Rev. Wilson Beckner has been appointed postmaster at Kentland to fill the vacancy occasioned by resignation of S. P. Conner.

The Circuit Court at Kentland adjudged that $68 75 was sufficient compensation to Spottswood, of the Press, for the "whining" he received at the hands of Poole.

Good Advice.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens was recently at Augusta, Ga., where he was waited upon by the members of a Hose Company which had changed its name from "Blannerhasset" to "Stephens Hose Company." The Company presented to Mr. Stephens an address and a series of resolutions setting forth their change of name and their impelling motive. Mr. Stephens availed himself of the opportunity to say a few words to the young men composing the Company. He told them "the battle of life was opening for them," and "that it was a terrible battle to fight," that "they should fix their aspirations high." He advised them to be "truthful, honorable, honest, just, willing to do right to others, governed by integrity; these were private virtues. In public life let virtue, intelligence and patriotism be their guide. With all its troubles and errors, this is the greatest country in the world. There is nothing like it under the sun, for it gives liberty to all and an opportunity to young men to advance to any position. When he was a prisoner in a Federal Fort something was said about a proposition to be made to prisoners of State that if they would promise to leave the country and never return they should be allowed to do so. An officer mentioned this to him, and asked him what he would do. He said he for one would not accept such a proposition; he would rather be hanged in the United States than live in any other country. Never strive for an office for the honor or it will confer. He would as soon have stolen goods as to seek for an office for the honor of it. Survive rather to confer honor upon the office. He impressed upon them the necessity of study. With ten hours for labor and eight for sleep, there would be six left. What would they do with these? Did they know how much could be learned in those six hours? Richard Henry Wilde, who became one of the greatest of poets and orators, was a clerk in a store, and had to study between times. William H. Crawford was a school teacher, and from small beginnings rose to the highest positions. He was a candidate at one time for the Presidency. It was said that Napoleon said of him, at St. Cloud, that he was the only man he felt like taking off his hat to. He himself had commenced the study of law on the 25th of May, 1864, and was admitted to the Bar in the following July. And it was said he passed a very creditable examination. He had studied Blackstone, Starke on Evidence, Chitty on Pleading, and the statutes of the State. He had also prepared his first speech, which he delivered on the Fourth of July. The great maxim which he learned when a boy was:

"Honor and shame from no condition rise; Act well your part, there all the honor lies." Certainly such advice to young men, coming from a man like Alexander H. Stephens, is worthy of wide reading, North and South, for none know better than the great Southern statesman himself the value of high aspirations and tireless industry.

In loving their country. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and while we desire and hope that the safety of our country will never again be menaced by an internal or a foreign foe, yet the youth of the land should be taught that if, unhappily, the emergency should ever come, it will be their sacred duty to fight for and for their country, as did those whose memory we honor to-day. This world, without liberty, would not even be a respectable habitation. Hence we honor our forefathers who upon many bloody battle-fields secured for this nation the priceless inheritance of freedom; and we give equal honor to those of the late war, who by their valor and with the loss of their lives, preserved this freedom to ourselves and coming generations.

The Ladies' Literary Society closed the exercises of the day with a very appropriate and instructive programme.

Over the County.

Barkley Items.
A gentle shower would be of great benefit to our wheat, which is now heading out.

The young ideas, at Burns', are being taught how to shoot by Miss Ida Coons, who is giving good satisfaction.

Mr. George Gruter, living one-half mile north of Center, is in a critical condition from the effects of injuries received by his team running away some time since. Mr. G. is one of our best citizens, and we hope he may soon recover.

At Center School House, on last Sunday, Rev. Thompson preached to a large and intelligent audience, one of the most able, interesting and instructive sermons your correspondent has ever listened to.

Corn-planting is now the order of the day, consequently our corn looks fine and our fields are as void of weeds as a reporter's pocket-book is of money. Why should this be, when we have some of the best land in the country, and first class farmers who get up early each day, work hard all week, and don't go to town every Saturday afternoon for a dram of that double-distilled?—Just ask Charley Price what the rest of the sentence is.

We have been permitted to peruse a letter from our old friend, M. C. Banfield, and thinking, as items are scarce, a few extracts from it would not be uninteresting. I give them, in substance, as follows. He says:

"I started from Evansville on the evening train, Wednesday, April 13th, arrived in Chicago about 12 o'clock p. m., same day. Paid $45 for a ticket to Liverpool. On the 14th, at 9 a. m., took the train for Boston, and drank in the beauties of American scenery along the route until I reached the capital of the Bay State. Then bidding farewell to 'the land of the free and the home of the brave,' we set sail for England's tranquil shore, and soon we were being wafted along in a north-easterly direction, by gentle zephyrs from the south-west until after having been at sea eleven days, and sailing on an average at the rate of 275 miles per day, we anchored safely in the harbor of the objective point of my through ticket. There I again took the train, and a journey of seven hundred miles in a southerly direction brought me to that place said to be the dearest on earth—Home! Here I found friends and relatives all, except my father, enjoying the priceless boon of health. 'Times here are very hard. Wages for farm hands from $10 to $12 per month; miners from $10 to $15 per month; house rent from $15 to $70 per year; land from $15 to $100 per acre, and $20 per acre for timber. 'So you can see that this government is administered in the 'interest of the rich at the expense of the poor,' who are no more thought of than an American dog. I long to come back to free America, and I will come as soon as circumstances will permit me to do so."

Union Township Items.

Corn all planted.
Rain needed badly.
Herdsmen making new burns for their cattle.

Austin Lakin is scouring the country in the interest of the Illustrated Family Herald. We wish him success.

John Gant, of Marion township, has visited his parents in Union, since my last report.

A Sabbath school has been organized at the Harrington school house with Dr. Robin as superintendent and David W. Shields as secretary. Attendance good, and all enthusiastic in advancing the good work.

Teachers' Institute will be held at Grape Island next Saturday. The County Superintendent expected to be present. A general turn out anticipated.

Why does Moriel visit Union in his carriage so often? We suspect it is to see—Chat—. We mean upon special topics.

Sheep shearing in full blast.
Jim Garret and family are visiting M. P. Comer, ex-Trustee of Union township, near Goodland.

Rev. Abram Miller will preach at his regular appointments on the second Sunday in June.

Slip-Up Items.

Corn is doing well.
Still dry at Slip-Up.
Wheat and oats need rain.
Work on the railroad is being crowded right along—some 75 or 80 hands at work, and so soon as the grading is done track-laying will be speedily finished.

Eight car loads of iron at the end of the track. Sixteen miles of track down, and within five miles of the Kanawha river.

Joseph Boyce a well-known citizen of this county, has removed to Elk Falls, Kansas, has bought 50 acres of land—40 in cultivation, and 10 acres of nice timber, on the bank of Elk river. He is well satisfied.

Weather cool and health good at Slip-Up. SAND LAPPER.

Lee Items.
Health good and business brisk.
Gardens and small grain begin to need rain.

The church-going people of this vicinity begin to talk of having a picnic or basket meeting soon, in what is known as Bear Grove, on the uncle Fred Rishling farm, near Lee.

The Walker township correspondent of the Republican seems to claim for that section the largest girl, considering age. Well, we of Monon will enter the ring with a girl 13 years old and weighs 195 lbs. She, too, was last winter voted a chromo by the people of Bradford as being the best looking girl in the burg.

We, of Monon, also claim the most useful professional. Our man is a doctor, a preacher, a lawyer, a school teacher and a politician.—Can doctor a man in sickness; preach his funeral when dead; settle up the estate, and then educate the orphans; also can make a political speech when desired.

We also have, near Lee, the smallest young lady, considering age, in Jasper or White counties. She belongs to Jasper county, is 21 years old, and weighs less than 60 lbs.

Our young store-keeper has at last laid aside the gum boots, has donned the straw hat and duster, and reads the Democratic Sentinel under a shade tree. Guess he has postponed that wedding. Cheer up, Cal, she has just gone to visit her mother a few days.

Our merchant, Mr. E. Hoover, has completed a nice fence around his property. Lee is fairly booming.—There is a good opening for a blacksmith here. Who'll come!

VIOLET.
P. S.—Al. Rishling claims the first baby at Lee. It's a boy, and Al. feels proud.

KEENER TOWNSHIP, June 1, 1881.
EDITOR DEMOCRATIC SENTINEL:

Dear Sir—I send you these few lines for publication, and the sentiment expressed is that of at least hundreds of the voters of Keener township. I see by reference to the Republican of May 26th, 1881, that a bridge across the Kanawha river, at Dunn's Ford, is a fixed fact. Now, in the language of T. P. Fayer, "a bridge across the Kanawha river, at Dunn's Ford, is superfluous," and will be of very little benefit to the people of Jasper county, only Hon. I. D. Dunn, who will be personally benefited several hundred dollars by the building of said bridge. This issue was made some two and a half years ago, during a closely contested campaign, and the idea not only denied but ridiculed. The bridge, if built, will only be a few rods over two miles west of the line between Jasper and Keener counties, and but four miles west of San Pierre, a station on the line of the L., N. & C. R.R., which gives to the people of the northern portion of Kanawha township a very good trading point; and if they wish to cross the river into Porter county they have only to go two miles up the river from the R.R. crossing, and five miles below, to Baum's bridge, which gives very good accommodations for getting to Kott's Station or Valparaiso, in Porter county. Therefore, it is very difficult to conceive where public necessity requires the county to be taxed to the tune of fifteen hundred or two thousand dollars for the erection of a bridge at Dunn's Ford.

Now I wish to speak of a petition for a bridge across the Kanawha river, or one and one-half mile west of the line between ranges 6 and 7, in Jasper county. The petition was filed June 5, 1877, and a survey of the route made by George Johnson, by virtue of an order of the Commissioners. This bridge, if built, would give the people of Keener township an outlet to Hebron, in Porter county, a distance of only five or six miles, but as now traveled we have to go a mile or ten miles east to Baum's bridge, and the same distance back, before we can reach Hebron. If this bridge was built it would place Rensselaer and Hebron in direct communication, which would be of great benefit to the people of both counties. But it seems as though we must wait yet a little while longer and vote the Republican ticket.

During the last campaign we were goaded with the party lash, and made to understand that if the present Commissioner of the second district was cleared the grade and bridge over the Kanawha river in which he is interested should await its turn, and the one we were interested in over the Kanawha river, would receive his support. But, let our position be dismissed. Wonder if his petition will be dismissed at the next term of Commissioners' Court.
