Norton, and published by Messrs. D. Appleton & Co., of New York, in a handsome octavo of 32 pages, double column. It is historically accurate, and perfectly reliable.

To enable clubs to circulate it, orders of not less than fifty copies will be supplied by this Committee, at the rate of five cents per copy. Sample copies, six cents. Remittances may be sent in money, post-office orders, or postage stamps.

Address, W. H. BARNUM,

MEMORABLE WORDS

Lincoln's Opinion of Hancock

"Some of the older general have said to me that he is rash, and I have said to them that I have watched General Hancock's conduct very carefully, and I have found that when he goes into action he achieves his purpose and comes out with a smaller list of casualties than any of them. If his life and health is spared I believe General Hancock is destined to one of the most distinguished men of the age."

We have no reason to doubt that those who wore the gray will fill all the places they now occupy in loyalty to the flag and nation—General Grant.

MAINE!!

The Demo-National

Ticket elected in spite of Blaine's effort to play his card of two years ago! Hurrah for Maine!!

Rally!

At Rensselaer!!

On next Tuesday!!!

September 28, 1880!!!!

Mon. Franklin Landers!

The next Governor of Indiana!

Gen. Samuel F. Carey, of Ohio!!

Hon. Thos. J. Wood, of Lake Co.!!!

Will address the people of Jasper and adjoining counties.

"Did you hear from Maine?"

A girl at Billy Legg's, and a boy at Dan Miller's.

Colonel John S. Williams at the Court House to-night.

The next Governor on the 28th—Don't fail to hear him.

Bob Ingerson says the result in Maine is "Damned bad."

Grand Torchlight Procession of Hancock Legions in the evening.

Messrs. Esau Hart and Jas. Pepple, of Remington, call in to see us yesterday.

General James A. Garfield, of Ohio." Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, in May, 1880."

And now turn to the first page of this SENTINEL, and there see the correct estimate of "their strongest man" as expressed by Mr. Hendricks. Mr. Permits Garfield to establish his own character; but for this he might be charged with playing a shabby trick upon the opposition. And now, if he is the "best" and "strongest man" in their party, what can be said of their other aspirants.

Twenty-two Union Generals engaged in canvassing Indiana for Hancock. The bloody-shirt will have to rest.

Mr. Williams, of Kentland, son-in-law of Mr. John Makeever, and family are visiting friends here this week.

Albert G. Porter, the Republican candidate for Governor, when in Congress, voted against the legal-tender power of the Greenback.

Hon. Frank Landers challenged his competitor, Hon. A. G. Porter, to meet him in joint discussion at this place next Tuesday, but he declined.

Read the "Dissection of Garfield," by Vice President Hendricks. It will be found on the first page of this SENTINEL. We invite for it an attentive perusal.

Before the election in Maine "Dirty Dog" Legg was asked how they expected to carry that State? He responded: "Buy it by G—d!" But it was not for sale.

Radicals still continue the importation of negroes into this State. Let Democrats everywhere throughout the State be on the alert. Permit no illegal votes to be cast.

And now Baine says the Republicans of Maine sold out. Heartless men, to go back on your followers in that style. Get down upon your knees before Mulligan, again.

The Democratic meetings held throughout the county, and the success attending the organization of Democratic Clubs, is very encouraging.

4th. Accounts of meetings held.

5th. Reports, every two weeks, during the campaign, of the number and increase of membership, with the condition and prospects of the campaign.

The Hancock Legion made a brilliant display at this place Monday evening. Every uniform was ill-fitted. Had it been desired that all join in the procession, without reference to uniforms, the number in line would have been tripled.

The Washington Post says: "One of the gratifying signs of the times is seen in the fact that the young men of the country—those just coming on the stage of political action, are largely allying themselves with the Democratic party.

The anxiety of the Republican for the success of those only where its party lay, was uncovered by us, and this week it lets go the sheriff and flies to the help of its candidate for congress. Wonder if it thinks there's a remote chance for the post office.

There are more than 1,000,000 more Democratic voters in the North than in the South. The vote of 1876 was as follows:

Democratic vote in the South, 1,614,160

Democratic vote North, 2,671,430

Total, 4,285,590

Now talk "solid South." Indiana points to a "solid North" for the Democracy.

Union soldiers will bear in mind the principles for which they fought and vote the way they shot—Montgomery Herald.

There now, Generals Slocum, Sigel, Irwin, and eighteen or twenty other Union Generals distinguished in the late war, now canvassing Indiana for Hancock & English, do you hear that? True, the Herald boys seen no service at the front, but they have performed faithful duty in the post office for lo these many years, and hesitate to give it up.

Much has been made by Democrats as to the number of voters in the ranks, last Saturday night. We are informed on good authority, that by actual count there were 2,671,430, or 670,000 voters in the processions and are authorized by responsible parties to say, that if money is a consideration in the matter, they are ready to substantiate their statement as the number above named.—Republican.

Well, we counted them three times, give them credit with the highest number, with this result:

Whole number, 149

Boys, 56

Number of voters, 93

We accept our own authority, substantiated by personal observation, over and above that of any other.

Mr. Graham Morocco Courier, called in to see us this morning.

The radical bosses are making great preparations for their rally, and judging from the efforts put forth they expect to be a success. Gen. Thompson is working with all his might, and supervising arrangements generally. "Chief boss" of his party, in Jasper county, he cannot indulge the thought that he must lose his "grip" through the success of the opponents of his party.

Hampshire and Rhode Island, altho these States cast 296,607 Republican votes.

The Rensselaer Schools have dismissed over to Wednesday morning of next week.

Mrs. Mary Falting, of Monticello, is visiting her sister Mrs. J. L. Purpure, at this place.

Misses Ana and Frankie McEwen are visiting old friends and associates at Monticello this week.

John Kohler left in our office this morning a ladies' light cloak. The owner can get it by calling at this office.

Courtesy Treasurer Adams informs us that he expects orders in a few days to commence the collection of the railroad taxes.

The New York Evening Post says the "bloody-shirt" programme, and the assessment of Government workingmen won't win, and demands a change by the radical managers.

"I will tell you whom I think the Republicans should nominate and whom I consider their strongest man."

The report that the DePauws of New Albany had gone over to the radicals is denied by them in a card.

National Democratic Platform.

The Democrats of the United States in Convention assembled,

1. We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrines and traditions of the Democratic party, as illustrated by the teaching and example of a long line of illustrious patriots, embodied in the platform of the last Democratic Convention of the nation.

2. Opposition to the Lander, and to the dangerous spirit of encroachment which tends to create whatever form of despotism, and thus to create whatever sumptuary laws; separation of church and state for the good of each; common schools fostered for the public good.

3. Home rule, honest money, consisting of gold and silver and paper convertible into coin, and the strict maintenance of the public faith, State and National, and a tariff for revenue only.

4. The subordination of the military power to the civil power, and the separation of the civil service from the military.

5. The election of the President by the people, and the right of the states to secede if they once become a separate nation.

6. The right of the states to secede if they once become a separate nation.

7. The people of Indiana are justly proud of the public expenditure of $40,000,000 a year; upon the continuance of prosperity at the present rate, and upon the promise of a good harvest, we will not be afraid to increase the public expenditure.

8. We are gratified by the Democrats in Congress, who are to be congratulated on their honest and upright conduct in their support of the spirit of justice and liberality.

9. We hold up to the nation the conduct of the
