

Newspaper Decisions.
 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
 2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their subscription, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.
 3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers, the publishers are not responsible for the loss of the papers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
 4. The courts have decided that "refusing to take papers from the office or removing and leaving them scattered for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."
 5. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.
 6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on and the subscribers will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears is sent to the publisher.

BATES & HAVENS.
 Upon a Sunday evening, when the soul is lifted on the wings of faith, and a holy faith and a holy calm goods over all nature, what tender regret comes with the thought that the tubs must be got up from the cellar, so that washing may begin at 5 o'clock Monday morning.
 Why did Kate Chase Sprague? and why did Sprague chase Conkling? and why were not all of them chaste?—Lafayette Times.
 Monticello Herald: It is probable that the order of the State Board of Health requiring children to be vaccinated before re-entering school after the holidays will be wholly disregarded. The Superintendent of the Indianapolis schools says he has no power to enforce a provision that will deny children the privilege of attending school, and the order meets with general disapproval throughout the State.
