

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
One copy one year, in advance, $1.50
One copy six months, in advance, .75
One copy three months, in advance, .40
Advertising rates on application.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

FOREIGN NEWS.

A Dublin dispatch says: Although terrorism has not diminished in the West and South of Ireland, there is, in other parts of the country, the Government is fully alive to the plans of the Fenians, and is prepared to defeat them. The tenants of several estates heretofore refusing to pay rents are now paying.

Seventeen persons perished by an explosion in the Whitfield colliery in Staffordshire, England.

The Home-Rulers have decided to carry into the great towns of England and Scotland the agitation against coercion.

The steamer Bohemian, from Boston for Liverpool, was wrecked in Duncannon bay, and thirty-two persons drowned. She had a cargo of bacon and cotton.

Orders have been given to treat David with all possible indulgence. He is to be kept apart from other convicts, and is not to be subjected to prison labor, though he must wear the prison garb.

In consequence of a serious disagreement with King Alfonso in regard to refunding the debt, the members of the Spanish Ministry have tendered their resignations.

Brennan, Secretary of the Irish Land League, is coming to America to collect money. Walsh, another Treasurer, is going to Australia for the same purpose.

The steamer Bohemian, which was wrecked off the coast of Ireland, was valued at $500,000, and her cargo was worth half that amount.

The Skupchina of Serbia has resolved to do away with the monasteries.

The British troops have again been defeated by the Boers, in South Africa.

The Archbishop of Dublin has replied to the Pontifical letter concerning the Irish agitation, claiming that pernicious laws for centuries have reduced the people to the extreme of misery, and the abrogation of the statutes is demanded, that while deploable acts and speeches have blackened a just cause, it must not be forgotten that the people have despaired of justice.

The publication of the Russo-African correspondence reveals the fact that a secret treaty was made by which Russia bound herself to perpetual friendship with Afghanistan, and undertook to assist the Amir against foreign enemies. Two months later the Russian Foreign Minister wrote to the Afghan Foreign Minister, advising him to make peace openly with England, but in secret to prepare for war.

A plan for inciting the Mohammedans in India to rebellion is also revealed. The plan is significant that the dates of the Berlin treaty, which professedly settled the differences between England and Russia.

At a fair in Kilkenny, Ireland, the people stoned the police, and at Ballynahinch the police stoned the people.

The distress is so great among the United tribes in Russia that they are selling their male children for grain and leaving their girls to perish.

Twelve of the Home Rule party are to proceed to Ireland and hold meetings after the passage of the Coercion act, thus inviting arrest.

News is received of the capture of Lima by the Chileans on Jan. 15, after two desperate battles, in which the losses are said to have been 16,000 men. The Chinese quarter of the city was burned by the Peruvians before the surrender.

The Christians of Macedonia are leaving on account of ill-treatment.

Baroness Bartlett-Coutts and William I. Ashmead Bartlett were married last week, in Christ Church, London. Mr. Bartlett will assume the name of Bartlett-Coutts before his marriage. A great lunch was given at the wedding. Should the decision be adverse to the Baroness, she will still have about $10,000 left.

An Irish Land Leaguer named Habon has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment for making a treasonable speech.

Eleven out of thirteen Socialists on trial in Vienna, Austria, for high treason were acquitted. The remaining two were sentenced to imprisonment, one for four years and the other for six months.

Several regiments of all arms have been ordered to Natal to take the place of the men killed by the Boers.

Furnell and six of his associates in the Central depot at Buffalo gave beneath an accumulation of snow and fell, burying in its ruins a number of cars and several human beings. Heavy rains, private secretary to Superintendent Tillghast, of the New York Central road, William Wells, clerk of the Inspector Howe, of the Lake Shore road, Capt. Byrne and two others were crushed to death, and several other persons received serious injuries.

The clearings in New York in January were the largest ever known in any month by nearly $400,000,000.

A new banking institution, to be called the United States Bank, is expected to commence business in New York early in the spring. Among the Directors of the new bank are Gen. Grant, Logan C. Murray, late President of the Kentucky National Bank, W. R. Travers and H. V. Newcomb.

At Rock Hill, S. C., the North Pennsylvania railroad, during a dense fog, a passenger train crashed into a freight train entering upon a siding. Two men were instantly killed, four fatally injured, and four seriously.

The button shop of the Seville Manufacturing Company, in Waterbury, Ct., was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

President Hayes was the guest of the Baltimore Press Association at its annual banquet.

Charles Edward Forbes, Judge of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts in 1848, died in Northampton, aged 85.

The venerable Judge Ezra Wilkinson, of the Superior Court of Massachusetts, is about to resign.

The Central Boat Owners' Association of New York has adopted a resolution urging the Legislature the abolition of all tolls upon west-bound freight.

JAS. W. McEWEEN Editor

VOLUME V.

RENSSELAER, JASPER COUNTY INDIANA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1881.

$1.50 per Annum.

NUMBER 2.

"A Firm Adherence to Correct Principles."

MISCELLANEOUS GLEANINGS.

The steamer California brought to San Francisco specimens of gold quartz from Alaska which weigh $3,000 to the ton. The new Eldorado is eighty miles north of Sitka.

One man was killed and six injured by the explosion of a drill boiler at the Welland canal, near Humboldt, Ont.

Of the 85,855 immigrants who landed in Canada last year, 47,770 proceeded to the United States.

The extraordinary weather of the current season culminated on Saturday, the 12th inst., in one of the most furious snow-storms ever known throughout the Western States, and in heavy rains, consequent floods, and extensive damage in the Eastern States. The rains in the East, following the partial thaw, swelled the rivers, and all the principal dikes along the Potomac, the Pennsylvania river, and other streams, had their streets turned into temporary canals. The extraordinary sight was witnessed in Washington city of two boats employed in transferring passengers along Pennsylvania avenue. Three spans of Long bridge was washed away. At Toledo, Ohio, the water in the streets was five feet high. Boats, barges and schooners were caught in the ice gorges, and many of them were sunk. Trains could not move, and the streets were covered with ice.

A fire at Oniro, Wis., destroyed one-half of the business part of the town, including ten stores, a planing-mill, Thompson & Hayden's carriage works and a large business block. The loss is not less than $200,000.

J. C. Ferguson & Co.'s extensive pork-house, at Indianapolis, has been destroyed by fire. Loss estimated at $500,000; insurance, $385,000.

A collision on the Ohio and Mississippi river, near Owensville, Ill., killed three laborers and wounded several others.

Sitting Bull is again located at his old camp at Woody Mountain, British Territory.

The population of Indiana is classified thus: Total census, 1,978,362, of whom 1,010,876 are males and 967,486 females, and 39,363 colored, including 233 Indians and half-breeds, thirty-three Chinese, and four Japanese.

Several Chicago grocers have been arrested and fined for selling rotten butter.

A fleeing band of Apaches was thoroughly whipped by a party of New Mexicans, who killed eight and sent the remainder off in haste for the frontier.

Four men were swept into eternity by the explosion of fire-damp in Warner's coal-bank, Robinson Station, Ohio, and five others were badly injured.

The details of a drunken tragedy come over the wires from New Mexico, where Julian Vigil chopped his wife and daughter into pieces, mortally wounded his son, and hanged himself to a rafter.

The explosion of the "Michigan Avenue Baptist Church, in Chicago, was destroyed by an incendiary fire. The loss was about $50,000.

Six laborers were burned to death by an explosion in the Belmont mine, near Helena, M. T.

China is to have a grain elevator with a capacity of 600,000 bushels. The Union Pacific railway will subscribe $60,000 toward its construction and leading citizens have pledged $40,000.

After an extended tour in "furrin parts," the well-known comedians Baker and Perton appear at McVicker's Theater, in Chicago, on Thursday, "The Gladiator," "Furrin," "It is said to be very amusing, and is made a great hit abroad. The engagement of Sig. Tommas Salvini will begin at McVicker's Theater, on Feb. 11. The programme for the week will be as follows: Monday, "The Gladiator," Wednesday, "The Gladiator," Thursday, "The Gladiator," Friday evening, "Othello." On Tuesday and Friday evenings and Wednesday and Saturday matinees, the Boston Globe Theater company will perform, during the Salvini season, "The Great London and New York success, "The Gladiator."

The steamer Josephine, running between Havana and New Orleans, was wrecked near Ship Island, the passengers and crew being rescued after floating in small boats for seven hours.

The Southern Oil Works, in Memphis, were destroyed by fire. The loss was $125,000. A loss of $85,000 was incurred at Denison, Tex., by the burning of Kuhn's grocery store. Goodell's dry-goods establishment, and the Herald office, were also destroyed.

The Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio railroad was sold at auction at Richmond, Va., under a decree of the United States Circuit Court. Clarence H. Clark, of Philadelphia, became the purchaser for himself and associates for $95,000.

A land-slide at the tunnel near Asheville, N. C., was being removed by a force of twenty convicts, when a large mass of earth fell into the cut, and the whole number of four of the men were killed, several others sustained serious injuries, and some of them are expected to die.

The murder of F. H. Peterson, of Madison, Fla., by a negro named Savage, created intense excitement. The assassin was taken to jail, and the negro named two militia companies to keep guard over him.

A volcano has been discovered in the Allegheny mountains, in Fayette county, Va. Steam rises in considerable volume, and stones are hurled, thus plunging down the slopes for several rods.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The official census footings for the State of Pennsylvania are as follows: Males, 1,183,638; females, 1,146,151; total, 2,329,789; colored, 567,533; white, 1,762,256; aged, 85,659, including in the State 16 Chinese, 8 Japanese, 168 Indians and half-breeds, and 2 East Indians. Total, 4,282,786.

The Senate Committee on Territories authorized Senator Saunders to report with a recommendation for the passage of the bill for creating the Territory of Pembina, to consist of the northern half of Dakota.

It is reported that Speaker Randall is firmly opposed to any greater rate of interest than 8 per cent. in the refunding measure, and that in the conference committee appointed by him no compromise will be thought of.

POLITICAL POINTS.

A Washington telegram says: "It now seems impossible that the nomination of Mr. Matthews will be gotten out of the Judiciary Committee. It is learned positively that Senator Edmunds opposes his confirmation. This leaves Mr. Matthews with but two friends on the committee. Senator Thurman told a Democratic member of the House that he had never performed, but the growing way of railroad corporations warned him

INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

SATURDAY, Feb. 5.—SENATE.—Bills were introduced: Appropriating $200,000 annually to Purdue University; looking to the establishment of homes and schools for children born in the poor-house, increasing the pay of the Speaker of the House to $10 per diem; creating a board of thirty inspectors for the benevolent institutions, to serve without pay, and six members to be women; providing that all ministers of the gospel of good moral standing, and graduates of reputable theological colleges, shall have the right to preach in this State, and any minister of reputable character, but not a graduate, who has preached for ten consecutive years, may continue to preach. A committee was directed to inquire into the feasibility of selling University Park.

HOUSE.—The House fought for several hours over a resolution admitting George Meuser to the Soldiers' Home. It was finally adopted. A strong pressure was made for the passage of a bill to amend the Bridge law, permitting cities to issue bonds to insure construction, etc., but the Senate action rendered it impossible to bring it to a vote.

MONDAY, Feb. 7.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the session yesterday with the bill providing for the reorganization of the constitution. The bill, however, was not passed. The House passed the bill for the reorganization of the constitution.

HOUSE.—About twenty new bills were introduced, among which were: Abolishing the Grand Jury system, and bringing prosecutions before the judges of the peace; establishing a whipping-post for wife-beaters; providing for the separation of the sexes in the State Prison; a bill for the Bureau of Statistics, enacting a household exemption law, etc.

TUESDAY, Feb. 8.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the day considering bills on second reading. A resolution was adopted fixing on Friday morning to take a vote on the bill calling for a Constitutional Convention, and re-establishing the old mode of electing Senators.

HOUSE.—A considerable and somewhat heated debate was held over the House's Resolution to amend the law relating to the election of judges for colored and white children. The Legislature will visit the Normal school at Terre Haute, and the State Normal school at Indianapolis.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 9.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill authorizing cities to establish homes and schools for dependent children, and to provide for the care of the insane. The measure empowering the Governor to appoint the Trustees and Directors of the various benevolent and reformatory institutions. A bill passed for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 10.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 11.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 12.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 13.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 14.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 15.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 16.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 17.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 18.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 19.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 20.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 21.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 22.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 23.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 24.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 25.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 26.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 27.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 28.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 29.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 30.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 31.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 32.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 33.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 34.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 35.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 36.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 37.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 38.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 39.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 40.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 41.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 42.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 43.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 44.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 45.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 46.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

SATURDAY, Feb. 5.—SENATE.—Bills were introduced: Appropriating $200,000 annually to Purdue University; looking to the establishment of homes and schools for children born in the poor-house, increasing the pay of the Speaker of the House to $10 per diem; creating a board of thirty inspectors for the benevolent institutions, to serve without pay, and six members to be women; providing that all ministers of the gospel of good moral standing, and graduates of reputable theological colleges, shall have the right to preach in this State, and any minister of reputable character, but not a graduate, who has preached for ten consecutive years, may continue to preach. A committee was directed to inquire into the feasibility of selling University Park.

HOUSE.—The House fought for several hours over a resolution admitting George Meuser to the Soldiers' Home. It was finally adopted. A strong pressure was made for the passage of a bill to amend the Bridge law, permitting cities to issue bonds to insure construction, etc., but the Senate action rendered it impossible to bring it to a vote.

MONDAY, Feb. 7.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the session yesterday with the bill providing for the reorganization of the constitution. The bill, however, was not passed. The House passed the bill for the reorganization of the constitution.

HOUSE.—About twenty new bills were introduced, among which were: Abolishing the Grand Jury system, and bringing prosecutions before the judges of the peace; establishing a whipping-post for wife-beaters; providing for the separation of the sexes in the State Prison; a bill for the Bureau of Statistics, enacting a household exemption law, etc.

TUESDAY, Feb. 8.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the day considering bills on second reading. A resolution was adopted fixing on Friday morning to take a vote on the bill calling for a Constitutional Convention, and re-establishing the old mode of electing Senators.

HOUSE.—A considerable and somewhat heated debate was held over the House's Resolution to amend the law relating to the election of judges for colored and white children. The Legislature will visit the Normal school at Terre Haute, and the State Normal school at Indianapolis.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 9.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill authorizing cities to establish homes and schools for dependent children, and to provide for the care of the insane. The measure empowering the Governor to appoint the Trustees and Directors of the various benevolent and reformatory institutions. A bill passed for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 10.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 11.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 12.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 13.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 14.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 15.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 16.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 17.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 18.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 19.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 20.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 21.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 22.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 23.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 24.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 25.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 26.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 27.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 28.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 29.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 30.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 31.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 32.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 33.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SUNDAY, Feb. 34.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

MONDAY, Feb. 35.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

TUESDAY, Feb. 36.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 37.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

THURSDAY, Feb. 38.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

FRIDAY, Feb. 39.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at 6 per cent.

SATURDAY, Feb. 40.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the bill for the purpose of providing for the construction of free gravel roads by issuing bonds not exceeding $10,000, running eight miles at