

The Democratic Sentinel

OFFICIAL PAPER OF INDIANA
FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1892.

The jury in the Guiteau case have returned a verdict of guilty. The jury has performed its duty.

Playing cards at the Postoffice news and stationery stand.

Michigan City Dispatch: The promptness with which the pay car of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road makes its monthly trips is a matter of favorable comment in railway circles.

H. B. Smith, the Boss Watchmaker can be found at Hamar's.

Michigan City Dispatch: The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago is not faultily adding to its rolling stock. This is made necessary by its steadily increasing business. The company will soon be in condition to handle, without delay, all its immense traffic.

Money saved by buying your Dress Gown of J. V. W. Kirk.

An exchange says: Let any one who has an attack of lockjaw take a small quantity of turpentine, warm it and pour it on the wound, no matter where the wound is, and relief will follow in less than a minute. Nothing better can be applied to a severe cut or bruise than cold turpentine; it will give relief almost instantly. Turpentine is also a sovereign remedy forroup. Saturate a piece of flannel with it and place the flannel on the throat and chest, and in every case three or four drops on a lump of sugar may be taken inwardly.

The fact that Campbell & Farden sell boots & shoes to customers in Monticello and other towns near Rensselaer, and have even sold goods which go to Onaga, Ill., speaks well for the quality of their goods and also their prices.

"Anything" said "honest" John Sherman, last April which will beat down the Democratic party and keep the Republican party in power is justified in morals and in law. That is the doctrine of the alleged great moral party of the United States, and acting upon it they have stolen the Presidency, repudiated State and National obligations, polluted courts of justice, nullified the elections of the people, elevated rascals to important offices and stolen the public money. Under that doctrine, if they find it convenient, they will, if they retain control of the Government, repudiate the public debt.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The seven wonders of the world, in ancient times, were the pyramids of Egypt, the Pharos of Alexandria, the walls and hanging gardens of Babylon, the temple of Diana, the statue of Olympian Jupiter, the Mausoleum of Artemesia, and the Colossus of Rhodes.

The seven wonders of the world in modern times are the printing press, the steam engine, the telegraph, the daguerotype, the telephone, the phonograph and the electric light. The so-called "Seven Wonders" of ancient times were more trifles compared with those of the present time. The Brooklyn bridge, for example, would make the hanging gardens of Babylon a mere toy, while the whole seven wonders put together would sink into insignificance could the builders have seen a lightning express train at full speed.

Monro's Musical Monthly contains from ten to twelve pieces of sheet music each number, worth from $1.50 to $2.50. It is highly endorsed by Miss Hogan, Miss Moss and other local teachers and amateurs of judgment, taste and skill. Price only 5 cents. For sale at the Postoffice lobby.

A "Half-Breed" Correspondent writes to the Indianapolis Sentinel in a strain which indicates that a large element in the radical party do not believe the nation should bow in reverence to Grant & Co. Here is what he says:

If true, as stated, that Senator Logan employed Reed in the defense of Guiteau, it will account for Reed's disapproval of Scoville's attack on Arthur, Conkling and Grant. The reason of his employment would be to look after and take care of the Stalwart side of the case. Scoville had reiterated the opinion of four-fifths of the people of the country when he charged that those people were morally responsible for the murder of the late President. And if that poor miserable, God-forsaken, hell-deserving wretch, Guiteau, had said he got his inspiration from Conkling, Arthur and Grant, and left Deity out, he would have had more believers than he has got. The "ghost" will never down. The shadow will follow those men as long as time shall last, and I want to say right here, and I don't want that it should pass into forgetfulness that the name of Conkling, Guiteau, Arthur and Grant will "go thundering down the ages." I am a Republican, and I think I have as much right to my opinion in this matter as the Journal, who says that Arthur is President "by the act of God," while every school boy in the land knows that the Journal's statement is a libel on Deity.

The roads in Indiana this year are a hundred times worse than ever before. Owing to the thick headness of the Republican jackasses who comprised a majority of both houses in the last Legislature a road law was passed that left the roads without a supervisor until after the next spring elections and even the road superintendents have to be elected and qualified and taxes levied and collected for the purpose before any repairs on the highway can be commenced. Verily, a major portion of the last Legislature would abate lustre to the State Asylum for the Imbecile.—Brazil Democrat.

Teachers, send your Watches and Clocks, to Hal B. Smith at Hamar's, and have them repaired.

The Class in Music under instructions of Prof. George, closed a series of lessons with a Concert Wednesday evening last. Very marked improvement was manifested by the Class, and the Prof. and his amiable wife were highly extolled for the manner in which they had performed their task. The evening was very disagreeable and the attendance was not large, but those present enjoyed treat lost to the absent. The Prof. is an efficient instructor, and can be commended to all who are so fortunate as to secure his services. The Class will organize and continue to meet weekly under instructions yet to be selected. Rensselaer has musicians talent. Let it be improved.

At the regular annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Jasper County Agricultural Society, which was held in the court house Saturday 21st inst. a board of directors was elected for the present year, as follows: Hon. Geo. H. Brown, Hon. Wm. K. Parkinson, David H. Yeoman, Charles Pultons, Wm. S. Coen, Lucius Strong, Jay E. Jamson, James Welsh, Willis J. Innes, Geo. M. Robinson, Erastus Peacock and Horace E. James. The directors elected officers as follows: Hon. Geo. H. Brown president; Hon. Wm. K. Parkinson, vice-president; Geo. M. Robinson superintendant; Horace James, secretary; Willis J. Innes, treasurer; James Welsh, marshal.

"How do you like the character of St. Paul?" asked a person of his lady one day, during a conversation about the saints and the apostles. "Ah, he was a good, clever old soul, I know," replied the lady, "for he once said, you know, that we must eat what is set before us, and ask no questions for conscience's sake. I always thought I should like him for a boarder."—Modern Argosy.

1881. 1881. The Indiana WEEKLY SENTINEL

Has been enlarged and improved until it is now the LARGEST and the VERY BEST paper published in the West.

The WEEKLY SENTINEL is in all regards a superior eight page 56 column paper.

The merits of the Sentinel as a general newspaper are so well known, that mention of it is superfluous. We will add, however, that the management has arranged and fully determined that no paper shall furnish so good a practical value to its patrons for the money.

In its news, its editorials, its literary, and miscellaneous—in a word, in its general reading—it shall not be surpassed by any paper circulated in the State. It will be particularly adapted to the family circle. No reading, thinking man in the State can afford to do without the Weekly Sentinel at the small cost at which it is furnished.

THE SENTINEL will continue to be the same earnest advocate of true American Democracy in the future that it has been in the past; indeed, it proposes to battle more vigorously than ever against the party of centralization and corruption. It will monopolize over and control the Republican party, and in the future, as in the past, it can not do otherwise than foster class legislation, thereby tramping upon the interests of the producing masses.

The motto of the Sentinel is, "Hold fast to the Democratic faith and battle on," and as certainly as God reigns victory will ultimately be with the people.

The Republican party can not survive its crimes. Its monumental iniquities cast their shadows abroad the length and breadth of the land. Just men of all political opinions are horrified at its colossal crimes. Its ambition is for plunder and imperial power. Its downward progress, from the days when Grant's thieves organized the Whisky Ring to raise a corruption fund, to Guiteau's tragedy, has been marked by infamy at every step. From the days when John Sherman bartered Federal offices for perjuries to Hayes, crimes have followed each other in rapid succession. The flood-tide of livery has flowed grandly. There have been Star Route thieves, Treasury thieves, Navy Department thieves, War Department thieves, and Secret Service thieves, and Indiana has had Dorsey, the notorious Star Route thief, and Secretary of the Republican National Committee, in the State, organizing crime to carry the State against the will of the people. The Sentinel will invite the people of Indiana to contemplate these Republican methods to obtain and maintain power. It will keep its readers informed with regard to Republican fights for spoils, the mutual denunciations of its factions, their criminal actions and recriminations, their mutual hates which culminated in the assassination of the President, thereby capping the climax of horrors and completing the work of infamy.

With this record of crime, the Republican party asks for a new lease of power, and it will be the high ambition of the Sentinel to defend its purposes and emancipate the country from its debauching grasp.

THE SENTINEL, in addition to its superiority, is, moreover, an Indiana paper, devoted to the lowest price of circulation, and especially representing the interests of the people, and we are Democrats to bear this in mind, and SELECT YOUR OWN STATE PAPER when you come to take subscriptions and make up clubs.
