Read, Mark and Inwardly Digest—Something for Everybody.

ASHBURNHAM, Mass., Jan. 14, 1880.

I have been very sick over two years. The lungs and heart would fill up every night and distress me, and my throat was very bad. I told my children never about it, in case until I had tried Hop Bitters. I have taken two bottles. They have helped me very much indeed. I shall take two more, by that time I shall be well. There was a lot of folk like me who have been like they were, and they used them and are cured, and feel as thankful as I do that there is so valuable a medicine made. Yours,

Mrs. JULIA G. CUSHING.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 31, 1880.

RODNEY PEARSON.

WALHIEND, Kansas, Dec. 8, 1879.

I write to inform you what great relief I feel from taking your Hop Bitters.

I was suffering from neuralgia and dyspepsia, and a few bottles have entirely cured me, and I am truly thankful for so good a medicine.

MRS. MATTIE COOPER.

CEDAR BAYOU, Texas, Oct. 28, 1879.

I have, heretofore, been bitterly oppressed and vexed and perplexed by a physician of my choice. My wife, fifty-six years old, had come by degrees to slow sundown. Doctor failed to benefit her, and got a bottle of Hop Bitters, which she had never received her in many ways. My kidneys were badly affected, and I took twenty or thirtysix doses, and found much relief. I sent to Galveston for more, and word came back home in the market, so great is the demand; but, as you know, it is a new article. It has restored health of us good health, and we are truly grateful. Yours,

J. P. MAGET.

HOP BITTERS CO.:

I wish to say to you that I have been suffering from the last five years with a severe fitsilting all over my body, and speak me. Counsel me; consider me, pity me. Anything, anything to divert my mind, for my heart is breaking.

These words, half a wail and half a whisper, fell suddenly upon my ear with such a pathetic appeal for sympathy that had a knife pierced my heart, its keen throb of pain could not have been greater. My pen dropped from my fingers, and I was in a moment of sudden transition from mystic realms of darkness, that the sorrow of some of our medicine, my skin is well, clean and smooth as ever.

HENRY KNOCH.

MILTON Del., Feb. 10, 1880.

Being induced by a neighbor to try Hop Bitters, I was greatly pleased with it as a tonic medicine. It has so much improved my feelings, and benefited my system, wh ch was very much in a state of tone, causing great feebleness.

MRS. JAMES PETTS

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Feb. 22, 1880.

I know Hop Bitters will bear recommendation honestly. All who use them confer upon them the highest recommendation, and give them credit for masking cures, and proprie's claim that they have been known to cure all diseases.

I have known them to be of great service, it was at the time when they were first offered to the public.

Yours, W. T. MCCLURE.

KAHOKA, Mo., Feb. 9, 1880.

I purchased a bottle of your Hop Bitters of Bishop & Co., last fall, for my daughter, and am well pleased with the Bitters. They did her more good than a tincture medicine she had taken for six years.

YANKEE CHARON.

BY MARY P. RUSSELL.

In days of old, as we are told,

Beside the Stygian tide,

Charon dwelt, with whom all dead

had to pay the toll.

And for his task, each would ask

A shilling in return,

And every ghost who lacked a cent,

He left the dead to turn.

And today crowns, funereal shrouds,

And wailing wretches, who could not pay

A hundred years or more.

Among the throng that came along,

New England sent a man,

"To the Elysian grove;

Am I not to be more than a mere ghost?"

And he looked up at the ghostly crowd,

"To a raft on which to float;

An Irishman who's near at hand

He hired to build the boat.

Says Pat, "Be good, a poor job

To be a ghost is not to be more

Than to be a ghost."

Then Eli said, "Twas in my head

How I could not get home,

How I could not get home.

Pat looked up at the ghostly crowd,

"To a raft on which to float;

An Irishman who's near at hand

He hired to build the boat.
