumbers being raised in this vicinity next year before they prepare to build vats and do other things necessary to bring the matter to a focus. The parties are thoroughly informed in regard to the business as they have long been engaged in it at other points and are confident of its success. We trust they will meet with the desired encouragement.—LaPorte Herald.

President W. F. Lytle, of the Indianapolis and Delphi Railway, was at the former city a day or so last week looking after the interests of his enterprise.

He speaks enthusiastically of the prospects for the early completion of the line. Arrangements were perfected whereby the subsidies will be raised and guaranteed in a very short time so that work may be commenced and energetically pushed when the spring opens.—Delphi Journal.

The Novels House, Kirtley & Son

proprietors, is now open to the public. It is a large and well arranged establishment, newly furnished, the table supplied with the best in the market, and the management will exert every effort to accommodate guests in a manner that will be appreciated.—Terms reasonable. Give the Novels House a trial.

R. D. Roberts, of Crystal Flouring Mills, Monticello, will exchange Flour for Wheat, and transfer same from and to depot at Monticello without charge.

O. B. McIntire, Banker and Real Estate Agent, Remington, has several choice and desirable town and country properties to dispose of on reasonable terms. He offers great bargains.

Clint Stackhouse says he will give one peck of his fine Clawson Wheat for every two new subscribers to the Sentinel.

"Thanksgiving."

For many years, in this country, say on a certain Thursday in November, the President, or some Governor, proclaims that the people will be expected to meet and thank God for His great kindness in giving us health, good crops, peace, &c. The people go to church in the morning, hear a sermon, and go home or some place else to eat turkey and other good things, talk politics and religion, and feel that God has been honored, and their stomachs loaded with the best the land produces. But on such days who are the worshippers? Mostly the rich—the bankers, the bondholders, the officeholders in counties, States and Union—those who by sharp management have money enough about to buy all the good things and not feel the expense; and then in great humility condescend to give to God all the praise. The poor can't spare the time and have not money to buy the costly dinners, and how could they be expected to meet with these money lords to praise a God who would allow them to feast and fatten on the honest labor of men made and kept poor by their extortion? Should we praise God for giving our people a little more money, temporarily, it must be, when he sees us he had to curse to the extent other nations as honest, industrious and religious as we? Why don't they come out honestly and tell us that "Resumption" has given us a little increase in money, and fattened all the turkeys? If the God of bountiful crops is giving us "special providences" it might be supposed the stormy and blustering day might be taken as an indication that he considered there was more of form and substance in a zeal hearted in the whole affair.

If our rulers will do a noble and unselfish act, that will benefit all classes of our people, poor as well as rich, and then appoint a day of "thanksgiving," they will meet in peace to praise and honor them, and if they please to hitch God on for a share, we presume there will be no objection to holding back on that account. It would then look a little more as though God were running matters all around.

If we consider the amount of suffering in the land, we might suppose that Jesus who ordered the Jews to halt, the lame, and the blind to feasts and big dinners, had been superseded, and that Grant, Sherman and Hayes had been running this precinct alone for the last twenty years.

A Pair of Four-Button Kid Gloves.

Gloves are such a necessary and expensive part of a lady's outfit that almost any one will thank us for telling them how they can get a pair of good four button kid gloves, any shade or size desired, FREE. The publishers of that handsome monthly, THE HOUSEKEEPER, 75 cents a year, want new subscribers, and are willing to pay liberally for them. The monthly is excellent, indeed it is a necessity to any woman who has seen and read a copy of it. If she has anything to do with the care or work of a house, and the gloves are good and serviceable, and look and fit as nicely as the best glove made, though, of course, they will not wear as long. To any lady who sends two new subscribers to THE HOUSEKEEPER at 75 cents each, the publishers will send one pair of good four-button kid gloves, post-paid.—This offer is good only till January 1st, as the gloves were a special bargain, and the supply is limited. For three new subscribers the publishers will send one extra copy of THE HOUSEKEEPER one year, and the gloves besides. Specimen copies and grand pictorial premium list sent free to any one who wishes to get up a club. Address THE HOUSEKEEPER, Minneapolis, Minn.

Those contemplating the draining will do well to secure the services of WIMB & COBELL, as they are the boss lot or open ditchers of Jasper county. So say W. R. Nowels, Geo. Burk, C. D. Stackhouse and others.—Orders left at the Sentinel office will receive prompt attention. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case or no pay.

John Zimmerman has moved his tailoring establishment to rooms over Teuter's store. Give him a call.

Tinware, lowest in price, ever offered in Rensselaer, at Clark's. Nowels building.

We understand Mr. Peacock, now of the City Hotel, is meeting with warm approval. He is uniting in his efforts to make it a pleasant home for his guests.

There is a good reason why A. Leopold can sell clothing lower than any other clothing house in Rensselaer. It is because he took advantage of the recent decline in price of goods, and purchased his full stock at 15 per cent. less than they can be bought for now.

Dr. A. H. Wirt, dentist, is in town, and will remain a short time. He will be happy to meet all desiring his professional services, at the law office of D. B. Miller, Esq., over the Narrow Gauge Clothing House.
