

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Engines has sold for $100,000 her villa at Biarritz, and it will be cut up into building lots.

It is stated that the Porte is sending troops to the Greek frontier. The Greeks threaten to declare war if the Turks do not immediately withdraw.

London dispatch says the latest news from Cairo, received at Simla, is entirely satisfactory. It does not seem the rumor prevalent last week of the murder of the Amer and revolt of anarchy.

Earl Malmesbury, 74 years of age, has married Miss Hamilton, a lady of 24.

Carlyle has again been forced to cease work on his autobiography.

The British coasting steamer Elenore, with fifteen persons on board, was lost in the recent gale.

Another South American revolution is announced. Venturina, the President of the Republic of Ecuador, has been deposed and his Government dissolved.

Parrell and Dillon and thirteen other Land-Leaguers have been indicted in Dublin, and will be tried in that city about Christmas.

Hard times are being endured by the Socialists of Germany. Eighty members of the organization have been expelled from Hamburg, and twenty families have been forced to leave Altona.

Some time ago a band of about 200 robbers plundered the Brazilian town of Januaria, and got away with their booty. The hiding-place of the gang has just been discovered and broken up, about sixty of the marauders being killed.

There are heavy operations in British consuls, which are selling at par, the highest price since the Crimean war.

A syndicate in Paris will make an advance of $4,000,000 to Greece on security of its monastic and state lands.

By the breaking of a hoisting apparatus in a Belgian mine thirteen men were killed.

The German Government refuses to accede to the request of Count Von Arnim for a suspension of sentence and a trial for high treason.

The English Channel Squadron has been ordered to Ireland. The Government evidently anticipates trouble in the Green Isle. The Land-Leaguers, however, have issued an address in which they declare their agitation to be thoroughly legal and peaceful, and that it will be maintained in that way until their object is attained.

The Shah of Persia has appealed to the British Government to send him a fleet of ships to the Persian Gulf, which he has written by Mr. George H. J. Joseph, entitled "A Gentleman from Nevada." The central figure in the new play is the name of Christopher Columbus.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

JAS. W. McEWEEN Editor

VOLUME IV.

RENSSALAER, JASPER COUNTY, INDIANA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1880.

NUMBER 40.

through the mail, and that Philip never saw it until it appeared in fac-simile. Hart had looked at first about its genuineness, but after subjecting it to a microscopic examination and consulting with Chairman Barnum he concluded to publish it.

Through the carelessness of a switchman a freight and a passenger train came into collision on the Lake Erie and Western railroad near Penn Horn creek, N. J. The engineer of the passenger train and the fireman of the freight train were killed.

It is now deemed certain that within two years $12,000,000 will be expended on the Cape Cod canal.

Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague has determined to bring action for divorce against her husband, a 55-year-old man, of Rhode Island.

Willie, a 15-year-old son of ex-Gov. Sprague, made an unsuccessful attempt, at Providence, R. I., to shoot Robert Thompson, his mother's trustee.

John P. Gordon, of Quincy, Mass., was fatally shot in a midnight struggle with a horse.

The steamer Rhode Island struck White rock, and went ashore in Narragansett bay. She had 170 passengers on board, all of whom were saved. She was valued at $500,000. Wreckers pronounced her a total loss.

Col. Miles telegraphed to military headquarters at Chicago, from Fort Kough that he had been ordered to the United States by the President to succeed Senator Cameron as the Hon. Philletas Sawyer, the Hon. E. W. Keyes, ex-Senator Howe, the Hon. Horace B. Lee, and several other horses.

Gen. Harrison, Hon. John C. New, Hon. Will C. Campbell, Congressman Orth and Judge Gordon are candidates for United States Senator in Indiana.

Five of the members of the Legislature elected in Tennessee are colored men.

The Cincinnati National Bank has been opened in Cincinnati, with $1,000,000 capital.

A German Count, who stole several saws at Fort Wayne, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

There are twenty-five murderers in the jail at San Francisco, awaiting trial.

The Grand Jury of San Francisco has indicted Sheriff Desmond, of that city, for felony in permitting prisoners to escape.

The St. Paul Company will lay its Black Hills track to within twenty miles of the Missouri before closing operations this fall.

A collision on the Milwaukee and St. Paul road, near Minneapolis, killed three men and wrecked two locomotives.

Mayor Kallioch, of San Francisco, has been arrested on an indictment which springs from his employing laborers by the day on the new City Hall.

The Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad has agreed to pay $100,000 and Spotted Tail $100,000 per mile for the right of way through the Sioux reservation, $4 per acre for station ground, and $5 per acre for a town site.

Elbridge J. Dawson, Assistant Postmaster at Leaville, and Edward A. Clark, stump clerk, are in jail for embezzling $6,000.

Mr. J. B. Polk, who is favorably remembered in Chicago for his representation of Platte in "The Bachelor's Daughter," is now starring at McVicker's, in that city, in a piece written by Mr. George H. J. Joseph, entitled "A Gentleman from Nevada." The central figure in the new play is the name of Christopher Columbus.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The Senatorial race in Ohio promises to be an interesting one. Gov. Charles Foster, Judge Alphonse Taft and Stanley Matthews are the most prominent aspirants.

Gen. Hancock, says a New York dispatch, has been so early overworked during the canvass that his friends are in some alarm at his condition. He is a man of full habit, and has been so closely confined for some time, and so hard at work at his office and campaign duties, and taken so little recreation, and been suffering so much from repeated colds and chest and throat troubles, that he must rest now for some time. His most intimate friends are really anxious about him.

At a meeting of the Tammany Hall general committee, in New York, an address to the Democracy of the country was read, claiming Hancock's defeat was due to fraud, intimidation and the use of enormous sums of money by the Republicans. Mr. Van Wyck moved an amendment that Hancock's defeat was due to the mismanagement and backing of the Democratic leaders in Kings county and New York city. Thomas F. Grady, Col. Roberts, and others opposed the amendment. Henry Stearns advocated the amendment, and said people no longer wanted Boss Kelly, and he should resign. Some hot discussion was followed by rejection of the amendment and adoption of a resolution endorsing the leadership of Kelly.

Five of the members of the Legislature elected in Tennessee are colored men.

The Cincinnati National Bank has been opened in Cincinnati, with $1,000,000 capital.

A German Count, who stole several saws at Fort Wayne, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

There are twenty-five murderers in the jail at San Francisco, awaiting trial.

The Grand Jury of San Francisco has indicted Sheriff Desmond, of that city, for felony in permitting prisoners to escape.

The St. Paul Company will lay its Black Hills track to within twenty miles of the Missouri before closing operations this fall.

A collision on the Milwaukee and St. Paul road, near Minneapolis, killed three men and wrecked two locomotives.

Mayor Kallioch, of San Francisco, has been arrested on an indictment which springs from his employing laborers by the day on the new City Hall.

The Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad has agreed to pay $100,000 and Spotted Tail $100,000 per mile for the right of way through the Sioux reservation, $4 per acre for station ground, and $5 per acre for a town site.

Elbridge J. Dawson, Assistant Postmaster at Leaville, and Edward A. Clark, stump clerk, are in jail for embezzling $6,000.

Mr. J. B. Polk, who is favorably remembered in Chicago for his representation of Platte in "The Bachelor's Daughter," is now starring at McVicker's, in that city, in a piece written by Mr. George H. J. Joseph, entitled "A Gentleman from Nevada." The central figure in the new play is the name of Christopher Columbus.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

The excitement in Ireland growing out of the Land League prosecution is becoming intense. A Land League meeting at Athlone on Sunday, the 7th inst., was attended by 200 of the Irish peasantry, some of whom walked fifty miles to be present. Farnell, who had been invited to deliver the address, was not present. The speaker was Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, who was arrested by the police and taken to the Athlone gaol.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

New England.

MAINE.

ALBANY, Nov. 3.—The result of the September election was reversed in the Pine Tree State, the Republican majority being between 4,000 and 5,000. The straight Greenback ticket received only about 3,000 votes.

ALBANY, Nov. 4.—The returns indicate that the majority for Garfield will reach, if it does not exceed, 5,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, Nov. 3.—New Hampshire elects the Republican electors and State ticket by from 2,000 to 2,500. Three Republican Congressmen are probably elected, though in the First district the vote is close.

CONCORD, Nov. 4.—Garfield's plurality is about 4,000. Hall, Republican, is elected in the First district by over 600 plurality; Briggs, Republican, in the Second, by over 1,600; Farr, Republican, in the Third, by over 1,000.

VERMONT.

BURLINGTON, Nov. 3.—Vermont slightly increased the majority which she gave the Republican State ticket last September. Returns thus far received indicate the majority for Garfield may reach 30,000, though 25,000 is probably nearer the truth.

MASSACHUSETTS.

IN MASSACHUSETTS the Republicans elected a straight Congressional delegation of eleven—a gain of one. The Garfield electoral ticket is elected by about 50,000 majority. Boston complete returns show 27,000 for Garfield, 27,000 for Hancock, 27,000 for the Democratic ticket.

MASSACHUSETTS.

THE COMPLETE vote, lacking nine towns, is counted, and Garfield's plurality is 57,702, and Gov. Long's 50,854 over Thompson. The Tenth Congressional district is still in a deadlock. The Democratic ticket is elected in Boston. Moore (Democrat) is probably elected. The Legislature will sit at 10:30. Senate, 53 Republicans, 42 Democrats, 2 Greenbacks.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 3.—Rhode Island complete returns give Garfield a plurality of 7,263. The Democratic ticket is elected by 2,291 over the majority for Hayes. Both the Republican Congressmen are elected.

CONNECTICUT.

RETURNS from all but twenty-two small towns in Connecticut give Garfield 59,372 and Hancock 28,850. These counts after the result, and will increase rather than decrease the Republican majority. The Legislature, which selects a United States Senator, is expected to elect Garfield by a large majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

THE FOLLOWING is the vote of the four principal cities in 1876 and 1880:

	1876.	1880.
New York.....	58,561	112,330
Chicago.....	42,501	81,728
Brooklyn.....	27,967	54,333
Philadelphia.....	71,736	62,180

Kansas has the Republican electors, lacking the small town of Hamden, is 131,913 for President and 131,639 for Governor. Garfield received 66,661; Hancock, 64,043; Weaver, 441; Dow, 345; Garfield's plurality, 2,618. Hancock received 64,043; Weaver, 441; Dow, 345; Garfield's plurality, 2,618.

THE PENNSYLVANIA Railway Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, and an extra dividend of 1 per cent.